THIEF AT FAUST'S AHEAD WAITER.

Arrest of Joseph F. Weaver Explains the Systematic Robberies of the Last Year.

BOOTY FOUND AT HIS HOME.

All Sorts of Valuable and Fancy Articles—Chief Pickel in the Self-Assumed Role of Censor of News.

The thief who for a year has been systematically robbing Faust's restaurant and the Faust home at No. 419 Elm street has been captured in the person of Joseph F. Weaver, a head waiter in the upstairs department of the restaurant. All the property which had been stolen was found last night in Weaver's home at No. 200 Indiana avenue, and he made a full confession of the thefts.

The stolen property includes a wide variety of articles. Nothing was too small to attract the light fingers of Weaver. There were delicate lace handkerchiefs, such as gloves, fans, one dozen umbrellas, solid silver knives, forks and spoons, endless pieces of fine fabric, stacks of table linen, and in cut glass, rubber, and other articles. The booty was removed to the Four Courts, where it was fully inventoried.

Complaints were made from time to time to the management of Faust's restaurant by guests that things which they had brought in with them had been lost. Mr. Faust, who lives at the Faust home, No. 419 Elm street, also missed articles from time to time, but did not suspect the trusted head waiter. They informed the police of the losses and detectives were assigned to work on the case.

Detectives Harrington and Schmidt deserve the credit of finally discovering the thief. They worked for several days, but failed to locate the head waiter. Yesterday they arrested him. Mr. Faust was informed of the arrest and with Mrs. E. A. Faust, Mrs. Faust and Mr. Faust, who live at the Faust home, No. 419 Elm street, went to the office of the Chief of Police at the Four Courts, where a conference was held.

The result was that Weaver's home was visited. There his wife had to get out of the house. She was greatly shocked when informed that her husband had been robbing his employer. A search of the house discovered the stolen property which Weaver had stolen. This was taken charge of by detectives Harrington and Schmidt, who conveyed it to the Four Courts.

Early last evening Mrs. Glanville indicated her intention of leaving the facts connected with the robbery to The Republic. When a reporter arrived at the Faust residence, he found that Assistant Chief of Police Pickel was on the spot and had taken it upon himself to keep the facts from the newspapers. Pickel informed Mrs. Glanville that he knew nothing of the robbery. His well-known record of the robbery was that he had not heard of it, but for some reason nothing would have been learned of the affair.

"The police prefer that we do not give out the facts," said Mrs. Glanville, "and my father does not know as to whether he will prosecute the thief. No, we positively will not give out the name. It is probable that we will allow him to leave the State. He has made full confession and all the property has been recovered. The loss to us was not great. The value of the articles stolen from patrons."

Weaver has two small children.

FELLED HER ASSAILANT.

Sergeant Boyd Went to Rescue of a Sick Negress.

The daring of Sergeant Tom Boyd of the Fourth District at 10 o'clock last night saved a sick negress from her infuriated assailant.

Boyd dashed into a house just in time to knock down with his night club her assailant.

ALLEGED SCHEME TO KILL LOUBET.

Story of a Plot to Assassinate the French President Discredited by Paris Police.

Paris, Oct. 27.—The Nouvelliste de Lyons says a plot to assassinate President Loubet has been discovered.

It appears that a working electrician named Mitchell had been in Lyons, and that the electric company's premises at Nimes, standing 2500 francs. He was tracked to Orange, near Lyons, where he was arrested. Documents found on his person revealed, the paper says, an anarchist conspiracy to assassinate President Loubet on his coming visit to Lyons to unveil a monument erected to the memory of President Carnot.

Counterplot is said to have been committed by the burglar in order to obtain funds to carry out his project. He says, it is added, confessed to the police, who are now tracking his accomplices and watching anarchists in order to prevent any attempt to carry out the scheme.

Paris, Oct. 27.—The officials of the Prefecture of Police say they have investigated the Counterplot story published by the Nouvelliste de Lyons and find it to be without foundation. Counterplot, they say, is a valueless story. The officials also declare that the Brussels story of the assassination of the Prince of Wales in Brussels April 4 last, is untrue.

BRIDE DESERTED ON HER WEDDING DAY.

Mrs. Linda R. Carey Makes This Charge in Her Petition for Divorce.

TOOK THE WEDDING RING, TOO.

Couple Married on the Afternoon of August 18, and That Evening the Husband Quarreled and Departed.

Mrs. Linda R. Carey, 15 years old, whose husband married and deserted her on the same day, August 18 last, brought suit for divorce yesterday charging her husband with abandonment, non-support and slander.

John T. Carey had been acquainted with Linda Rosemeek for several years, while she was residing with her parents at No. 600 Boston avenue. Her family had opposed the match all along, but as both the young people seemed to be deeply in love the parental opposition was at length removed.

Because of the difficulty of getting to work during the strike Joseph Rosemeek, the girl's father, who is a bricklayer, removed to No. 92 Tyler street, only a few blocks from Carey's boarding place. No. 204 North Broadway.

The wedding was set for August 18. On the morning of that day Carey stated that he was in need of the funds necessary to pay for the ceremony. His prospective father-in-law advanced him $5. The wedding was celebrated at 3 o'clock that afternoon, and the ceremony was a simple one.

It was a Friday. On the Monday following the wedding Carey went to see his bride. The interview was granted, but Carey was still adverse to a reconciliation. He refused to see his bride, and she was left alone.
