

TO THE NORTHWEST THE FAR NORTHWEST.

The Burlington operates, in connection with the Northern Pacific road, via Billings, Montana, the longest distance through trains now running from St. Louis in any direction—"The Burlington-Northern Pacific Express" at 9:00 a. m. daily for Nebraska, Wyoming, Montana, Washington, Puget Sound Cities, Portland, Oregon.

One can board any car in the train at St. Louis and leave the same car at Puget Sound or Portland, 2,400 miles away.

Send for special folder descriptive of this great through train and the country it reaches.

SEVEN BURGLARIES IN TWO MONTHS.

Boarding-House of Mrs. Heisler at No. 3516 Page Has Been Systematically Plundered.

FORMER SERVANT ARRESTED.

William Witte Had Skeleton Keys and Pawn Tickets, but Prosecuting Attorney Requires Further Evidence for Warrant.

Seven times within the last two months burglars have invaded the boarding-house of Mrs. Emma Heisler on No. 3516 Page avenue. Much property belonging to Mrs. Heisler and her boarders has been carried away and none of it has been recovered.

William Witte is under arrest on suspicion, at the Eighth District Police Station, but all the evidence obtained against him so far is purely circumstantial.

About the middle of August the depredations began. One night the house was entered and several of the rooms ransacked. Some silverware was taken from the dining-room, and a small amount of money from the room of one of the boarders. Several closets were rifled and things turned topsy-turvy. There was no evidence to show how the burglar had gained entrance.

When the entries had ceased to think of matter the house was again entered, but this time little property was stolen, only some old clothing and a carving knife. On this occasion the burglar left the side door unlocked, and this led to the belief that the house was entered by means of a duplicate key.

The following week the burglar paid another visit, a silver watch was left in a locked drawer and a silver watch was left in a locked drawer and a silver watch was left in a locked drawer.

By this time the family grew suspicious and set a trap for the intruder, but he never came while the trap was set, and they gave it up. No sooner was it put away than it was again set, and he never came.

The last visit to the house was Tuesday night, when a stick-pin, made from a 45 gold piece, a silver watch were stolen. Reports were made to the police from time to time, but nothing was done by them until Wednesday night, when William Witte, formerly a member of the family, was arrested by police.

Witte is the man who has been robbing the house so systematically for the last two months. He is a young man, about 25 years of age, and is a native of St. Louis.

On the facts were laid before Acting Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Braden yesterday, he refused a warrant, advising the police to search for more evidence.

FIGHT AGAINST BUCKET SHOPS. Chicago Board of Trade Enters on Last Skirmish.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Board of Trade officials will to-morrow enter upon what they consider the last of a family war which has been going on against bucket shops.

Chicago Board of Trade officials will to-morrow enter upon what they consider the last of a family war which has been going on against bucket shops.

On the facts were laid before Acting Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Braden yesterday, he refused a warrant, advising the police to search for more evidence.

On the facts were laid before Acting Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Braden yesterday, he refused a warrant, advising the police to search for more evidence.

On the facts were laid before Acting Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Braden yesterday, he refused a warrant, advising the police to search for more evidence.

RACE HORSE WILL RUN FOR CREDITOR.

Surety Company Gives Owner of Sound Sense a Chance to Meet a Debt.

TWO SUITS AGAINST TURFMAN.

Feed Bill of $44.75 Must Also Be Earned by the Animal, Which Will Be Entered in Events at Kinloch Park.

A horse named Sound Sense will be entered at the Kinloch track next Monday and upon its success will depend the settlement of a suit pending in Justice Spaulding's court.

The horse originally belonged to A. D. Miller, a tailor of Kansas City, and it is valued at $500. It was sent to St. Louis to run at the Fair Grounds. A suit was filed against the owner a week ago in Justice Robertson's court by the Fossitt-Klesner Feed Company for a feed bill of $44.75.

Yesterday the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, Baltimore, Md., filed a replevin suit in Justice Spaulding's court to obtain possession of the horse.

It is stated that the Fidelity company, in the event that the horse wins enough to pay the company's claim against Miller will release the animal.

The suit in Justice Robertson's court is set for October 22, and that in Justice Spaulding's court for October 23.

GIRLS OBJECT TO SLANG.

Members of Professor Thatcher's Class Draw Up a Petition.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 18.—Young women who sit at the feet of Professor Thatcher at the University of Chicago declare that the profanity of the members of their class is interfering with their studies.

"We, the undersigned members of your class in modern history, do hereby express our protest against the use of slang in your lectures. We also suggest that you learn the names of the members of your class so as to be able to call them to order when they use such terms."

One of the young women gave this example of a Thatcher lesson in history: "Some while of a knight had a scrap with his attendant, got a drop on the King and put him out of the ring. Then when his son sat on the paternal throne he had no kick coming, for he had a mortgage on the coffers of the realm and the bulge on his crown."

"Carl Martell," said the professor to-day, "has come to the office of the Board of Trade and told her to pack her clothes and go."

"Go these Kings did 'any old thing' they pleased."

Paris, Mo., Oct. 18.—James M. Worrell, general manager of Worrell's Insect Exterminator, who has been traveling in all of the principal cities of Ohio for the past five months, to-night left $500 even money with the Board of Trade.

Large Crowd at Pilot Grove. Pilot Grove, Mo., Oct. 18.—D. A. Ball spoke at the Academy building to-night to the largest audience ever assembled to greet a speaker in this place.

New York, Oct. 18.—A surgical operation was performed to-day on Roland Reed, a 14-year-old boy, who was said to-night that Mr. Reed was doing well.

Supposed St. Louisan Buried in Arkansas Had It in His Pocket. With the picture of a girl, apparently 14 years old, as their clew, the police are trying to establish the identity of a supposed St. Louisan, who was found dead in Greene County, Arkansas, last Thursday.

On the body was found an envelope bearing the address, Albert Bossard, No. 3612 North Broadway, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A. After the coroner's jury had returned a verdict of death from natural causes, there being no marks of violence, the body was buried.

ALSCHULER'S TOUR GRAND TRIUMPH.

Illinoisans by Thousands Greet Him Enthusiastically at Every Stopping Place.

CRAWFORD COUNTY NOT CLOSE.

Believed That It Will Vote for Democracy—Importance of Electing Crowley to Congress.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL. Olney, Ill., Oct. 18.—If Samuel Alschuler should live for fifty more years he would not witness more genuine enthusiasm or see larger crowds proportionate to the triumph which he started on a 5 o'clock train this morning at Mount Carmel on a local freight train, which ate up five precious hours traveling about thirty miles.

At Lawrenceville about 1,000 persons gathered at the depot while the morning mists were still falling and waited with the patience of ancient Job for two hours until Alschuler arrived. Although he had retired at 11 o'clock the night before after a hard day's work at Carmel and Mount Carmel and was routed out of bed at 4 o'clock this morning and left without breakfast, Mr. Alschuler spoke for half an hour from the front porch of the Democratic candidate for State Auditor four years ago, introduced him as the leader of the Democratic minority in the Legislature, who stood manfully against the coalition of the Republican and the last year General Assemblies of Illinois.

When Mr. Alschuler concluded his address, which was a ringing endorsement of P. G. Bradley, editor of the Robinson Constitution; Editor Sheets of the Chicago Tribune; and a dozen others rushed Mr. Alschuler to a carriage, which was already surrounded by a crowd of nearly a thousand. These were brushed aside, and as the carriage moved briskly off the air was rent with cheers for a candidate who was already a household name in Crawford County.

The train pulled into Robinson at 9 o'clock, and Chairman Lowe of the Crawford County Committee, who accompanied the party from the Robinson Constitution, Editor Sheets of the Chicago Tribune, and a dozen others rushed Mr. Alschuler to a carriage, which was already surrounded by a crowd of nearly a thousand.

When Mr. Alschuler concluded his address, which was a ringing endorsement of P. G. Bradley, editor of the Robinson Constitution; Editor Sheets of the Chicago Tribune; and a dozen others rushed Mr. Alschuler to a carriage, which was already surrounded by a crowd of nearly a thousand.

When Mr. Alschuler concluded his address, which was a ringing endorsement of P. G. Bradley, editor of the Robinson Constitution; Editor Sheets of the Chicago Tribune; and a dozen others rushed Mr. Alschuler to a carriage, which was already surrounded by a crowd of nearly a thousand.

When Mr. Alschuler concluded his address, which was a ringing endorsement of P. G. Bradley, editor of the Robinson Constitution; Editor Sheets of the Chicago Tribune; and a dozen others rushed Mr. Alschuler to a carriage, which was already surrounded by a crowd of nearly a thousand.

When Mr. Alschuler concluded his address, which was a ringing endorsement of P. G. Bradley, editor of the Robinson Constitution; Editor Sheets of the Chicago Tribune; and a dozen others rushed Mr. Alschuler to a carriage, which was already surrounded by a crowd of nearly a thousand.

When Mr. Alschuler concluded his address, which was a ringing endorsement of P. G. Bradley, editor of the Robinson Constitution; Editor Sheets of the Chicago Tribune; and a dozen others rushed Mr. Alschuler to a carriage, which was already surrounded by a crowd of nearly a thousand.

When Mr. Alschuler concluded his address, which was a ringing endorsement of P. G. Bradley, editor of the Robinson Constitution; Editor Sheets of the Chicago Tribune; and a dozen others rushed Mr. Alschuler to a carriage, which was already surrounded by a crowd of nearly a thousand.

When Mr. Alschuler concluded his address, which was a ringing endorsement of P. G. Bradley, editor of the Robinson Constitution; Editor Sheets of the Chicago Tribune; and a dozen others rushed Mr. Alschuler to a carriage, which was already surrounded by a crowd of nearly a thousand.

When Mr. Alschuler concluded his address, which was a ringing endorsement of P. G. Bradley, editor of the Robinson Constitution; Editor Sheets of the Chicago Tribune; and a dozen others rushed Mr. Alschuler to a carriage, which was already surrounded by a crowd of nearly a thousand.

When Mr. Alschuler concluded his address, which was a ringing endorsement of P. G. Bradley, editor of the Robinson Constitution; Editor Sheets of the Chicago Tribune; and a dozen others rushed Mr. Alschuler to a carriage, which was already surrounded by a crowd of nearly a thousand.

When Mr. Alschuler concluded his address, which was a ringing endorsement of P. G. Bradley, editor of the Robinson Constitution; Editor Sheets of the Chicago Tribune; and a dozen others rushed Mr. Alschuler to a carriage, which was already surrounded by a crowd of nearly a thousand.

When Mr. Alschuler concluded his address, which was a ringing endorsement of P. G. Bradley, editor of the Robinson Constitution; Editor Sheets of the Chicago Tribune; and a dozen others rushed Mr. Alschuler to a carriage, which was already surrounded by a crowd of nearly a thousand.

When Mr. Alschuler concluded his address, which was a ringing endorsement of P. G. Bradley, editor of the Robinson Constitution; Editor Sheets of the Chicago Tribune; and a dozen others rushed Mr. Alschuler to a carriage, which was already surrounded by a crowd of nearly a thousand.

When Mr. Alschuler concluded his address, which was a ringing endorsement of P. G. Bradley, editor of the Robinson Constitution; Editor Sheets of the Chicago Tribune; and a dozen others rushed Mr. Alschuler to a carriage, which was already surrounded by a crowd of nearly a thousand.

When Mr. Alschuler concluded his address, which was a ringing endorsement of P. G. Bradley, editor of the Robinson Constitution; Editor Sheets of the Chicago Tribune; and a dozen others rushed Mr. Alschuler to a carriage, which was already surrounded by a crowd of nearly a thousand.

When Mr. Alschuler concluded his address, which was a ringing endorsement of P. G. Bradley, editor of the Robinson Constitution; Editor Sheets of the Chicago Tribune; and a dozen others rushed Mr. Alschuler to a carriage, which was already surrounded by a crowd of nearly a thousand.

When Mr. Alschuler concluded his address, which was a ringing endorsement of P. G. Bradley, editor of the Robinson Constitution; Editor Sheets of the Chicago Tribune; and a dozen others rushed Mr. Alschuler to a carriage, which was already surrounded by a crowd of nearly a thousand.

When Mr. Alschuler concluded his address, which was a ringing endorsement of P. G. Bradley, editor of the Robinson Constitution; Editor Sheets of the Chicago Tribune; and a dozen others rushed Mr. Alschuler to a carriage, which was already surrounded by a crowd of nearly a thousand.

YOUTSEY'S TRIAL DRAWING A LONG END.

Evidence Is All In, Jury Has Received Instructions and Arguments Have Begun.

DEFENDANT'S CONDITION BAD.

Clock in Courtroom Has Been Stopped and Bells in Vicinity Ordered Not to Ring—Judge Stevenson to the Jury.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 18.—The Youitsey trial is drawing to a close. All the testimony is in, the instructions have been given the jury and the speeches are being made. A verdict is expected by to-morrow afternoon.

There is no improvement in Youitsey's condition. On the contrary, he is said to be worse today. News and other papers were returned and for an hour afterwards he is much worse, but is still able to rally, showing remarkable vitality.

The clock in the courtroom has been stopped and bells in the neighborhood of the courthouse will not ring while Youitsey's condition remains so serious.

One witness for the prosecution testified this afternoon that he made a thorough test and found that a man running down the steps to the basement of the executive mansion could not be heard in the case of Henry Howard and Combs were proved to be elsewhere than Youitsey said and that Youitsey was not being tried for lying.

The first speech to-night was by Victor P. Bradley for the prosecution. He said if the defense had been deprived of Youitsey's advice and actual presence in the case of Henry Howard and Combs he could not stand the strain when the evidence of his guilt began to pile up.

Bradley asked why the defense had not brought forward the names of the disreputable men claimed by the defense.

In concluding, he referred to Arthur Goetz's testimony as being false, but said, admitting it was true, then Youitsey had brought forward the names of the disreputable men claimed by the defense.

The first speech to-night was by Victor P. Bradley for the prosecution. He said if the defense had been deprived of Youitsey's advice and actual presence in the case of Henry Howard and Combs he could not stand the strain when the evidence of his guilt began to pile up.

Bradley asked why the defense had not brought forward the names of the disreputable men claimed by the defense.

In concluding, he referred to Arthur Goetz's testimony as being false, but said, admitting it was true, then Youitsey had brought forward the names of the disreputable men claimed by the defense.

The first speech to-night was by Victor P. Bradley for the prosecution. He said if the defense had been deprived of Youitsey's advice and actual presence in the case of Henry Howard and Combs he could not stand the strain when the evidence of his guilt began to pile up.

Bradley asked why the defense had not brought forward the names of the disreputable men claimed by the defense.

In concluding, he referred to Arthur Goetz's testimony as being false, but said, admitting it was true, then Youitsey had brought forward the names of the disreputable men claimed by the defense.

The first speech to-night was by Victor P. Bradley for the prosecution. He said if the defense had been deprived of Youitsey's advice and actual presence in the case of Henry Howard and Combs he could not stand the strain when the evidence of his guilt began to pile up.

Bradley asked why the defense had not brought forward the names of the disreputable men claimed by the defense.

In concluding, he referred to Arthur Goetz's testimony as being false, but said, admitting it was true, then Youitsey had brought forward the names of the disreputable men claimed by the defense.

The first speech to-night was by Victor P. Bradley for the prosecution. He said if the defense had been deprived of Youitsey's advice and actual presence in the case of Henry Howard and Combs he could not stand the strain when the evidence of his guilt began to pile up.

Bradley asked why the defense had not brought forward the names of the disreputable men claimed by the defense.

In concluding, he referred to Arthur Goetz's testimony as being false, but said, admitting it was true, then Youitsey had brought forward the names of the disreputable men claimed by the defense.

The first speech to-night was by Victor P. Bradley for the prosecution. He said if the defense had been deprived of Youitsey's advice and actual presence in the case of Henry Howard and Combs he could not stand the strain when the evidence of his guilt began to pile up.

Bradley asked why the defense had not brought forward the names of the disreputable men claimed by the defense.

Majestic Ranges.

You can't afford to take ANY chances when you buy a range—the most important article in your home. GET THE BEST AND THE BEST ONLY.

WE SELL Majestic Ranges

In the high grade only—Nos. 237 to 257—(all other numbers being their second grade) and our prices are low—the ranges being the best at any price. Set up complete and every one guaranteed absolutely perfect.

Friday, Our Great Range Day in the Basement.

Majestic Ranges.

CAPTURED THE BAND OF COUNTERFEITERS.

They Were Secretly Located in a Cavern Hidden in the Ozark Mountains.

Members of the Real Estate Exchange enjoyed the first of a series of informal dinners at the Mercantile Club last night. Three-minute speeches were the order of the evening. Topics of discussion were principally matters pertaining to the real estate business, but as President Macbeth announced, no subject was barred.

Samuel Bowman made one of the popular talks of the evening on municipal reform, in which he cited the miserable conditions existing in regard to streets and lights, due to misgovernment by the city's administration. Mr. Bowman strongly advocated a change in the Mayor's office, and the election of a public-spirited citizen, free from all taint of party politics.

His remarks were warmly applauded. After the speeches August Hatter gave a piano solo, John Amos and Thomas Grace sang, J. E. Foggy played a selection on the flute and Secretary Sidney Schulte rendered a solo.

A resolution, introduced by Charles F. Vogel, endorsing the plan to make the Mississippi a deep waterway to the Gulf, was adopted.

Among the members present were: President Malcolm P. Killeen, Vice President Joseph P. W. Wood, Secretary Charles F. Vogel, Treasurer George W. Wilson, Auditor Robert B. White, and others.

EX. WILL CLOSE TO-MORROW.

Shriner and Amateur Sports the Features To-Day.

At the Exposition to-morrow night the exhibits will hold high carnival. A big parade will be the feature. The parade will start at 7 o'clock and will be headed by the Shriner and Amateur Sports.

The parade will start at 7 o'clock and will be headed by the Shriner and Amateur Sports. The parade will start at 7 o'clock and will be headed by the Shriner and Amateur Sports.

The parade will start at 7 o'clock and will be headed by the Shriner and Amateur Sports. The parade will start at 7 o'clock and will be headed by the Shriner and Amateur Sports.

The parade will start at 7 o'clock and will be headed by the Shriner and Amateur Sports. The parade will start at 7 o'clock and will be headed by the Shriner and Amateur Sports.

The parade will start at 7 o'clock and will be headed by the Shriner and Amateur Sports. The parade will start at 7 o'clock and will be headed by the Shriner and Amateur Sports.

The parade will start at 7 o'clock and will be headed by the Shriner and Amateur Sports. The parade will start at 7 o'clock and will be headed by the Shriner and Amateur Sports.

The parade will start at 7 o'clock and will be headed by the Shriner and Amateur Sports. The parade will start at 7 o'clock and will be headed by the Shriner and Amateur Sports.

The parade will start at 7 o'clock and will be headed by the Shriner and Amateur Sports. The parade will start at 7 o'clock and will be headed by the Shriner and Amateur Sports.

The parade will start at 7 o'clock and will be headed by the Shriner and Amateur Sports. The parade will start at 7 o'clock and will be headed by the Shriner and Amateur Sports.

The parade will start at 7 o'clock and will be headed by the Shriner and Amateur Sports. The parade will start at 7 o'clock and will be headed by the Shriner and Amateur Sports.

SCORED THE CITY ADMINISTRATION.

Samuel Bowman at Real Estate Men's Dinner Recommended a Change in the Mayor's Office.

Members of the Real Estate Exchange enjoyed the first of a series of informal dinners at the Mercantile Club last night. Three-minute speeches were the order of the evening. Topics of discussion were principally matters pertaining to the real estate business, but as President Macbeth announced, no subject was barred.

Samuel Bowman made one of the popular talks of the evening on municipal reform, in which he cited the miserable conditions existing in regard to streets and lights, due to misgovernment by the city's administration. Mr. Bowman strongly advocated a change in the Mayor's office, and the election of a public-spirited citizen, free from all taint of party politics.

His remarks were warmly applauded. After the speeches August Hatter gave a piano solo, John Amos and Thomas Grace sang, J. E. Foggy played a selection on the flute and Secretary Sidney Schulte rendered a solo.

A resolution, introduced by Charles F. Vogel, endorsing the plan to make the Mississippi a deep waterway to the Gulf, was adopted.

Among the members present were: President Malcolm P. Killeen, Vice President Joseph P. W. Wood, Secretary Charles F. Vogel, Treasurer George W. Wilson, Auditor Robert B. White, and others.

MAJOR PETERSON AND WIFE ARE BOTH DEAD.

He Expired From Yellow Fever and She Retired to Her Room and Shot Herself.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

MAJOR PETERSON AND WIFE ARE BOTH DEAD.

He Expired From Yellow Fever and She Retired to Her Room and Shot Herself.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flag at El Morro and on all the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragedy occurred in the regular army and left the volunteer service.

Advertisement for EL MENTO cigars, featuring a picture of a man and the text 'IT BRINGS HAVANA HOME TO YOU'.