WEEK'S RECORD IN REAL ESTATE.

Autumn Business Opening Very Slowly and Without Large Sales.

ANGRY PROPERTY OWNERS.

As to Light—Heard on the Street—August Building—Realty Notes—Agents' Reports.

A glance at the reports of the agents will show that, as compared with weeks of the recent past, business in real estate has commenced to move. The start, however, is being slowly made, and no heavy transactions are recorded. The sale of No. 421 North Seventh street for $40,000 is the largest of the week.

Week's Transfers.

During the week ending Friday evening, Monday (Labor Day) being a holiday, 104 deeds transferring real estate were filed at the Recorder's office, the total considerations being $247,536.

August Building.

As was stated in these columns several weeks ago, there is a decided increase in the amount of building going on. August permits show a material gain as regards cost over those of 1899, the respective totals being $628,366 and $441,821. Unless appearances are deceptive, this increase is likely to continue. Not only is there ample scope for new buildings, but the supply of houses and flats for renting purposes is far below the demand. St. Louis has not for years been so closely rented up as now, and, with a great international exposition ahead, it will be surprising if a wonderful development in building is not soon in evidence.

Angry Property Owners.

Clark Kretchmar of 4260 Page boulevard is not proposing to build a spitehouse on McMillan avenue, but he is endeavoring to move to the choice residence street what remains of a burnt frame structure recently purchased by him after the fire for a mere song. Besides this, he is apparently acting without proper authority, as the Building Department has granted him no permit, while the property-owners on McMillan avenue are bitterly opposing the invasion. Mr. Krehlman, it is said, has a permit from Mayor Ziegenhein, but the angry opposition insists that even the one-candle-power Mayor has no right to override the requirements of the law and the wishes of the taxpayers concerned.

A meeting of McMillan avenue property-owners was held at the Real Estate Exchange on Friday afternoon. Henry L. Cornet presided, and Sidney Schiele was secretary. Among those present were: James Cox, Moses N. Sale, James P. Brady, Frank Bergs, Joseph E. McGinnis, Louis Stumpf, Mrs. Laura E. Scott, W. H. Scott, D. C. Dyer and Given Campbell. These are citizens of standing, and many of them own beautiful homes on the street, toward which Mr. Kretchmar's "shack" is, or was, being slowly hauled—for, owing to the protest made, the Building Department has ordered the hauling process stopped until the case is settled. The feeling at the meeting was intense. Mr. Kretchmar desired to be heard, but he had not been invited to attend, and the meeting had no desire to hear from him. A committee of three—Messrs. Hy. L. Cornet, Louis Stumpf and M. N. Sale—was appointed to wait on the Mayor and ask that the permit referred to be revoked. If necessary the committee will institute injunction proceedings.

In the meantime Mr. Kretchmar seems to be between the devil and the deep, blue sea. The cause of the trouble is on rollers, and on other people's property, and as intervening property-owners vow they will not allow it to traverse their land, it is not easy to see how, under any circumstances, the wreck can reach the lot owned by Mr. Kretchmar, 450 feet west of Taylor an McMillan avenue. Mr. Kretchmar's idea was to build an addition to the "burnt lumber pile," have it painted up nicely and occupy it as a home.

Heard on the Street.

John C. Hall left on the C. & A. yesterday for Chicago. It is rumored that Mr. Hall is perfecting plans to erect another building in the business district, larger than the Carleton, and that details will be made public in a few days.

As to Light.

Some months ago, when, by reason of the willful negligence of the Municipal Assembly, St. Louis was menaced by a season of total darkness, the real estate men took decisive action. A mass meeting held on 'change adjourned to meet next day in the Chamber of the House of Delegates and demanded the closing of temporary contracts. The result is a matter of history. Contracts were made and the danger was averted.

To-day a very large portion of the residence district of the city is in darkness, and, while the blame is primarily due to the same sources as before, an intense feeling exists against the old lighting company, which has declined to fill the temporary gap caused by the impossibility of getting new lights in position in so short a time. On Realty Row agents are outspoken.

"It is an outrage," said Joseph P. Whyte yesterday, "and the people should not submit to it. This company has the use of our streets, its poles still disfigure our sidewalks, it has drawn hundreds of thousands of dollars from the City Treasury, and now it leaves the taxpayers in the lurch. We took strong measures before, and the situation calls for such action now. The company is morally responsible, and should be held so, for any harm that may befall the city or the citizens as a result of its selfish course."

Realty Notes.

A. L. Terry is home from the lakes in splendid health.

E. W. Greer has returned from his Western chicken hunt.

Paul Jones and family have returned from Harbor Beach.

Joseph P. Whyte is at his desk again after a brief visit to New York, Boston and the Atlantic resorts.

James Maguire returned during the week from the lakes. He spent several days at Detroit, and the comparison he drew between the streets there and those of St. Louis was by no means flattering to the latter.

J. I. Epstein came back Tuesday after a three-weeks' holiday spent in Beloit, Kas., and St. Joseph, Mo. He seems to have had a jolly time, and to have made a big hit with the city authorities at St. Jo especially.

The State Republicans certainly made a wise choice in making E. C. Rowse their treasurer. Mr. Rowse was formerly treasurer of the Real Estate Exchange and his record fits him for national honors.

GRAIN BUYERS IN A TRUST.

Kansas Populists Uncover Facts Regarding a Noxious Combine.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 8.—The State Populist Committee in Kansas announces that it has decided to expose the workings of a grain buyers' combination, which, by controlling prices and stifling competition, is robbing the Kansas farmers annually, it is claimed, of millions of dollars.

John Breidenthal, fusion candidate for Governor of Kansas, has collected testimony and data to prove the existence of the grain combine, and is confident that the promised exposure will cause the Republican ticket to be overwhelmingly defeated this fall. The combine is known as the Kansas Grain Dealers' Association. Similar organizations are said to exist in Oklahoma, Nebraska, Iowa and other grain producing States.

Mr. Breidenthal says that the members agree not to bid against one another and to accept a certain per cent of the grain offered at the various stations. The Kansas association is made up of about 400 grain dealers, including the owners of big and little elevators and track buyers.

ELOPERS ON TENTERHOOKS.

After Long Search They Find a Justice of the Peace to Marry Them.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Vienna, Mo., Sept. 8.—Lee Agee, son of a prominent citizen and business man of Linn, and Miss Belle Benson, daughter of the Presiding Judge of the County Court of Osage County, eloped to this place and were married. They arrived late in the evening and found all the preachers absent. The only person in town who could marry them was Justice of the Peace Eads. It was late at night before the ceremony was performed, and in the meantime the young couple, who evidently feared pursuit, were so worried that they could eat no supper.

MICHIGAN'S STORY WAS GOOD.

Judge Clark Discharged Him on His Statement.

Charles Michigan, an employe of a hotel at Sixth street and Washington avenue, was arraigned in the Court of Criminal Correction yesterday morning on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon. When he was called before the bar and the charge read to him, he pleaded guilty.

Judge Clark said before pronouncing sentence that he wanted to hear some of the evidence. After the police officer had told of the arrest, Michigan was called upon to explain.

"Your Honor," he began, "I have a sweetheart, whose life was threatened by a fellow she jilted, and she is afraid of him. It was to protect her that I armed myself."

"Discharged," said the Court, and Michigan left the courtroom a free man.

ILLINOISAN FALLS INTO A FORTUNE.

"Bill" Carey Suddenly Becomes a Person of Importance in Centralia.

SECOND SON OF A NOBLE.

Death of His Older Brother Entitles the Man Who Long Kept His Family Affairs Secret to Half a Million.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Centralia, Ill., Sept. 8.—W. L. D. Carey, known to Centralia people as "Bill" Carey, left here last night accompanied by his son, Clarence Carey, of East St. Louis, for the Isle of Man to take possession of his father's estate at that place. Mr. Carey and his family have been entirely too uncommunicative about their affairs to suit Centralia people for many years, and they are doing no more talking now.

The story, as it is understood here, is a simple one. Mr. Carey was the second son of an English noble, and came to this country a number of years ago to make his own way. He was married here, and always made a living.

During his Centralia residence, he was a mail clerk for a number of years, and for a time conducted a grocery store. Later he went into the commission and produce business, and made money.

Then it appears there was an unpleasantness in his family, and he went to Chicago and connected himself with a commission-house there, and has been traveling in that line of business for many years.

His wife and children held this place as their home. His two sons, Clarence and George, went into the service of the Illinois Central Railroad as clerks, and became located at East St. Louis and Chicago. One daughter died in Chicago. Miss Eva Carey, prominent in local society, remained here with her mother. The family received a monthly allowance from the father of Mr. Carey.

W. L. D. Carey was the second son, and not a great part of the estate was expected for him, but some time ago the eldest son died, and last month the father died. A week or so ago, Mr. Carey came down from Chicago, and visited at the home of his family until his son, Clarence, who has once visited his grandfather's estate, came over from East St. Louis, to go to England with his father.

Mr. Carey is heir, it now appears, to about $500,000.

Mr. Carey contented himself by telling an old friend that the fortune would be enough for him to "have a time and take things easy for the rest of his life," and that the boys would not have to work any longer.

WEEKLY BANK STATEMENT.

Now Hold $26,056,250 in Excess of 25 Per Cent Rule Requirement.

New York, Sept. 8.—The weekly bank statement for five days shows the following changes:

Surplus, reserve decreased	$1,022,225
Loans, increased	1,959,600
Specie, increased	2,387,500
Legal tenders, decreased	2,711,100
Deposits, increased	2,794,500
Circulation, increased	204,100

The banks now hold $26,056,250 in excess of the requirements of the 25 per cent rule.

The Financier says:

"The statement of the Associated Banks of New York for the week ending September 8 reflects a somewhat greater degree of business activity, both in the matter of local commercial loans and with the interior. For the first time in a long period, the banks have received less money than they have forwarded to Western and Southern points. They gained, it is true, as a result of transactions with the subtreasury, but the system of averages employed does not show the exact balance and the various institutions probably hold more money than the totals indicate. The reported loss of cash holdings is small, amounting to $323,600, but this, combined with the extra reserve necessitated by the expansion of $2,794,500 deposits, decreases the surplus a little more than one million dollars, bringing the total to $26,056,250, which is very much higher than at the corresponding periods over several years past.

"The gain of $1,959,600 in loans was rather larger than anticipated. The present volume of the loan item, amounting to nearly $819,000,000, is the highest of the year, and, as any addition must necessarily enlarge deposits, and, therefore, increase reserve requirement, it will be seen that this, combined with a withdrawal of money to the interior, must operate in the direction of lowering the surplus reserve rapidly.

"The principal point of interest just at present is the estimated requirement for crop-moving purposes. Careful inquiry extending over large areas of territory leads to the impression that the drain on New York this year will be less than usual, owing to the abundance of money at other centers, but for all that bankers of long experience are cautious in indorsing this opinion. One factor that is to be taken into consideration is the doubling of the circulation by national banks at this center. It is expected that this money will be used largely in interior remittances, and the effect will be to furnish a great deal of currency without a radical reduction in reserves, and the country has to-day nearly or quite $80,000,000 of national bank currency more than a year ago, and there is no question that it is to play an important part in the fall business now at hand."

Treasury Statement.

Washington, Sept. 8.—To-day's statement of the Treasury balances in the general fund, exclusive of the $150,000,000 gold reserve in the division of redemption, shows: Available cash balance, $136,962,445; gold, $68,196,700.

MONITOR WYOMING LAUNCHED.

Senator Warren's Daughter Christened the New War Craft.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 8.—The United States monitor Wyoming was successfully launched at high tide this morning from the shipyard of the Union Iron Works, in the presence of thousands of enthusiastic people, lined along the shores or crowded on excursion steamers.

The event had been made a feature of the semicentennial celebration of California's admission into the Union. The launching was managed without hitch by Superintendent Dickie of the Union Iron Works.

About the bows of the vessel a platform had been built for the guests of honor, including Governor Richards of Wyoming, Adjutant General Frank H. Stizen, Colonel A. P. Hansen and wife, Major Thomas Wilhelm, Captain P. Covert and Captain Patrick Sullivan, constituting his staff; and Miss Hattie Warren, daughter of United States Senator Warren, who christened the vessel by breaking the usual bottle of wine and exclaiming, "I name thee Wyoming," as the last supporting props were removed and the monitor started from the ways and slid slowly into the sea.

When the vessel's stern touched the water the spectators sent up a mighty cheer, which, however, was soon drowned in the din made by scores of steam whistles.

Little more than the hull of the Wyoming is finished, but work is being pushed forward.

DR. KING SEEKS THE CAUSE OF DISEASE.

Why Do Other Doctors Fail? They Try to Cure the Effects of Disease. Dr. King Diagnoses the Case, Finds the Cause, Removes It, and Nature Then Removes the Effects of the Disease.

NATHANIEL K. KING, M. D.

Other doctors confess that they cannot cure the cases which Dr. King does cure.

"Dr. King cured me, and I believe that he can cure you. I tried other doctors, but they failed to cure. They seemed to care more about my money than my case."

This is what Dr. King's patients say. They tell this to their friends, and in this way one patient brings many others to "the doctor who cures."

Dr. King has frequently been offered thousands of dollars for the use of his formulas by other physicians, but he has always refused because in unskillful hands even his remedies would fail to cure. His method is his own, and so long as he lives it will be administered only under his direction.

All of Dr. King's medicines are prepared in his own laboratories, under his personal direction, and he spares no expense in order to procure the purest and best drugs, and makes no charge for medicine furnished to patients.

He treats every patient to cure him, and not to keep him along from month to month for the sake of the monthly fee.

DR. KING'S INFALLIBLE DIAGNOSIS.

There are two things essential with Dr. King:

FIRST—Power of diagnosis.

SECOND—Knowledge of the proper methods to apply for the counteracting of diseased conditions.

The first of these is very near akin to the genius of the artist and the poet. It must be born in a man. Without this ability to locate a disease and tell its condition, the physician is always working in the dark, and his practice is little more than one of experiment. Men like this are dangerous to health; it would be far better usually to let nature take her course.

The keen instinct of an Indian hunter sees a score of signs of a trail that the white man would pass by unnoticed. So it is with the expert diagnostician. The symptoms, often very slight, that other physicians fail to notice, mean to him the beginning or the progress of disease. And this is why there are great specialists, and this also is the reason, because of the lack of this inborn ability, that so many fail to cure.

It is this power of diagnosis, this ability to tell immediately the nature of a disease, that has placed Dr. Nathaniel K. King at the head of his profession in his specialty.

It was thought by many several years ago, when the X Rays were first discovered, that they could be used to advantage in the diagnosis of disease, but as Dr. King pointed out at that time these expectations have never been realized—and they never will be. The X Rays will not show the minute cells, the surfaces of the delicate tissues, the microscopic germs of disease, the poisonous gases, etc. Who will claim that Uric Acid or any other poisonous substances in the blood can be detected by the X Rays?

Dr. King's diagnosis is infallible. He makes no experiments. When he treats a case he treats it for the diseased condition which exists. This is why he cures; this is why his cures come about so speedily; this is why his cures are permanent.

WEAKENED MANLY FUNCTIONS.

Dr. King's treatment for that terrible condition of mental and bodily weakness brought about by youthful ignorance and folly or by excesses in later life is unlike all others. It is not like the treatments used by some so-called specialists, remedy companies, medical institutes and electric-belt concerns, simply a stimulant, which acts for a few days and then leaves the poor, deluded patient in worse condition than before. Dr. King's treatment cures; it acts on every weakened portion of the body. It builds up nerve tissue and muscular strength and revitalizes the whole body. Every organ is put in such condition that it can perform naturally its proper functions. All unnatural losses and drains are stopped. The eye becomes bright and the brain clear. Youth returns to the prematurely old body. There is no more lame back or shambling gait; there is no more dread of society or weakness of memory. The hitherto miserable victim becomes fitted for a husband and a father.

This is what Dr. King's treatment does, and it does it invariably in every case, never mind how serious the condition of the patient.

VARICOCELE.

Any operation for Varicocele means that a portion of the blood vessels which supply the glands must be removed; consequently, there can never be, after such operation, the strength and virility which previously existed in a state of health. Dr. King's method of treatment cures Varicocele without any operation and restores to these weakened blood vessels and the glands which they supply a perfect, natural state of health and vitality. His is the only method of treatment which does this. The treatment is painless and requires no loss of time from work.

STRICTURE.

Dr. King also, by a method entirely his own, cures Stricture without any operation or pain, or loss of time from business. This treatment was invented by Dr. King, and there is positively no other treatment in use which will cure Stricture without aid of the knife or cautery.

BLOOD POISONING

In all its different stages is cured with absolute certainty by Dr. King's treatment without salivation or any other ill effects. The cures performed by him are radical, speedy, permanent.

He also treats with uniform success all other forms of Blood and Skin diseases, such as Scrofula, Eczema, Ulcers, Sores, Pimples, Blotches, etc., etc.

REFLEX COMPLICATIONS AND CHRONIC DISORDERS.

In curing an ailment of any kind Dr. King never fails to remove all reflexes or chronic disorders. If the case is Varicocele, the weakness caused by it disappears. If it is Stricture, and has developed into Prostatic, Bladder or Kidney affections, the injured organs are all restored to a perfectly healthy condition. If it is Contagious Blood Poison, any and all Skin, Blood and Bone Diseases arising from the taint are entirely and permanently eliminated from the system. If it is Impotency, the many distressing symptoms following in its train and indicating a premature decline of physical, mental and nervous power are totally removed and rapidly replaced by the youthful energy of robust manhood. Hence all resulting ills and reflexes that are often more serious than the original ailment that gives rise to them—all disappear completely and forever with the cure of the main malady.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dr. King can treat some cases successfully at home, but some require a personal examination, and one visit at his office for a thorough diagnosis is preferred, but if it is inconvenient or impossible for you to visit him, write him a full and unreserved history of your case, plainly stating all the symptoms of your trouble.

"FACTS FOR MEN."

Dr. King has had thousands of inquiries regarding his wonderful method of treatment, and has compiled a treatise upon the diseases he so successfully cures, and will send a copy of the latest edition of this neatly leather-bound booklet, entitled "FACTS FOR MEN," describing his treatment for any of the above diseases.

Free, postpaid, in plain envelope, to any man upon request.

DR. KING MAKES NO CHARGE FOR CONSULTATION OR ADVICE, IN PERSON OR BY MAIL. OFFICE HOURS, 8 A. M. TO 8 P. M.; SUNDAYS, 9 A. M. TO 1 P. M.
