

DEATH WAS HIDDEN IN "SAMPLE PUZZLE BOX."

Charleston, Ill., Lawyer Broke the String in Pulling it and Dynamite Failed to Explode.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Charleston, Ill., Nov. 23.—T. N. Coffey, Jr., a prominent lawyer and politician of this city, today gave out the details of an attempt made on his life Monday by persons unknown to him. A box containing dynamite was delivered to him by the express company and only an accident prevented the infernal contrivance from being exploded.

The package came from Aurora, but the express agent there has no clue to the conspirator. The box was wrapped in a copy of the Des Moines, Ia., State Register of November 13, 1900, and was stamped with a rubber stamp made by a St. Louis firm. Great indignation is felt here among Mr. Coffey's friends at the cowardly attempt on his life. Coffey is an exemplary young man and does not know of an enemy in all the world. Detectives have been set to work, both by Mr. Coffey and the American Express Company, and every effort will be made to ferret out this would-be assassin.

her brother, then went to Judge Adams's office. With tears in her eyes she pleaded for her brother. She stated to the judge that he had been in trouble for a long time, being unable to collect money owed him. She represented that he had not meant to injure any one with his postal, but sent it simply as a means of getting what he believed was due him.
