

THE ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC

PUBLISHERS: GEORGE KNAPP & CO. Charles W. Knapp, President and Gen. Mgr. George B. Carr, Secretary. Office, Corner Seventh and Olive Streets. (REPUBLIC BUILDING.)

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: DAILY AND SUNDAY—SEVEN ISSUES A WEEK. BY MAIL IN ADVANCE—POSTAGE PREPAID.

By Mail—In Advance—Postage Prepaid. One Year $3.00. Six Months $1.75. Three Months $1.00. Any three days, except Sunday, one year $1.00.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1900. Vol. 32, No. 151

OCTOBER CIRCULATION.

Table with columns: Date, Copies, Total. Rows for various dates from Nov 1 to Nov 28, showing circulation figures.

Total for the month 2,652,050. Less all copies spotted in printing, left over or filed 6318.

Net number distributed 2,586,232. Average daily distribution 83,426.

W. B. Carr, Business Manager of The St. Louis Republic, being duly sworn, says that the actual number of full and complete copies of the daily and Sunday Republic printed during the month of October, 1900, in its regular editions, was as per schedule below:

happily ever after," coming as naturally to the mind as a tiger follows three cheers. Just a moment, however—down along the bottom line of the story there's a black-looking snag. "There are three Dowagers, the present Duke's mother, grandmother and great-grandmother," says the cabled story. The pity of it—Oh, the pity of it! How can the little young Duchess get along in peace and amity with three Dowager Duchesses—a mother-in-law Dowager, a grandmother-in-law Dowager and a great-grandmother-in-law Dowager?

NOTHING IMPOSSIBLE. St. Louisans will note with peculiar pride and a greatly stimulated confidence the significance of to-day's opening of the new World's Fair headquarters in the Carleton building, the scene henceforth of a World's Fair activity which promises the best final results.

Citizens of St. Louis, every individual being directly concerned in the success of the World's Fair, should constitute the enlisted army of World's Fair workers. Under the direction of the World's Fair organization they should hold themselves in eager readiness for World's Fair service.

It is an optimistic soul indeed that hopes to find anywhere in Mr. McKinley's forthcoming message to Congress the faintest suggestion that restriction of the trust evil would be a good thing.

Two Carriages Needed. If it be true, as stated, by an ingenious friend of Governor Roosevelt, that the latter's expressed desire to ride in the same carriage with Mr. McKinley in the inaugural procession is due to a wish that the President elect shall share in the exceptional applause so confidently expected to greet the Vice President elect, the incident illustrates an unselfishness as rare as it is admirable.

Registration for the municipal election in St. Louis next April should be larger and a larger vote should be polled than at the recent Presidential election.

Mr. Blair Analyzes the Nesbit Election Law. In the letter which appears below Mr. James L. Blair replies to the criticism leveled by the Globe-Democrat against the Nesbit law.

HEIRBERT WELSH'S VISIT. Members of the Contemporary Club are to be sincerely congratulated upon the good sure to follow the visit of such a sincere and forcible thinker as Mr. Herbert Welsh of Philadelphia.

DOWAGERS TO BURN. There is a refreshing atmosphere of the old-fashioned fair-tale termination in the most recent developments of the pretty Miss Zimmerman-Duke of Manchester romance and elopement in high life which so agitated English and American society.

It is for this reason that St. Louis is to be congratulated upon the good fortune of a visit from Herbert Welsh. His words will be a potent factor in strengthening the public sentiment which demands better municipal government.

LEARNING THE LESSON. First Sergeant Famel of Company I, Fourteenth United States Infantry, on active service in China and soon to return to the Philippines, is doubtless correct in his belief that fighting the Filipinos will be necessary for twenty years to come if we hold the islands.

MISS ANNIE LESLIE KIRKWOOD. Mrs. George Lucy Crawford received yesterday afternoon for her sister, Mrs. Annie Leslie Kirkwood, a beautiful and valuable gift.

MR. BLAIR ANALYZES THE NESBIT ELECTION LAW. In the letter which appears below Mr. James L. Blair replies to the criticism leveled by the Globe-Democrat against the Nesbit law.

HEIRBERT WELSH'S VISIT. Members of the Contemporary Club are to be sincerely congratulated upon the good sure to follow the visit of such a sincere and forcible thinker as Mr. Herbert Welsh of Philadelphia.

DOWAGERS TO BURN. There is a refreshing atmosphere of the old-fashioned fair-tale termination in the most recent developments of the pretty Miss Zimmerman-Duke of Manchester romance and elopement in high life which so agitated English and American society.

strengthening the public sentiment which demands better municipal government.

LEARNING THE LESSON. First Sergeant Famel of Company I, Fourteenth United States Infantry, on active service in China and soon to return to the Philippines, is doubtless correct in his belief that fighting the Filipinos will be necessary for twenty years to come if we hold the islands.

MISS ANNIE LESLIE KIRKWOOD. Mrs. George Lucy Crawford received yesterday afternoon for her sister, Mrs. Annie Leslie Kirkwood, a beautiful and valuable gift.

MR. BLAIR ANALYZES THE NESBIT ELECTION LAW. In the letter which appears below Mr. James L. Blair replies to the criticism leveled by the Globe-Democrat against the Nesbit law.

HEIRBERT WELSH'S VISIT. Members of the Contemporary Club are to be sincerely congratulated upon the good sure to follow the visit of such a sincere and forcible thinker as Mr. Herbert Welsh of Philadelphia.

DOWAGERS TO BURN. There is a refreshing atmosphere of the old-fashioned fair-tale termination in the most recent developments of the pretty Miss Zimmerman-Duke of Manchester romance and elopement in high life which so agitated English and American society.

It is for this reason that St. Louis is to be congratulated upon the good fortune of a visit from Herbert Welsh. His words will be a potent factor in strengthening the public sentiment which demands better municipal government.

LEARNING THE LESSON. First Sergeant Famel of Company I, Fourteenth United States Infantry, on active service in China and soon to return to the Philippines, is doubtless correct in his belief that fighting the Filipinos will be necessary for twenty years to come if we hold the islands.

MISS ANNIE LESLIE KIRKWOOD. Mrs. George Lucy Crawford received yesterday afternoon for her sister, Mrs. Annie Leslie Kirkwood, a beautiful and valuable gift.

MR. BLAIR ANALYZES THE NESBIT ELECTION LAW. In the letter which appears below Mr. James L. Blair replies to the criticism leveled by the Globe-Democrat against the Nesbit law.

HEIRBERT WELSH'S VISIT. Members of the Contemporary Club are to be sincerely congratulated upon the good sure to follow the visit of such a sincere and forcible thinker as Mr. Herbert Welsh of Philadelphia.

DOWAGERS TO BURN. There is a refreshing atmosphere of the old-fashioned fair-tale termination in the most recent developments of the pretty Miss Zimmerman-Duke of Manchester romance and elopement in high life which so agitated English and American society.

It is for this reason that St. Louis is to be congratulated upon the good fortune of a visit from Herbert Welsh. His words will be a potent factor in strengthening the public sentiment which demands better municipal government.

LEARNING THE LESSON. First Sergeant Famel of Company I, Fourteenth United States Infantry, on active service in China and soon to return to the Philippines, is doubtless correct in his belief that fighting the Filipinos will be necessary for twenty years to come if we hold the islands.

MISS ANNIE LESLIE KIRKWOOD. Mrs. George Lucy Crawford received yesterday afternoon for her sister, Mrs. Annie Leslie Kirkwood, a beautiful and valuable gift.

MR. BLAIR ANALYZES THE NESBIT ELECTION LAW. In the letter which appears below Mr. James L. Blair replies to the criticism leveled by the Globe-Democrat against the Nesbit law.

RECEPTION FOR MRS. ROTH AND OTHER EVENTS AND NOTES.

It is very doubtful if in all its seven seasons the Apollo Club has achieved a more distinguished success than was scored last night at the Odeon in the first private concert of this season.

For this success I should give a very great deal of the credit to a marvelous young American violinist, Mr. Fritz Kreisler, whose the Apollo Club has been fortunate enough to present to a St. Louis audience. This genuine artist so impressed himself upon the favor of those who had the pleasure of listening to him in his performance as to have made his St. Louis appearance memorable indeed.

The regular programme numbers accorded to Mr. Kreisler were so accurately varied in scope as to give him excellent opportunity for his first number, which was the second of the Apollo Club's new series, the "Mrs. Ruess" of Wieniawski, called alike in its changing moods for a fiery intensity and a delicacy of treatment and execution.

Mr. Kreisler's performance of the "Dance Espagnole" of Chopin-Kreisler which the singing tone of the violin was beautifully complemented and Hubing's "Scenes de Cezard" giving full field for what must have been a kinship touch of the young Austrian, so truly was the wild Hungarian melody treated in its many shifting phases.

Mr. Kreisler's performance of the "Dance Espagnole" of Chopin-Kreisler which the singing tone of the violin was beautifully complemented and Hubing's "Scenes de Cezard" giving full field for what must have been a kinship touch of the young Austrian, so truly was the wild Hungarian melody treated in its many shifting phases.

Mr. Kreisler's performance of the "Dance Espagnole" of Chopin-Kreisler which the singing tone of the violin was beautifully complemented and Hubing's "Scenes de Cezard" giving full field for what must have been a kinship touch of the young Austrian, so truly was the wild Hungarian melody treated in its many shifting phases.

Mr. Kreisler's performance of the "Dance Espagnole" of Chopin-Kreisler which the singing tone of the violin was beautifully complemented and Hubing's "Scenes de Cezard" giving full field for what must have been a kinship touch of the young Austrian, so truly was the wild Hungarian melody treated in its many shifting phases.

Mr. Kreisler's performance of the "Dance Espagnole" of Chopin-Kreisler which the singing tone of the violin was beautifully complemented and Hubing's "Scenes de Cezard" giving full field for what must have been a kinship touch of the young Austrian, so truly was the wild Hungarian melody treated in its many shifting phases.

Mr. Kreisler's performance of the "Dance Espagnole" of Chopin-Kreisler which the singing tone of the violin was beautifully complemented and Hubing's "Scenes de Cezard" giving full field for what must have been a kinship touch of the young Austrian, so truly was the wild Hungarian melody treated in its many shifting phases.

Mr. Kreisler's performance of the "Dance Espagnole" of Chopin-Kreisler which the singing tone of the violin was beautifully complemented and Hubing's "Scenes de Cezard" giving full field for what must have been a kinship touch of the young Austrian, so truly was the wild Hungarian melody treated in its many shifting phases.

SEASON FINELY BEGUN BY THE APOLLO CLUB.

It is very doubtful if in all its seven seasons the Apollo Club has achieved a more distinguished success than was scored last night at the Odeon in the first private concert of this season.

For this success I should give a very great deal of the credit to a marvelous young American violinist, Mr. Fritz Kreisler, whose the Apollo Club has been fortunate enough to present to a St. Louis audience. This genuine artist so impressed himself upon the favor of those who had the pleasure of listening to him in his performance as to have made his St. Louis appearance memorable indeed.

The regular programme numbers accorded to Mr. Kreisler were so accurately varied in scope as to give him excellent opportunity for his first number, which was the second of the Apollo Club's new series, the "Mrs. Ruess" of Wieniawski, called alike in its changing moods for a fiery intensity and a delicacy of treatment and execution.

Mr. Kreisler's performance of the "Dance Espagnole" of Chopin-Kreisler which the singing tone of the violin was beautifully complemented and Hubing's "Scenes de Cezard" giving full field for what must have been a kinship touch of the young Austrian, so truly was the wild Hungarian melody treated in its many shifting phases.

Mr. Kreisler's performance of the "Dance Espagnole" of Chopin-Kreisler which the singing tone of the violin was beautifully complemented and Hubing's "Scenes de Cezard" giving full field for what must have been a kinship touch of the young Austrian, so truly was the wild Hungarian melody treated in its many shifting phases.

Mr. Kreisler's performance of the "Dance Espagnole" of Chopin-Kreisler which the singing tone of the violin was beautifully complemented and Hubing's "Scenes de Cezard" giving full field for what must have been a kinship touch of the young Austrian, so truly was the wild Hungarian melody treated in its many shifting phases.

Mr. Kreisler's performance of the "Dance Espagnole" of Chopin-Kreisler which the singing tone of the violin was beautifully complemented and Hubing's "Scenes de Cezard" giving full field for what must have been a kinship touch of the young Austrian, so truly was the wild Hungarian melody treated in its many shifting phases.

Mr. Kreisler's performance of the "Dance Espagnole" of Chopin-Kreisler which the singing tone of the violin was beautifully complemented and Hubing's "Scenes de Cezard" giving full field for what must have been a kinship touch of the young Austrian, so truly was the wild Hungarian melody treated in its many shifting phases.

Mr. Kreisler's performance of the "Dance Espagnole" of Chopin-Kreisler which the singing tone of the violin was beautifully complemented and Hubing's "Scenes de Cezard" giving full field for what must have been a kinship touch of the young Austrian, so truly was the wild Hungarian melody treated in its many shifting phases.

Mr. Kreisler's performance of the "Dance Espagnole" of Chopin-Kreisler which the singing tone of the violin was beautifully complemented and Hubing's "Scenes de Cezard" giving full field for what must have been a kinship touch of the young Austrian, so truly was the wild Hungarian melody treated in its many shifting phases.

box. Mrs. M. C. Dillon, Miss Mary Kennard and D. H. Clark formed this box party.

In the Nugent box, which is in the right procession row, were Mrs. Byron Nugent, Mrs. F. C. Lake, Mr. Nugent, Mr. Lake and Mr. Mrs. Henry Walsh has box V this year. In it last night were Miss Marie Walsh, Miss Josephine Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Chesnut and Henry Lachman.

Mr. Charles Wiggins, president of the Apollos, has taken box X. Last night his guests were Mrs. W. H. Barnett and Mrs. T. S. Foster, sister of Mr. Wiggins; Mrs. Ashley D. Scott, Mrs. Dan Houser and Mrs. Simon Ray.

Box Y belongs to George Warren Brown, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. J. L. Powell, Miss Garmyrek of New York, Miss Dole of California, Mr. Downman and Mr. Brown filled the box.

The vice president's box, belonging to Mr. Will Starnard, is in the stage tier. Last night Mrs. Starnard entertained Miss Myrtle Kaufman, Miss George Walker, William H. Jones, George P. Kalmus, Mrs. J. H. Jones, Mrs. Frank McKenna, with Y. Y. were Mrs. Vincent Krenn.

Box Z was occupied by Mrs. W. H. Becker, wearing pale-blue cloth, applied in black. Miss Helen Kennard was in pale-blue cloth, with bolero of the same.

Miss Cook was escorted by R. Park von Wedelstaedt. Miss Gale wore pink lavender silk, appliqued in white; name: medallions. Miss Gertrude Rockwood wore one of the noticeably pretty touches of brilliant turquoise-blue cloth, followed with rose and white beads. Her escort was Mr. Asgar.

Mrs. A. C. Cassidy, who sat in the parquet with friends, wore black, chintilly lace and jet spangles, with touches of blue plume.

Edwin S. Puller, Isaac Hedges, Will Tompkins, Harry Walker, George Parker, Leone Gale and Robert Burton heard the concert from the rear of the box.

Mrs. Laddie, in very pale ecru crepe de Chine, was escorted by Mr. Brown in the front parquet with Doctor Laddie.

MISS ANNIE LESLIE KIRKWOOD.

Mrs. George Lucy Crawford received yesterday afternoon for her sister, Mrs. Annie Leslie Kirkwood, a beautiful and valuable gift.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Bascome are visiting in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Townsend Pearson of Niagara Falls, who have been visiting in the city for several days, departed on Monday for New Orleans, where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. Harry Wasein of Cairo, Ill., is giving a horse party this week. One of her guests is Miss Justine Ottery of St. Louis.

The Committee on Exhibition of the St. Louis Museum of Fine Arts has issued cards for a reception at the museum, November 28, at the close of the lecture by Mr. C. H. Ashbee. At this reception a collection of the works of Eric Page will be on view.

Mr. and Mrs. Burrill Treat of Rockford, Ill., who have been visiting friends at the Plunketts for several days, departed on Monday night, immediately after the Marlowe performance, for Chicago.

Mr. L. M. Ottery is entertaining her father, Mr. D. Heald of O'Fallon, Ill.

Mrs. David Sheridan Stanley, who was Miss Jane Fordyce, is the guest of her parents, Colonel and Mrs. Fordyce.

A pretty home wedding to be celebrated this evening will be that of Mr. Henry Wright to Miss Fannie Kallier, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Kallier of 2962 Wells avenue. Following the ceremony there will be a reception.

YOUNG LADIES' AUXILIARY BALL.

The Young Ladies' Auxiliary of the Women's Training School Association gave a ball last night in the ballroom at the Odeon. Most of those to whom the 90 invitations were sent were present. The decorations were very pretty and the banquet hall was daintily arranged.

The ball did not formally open until after 9 o'clock, quite a number of guests coming up from the Apollo Club concert. The ladies' costumes were brilliant and appeared to advantage with the bright floral decorations in the ballroom. When the supper march started from the Odeon, the guests filed into the banquet hall, where flowers, which had just been freshly placed, filled the room with their fragrance.

The ball was given under the patronage of Messieurs and Mesdames C. F. Blanke, E. T. Jester, Jack Klein, W. N. McKonkin, William P. Stewart, J. J. Gilbert, Corneilia P. Ringen, C. F. Miller, Samuel Fingers, James P. C. H. Duncan, Edward Sweeney Carter, Johnson, E. A. Warren, L. T. Riemeyer, A. C. Robinson and A. L. Boyce.

The following gentlemen acted as the Reception Committee: Harry Fruefrock, Herman Stoffregen, A. A. Marquardt, William P. Carr, Alfred W. Lewis, George B. Kallier, J. O. Kimbrough, Frank Pingree, George Cottrill, J. V. Heardsley, Mrs. M. L. Jones, Charles L. Hoonker, Jr.

BRIGHT-TINSLEY WEDDING.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Louisville, Mo., Nov. 27.—James H. Bright of St. Louis and Miss Lula Tinsley of this city were married to-day, the Reverend H. C. McPherson performing the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Philadelphia, Nov. 27.—The wedding of Miss Louise Lemoine to Mr. Charles Custis Harrison, Jr., which took place at noon to-day in Calvary Presbyterian Church, was an event of unusual interest in fashionable society.

MANSFIELD FAINTS TWICE.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, Nov. 27.—Richard Mansfield, the actor, fainted on the street after his performance at the Metropolitan Theatre in Brooklyn, last night. He fainted again to-day when leaving his temporary residence, the St. George Hotel.

ACTOR FALLS FROM FATIGUE AFTER PERFORMANCE IN BROOKLYN.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, Nov. 27.—Richard Mansfield, the actor, fainted on the street after his performance at the Metropolitan Theatre in Brooklyn, last night. He fainted again to-day when leaving his temporary residence, the St. George Hotel.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, Nov. 27.—Richard Mansfield, the actor, fainted on the street after his performance at the Metropolitan Theatre in Brooklyn, last night. He fainted again to-day when leaving his temporary residence, the St. George Hotel.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, Nov. 27.—Richard Mansfield, the actor, fainted on the street after his performance at the Metropolitan Theatre in Brooklyn, last night. He fainted again to-day when leaving his temporary residence, the St. George Hotel.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, Nov. 27.—Richard Mansfield, the actor, fainted on the street after his performance at the Metropolitan Theatre in Brooklyn, last night. He fainted again to-day when leaving his temporary residence, the St. George Hotel.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, Nov. 27.—Richard Mansfield, the actor, fainted on the street after his performance at the Metropolitan Theatre in Brooklyn, last night. He fainted again to-day when leaving his temporary residence, the St. George Hotel.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, Nov. 27.—Richard Mansfield, the actor, fainted on the street after his performance at the Metropolitan Theatre in Brooklyn, last night. He fainted again to-day when leaving his temporary residence, the St. George Hotel.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, Nov. 27.—Richard Mansfield, the actor, fainted on the street after his performance at the Metropolitan Theatre in Brooklyn, last night. He fainted again to-day when leaving his temporary residence, the St. George Hotel.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, Nov. 27.—Richard Mansfield, the actor, fainted on the street after his performance at the Metropolitan Theatre in Brooklyn, last night. He fainted again to-day when leaving his temporary residence, the St. George Hotel.