Jackets, Wraps, Furs.

Read carefully over this short list of bargains—and come—no matter how great your expectations may be—prepared to be agreeably surprised, for you will find values that will overtop and overshadow anything and everything you ever saw or heard of before. Here are some of them. See for yourselves.

- SHORT JACKETS.
- 3.95 Buys an excellent short box front in Black Kersey or Chestnut Jacket, worth $5.00 to $6.00.
 - 6.00 Buys a splendid Short Box Coat of tan, black or castor Kersey, with stitched edges and pearl buttons, worth $8.75.
 - 7.95 Buys a Short Nobby Jacket of heavy kersey, castor, brown or black, with fancy stitched seams and large pearl buttons, worth $11.00.
 - 10.00 Buys a Jacket of unfinished worsted or smooth Cheviot, with taffeta lining, suitable for mourning, worth $15.00.
- 26-INCH BOX COAT. It's not the price alone that makes a coat cheap—it, style, finish must be there, and you get this grand combination all ways at Nugent's. Don't overlook this fact.
- HERE ARE TWO BIG SPECIALS THAT ARE WORLD BEATERS.

- 1st. At 10.00 This Coat is the equal of any $15.00 coat in the city to-day. They guaranteed satin lining, have silk stitched revers and stitching inside and outside all around. They come in castor, tan, brown, red or black, in any size, from 32 to 42 inches bust, they are as good as any $15 coat in St. Louis to-day.
- 2d. 15.00 This grand Coat is a special make to sell for $25.00; offered by us this week at $15.00. It is made of the celebrated Washington Mills kersey, and lined with satin, guaranteed by the makers for one year. Has stitched, strapped seams, slashed at bottom, and has a high storm collar—colors, black, coachman's tan or castor, and, as we say, a real $25 Coat; offered here for $15.00.

- Velour Blouses. Another new lot, and Prices Lower Than Ever. Ladies' rich Velour Blouses, trimmed in various ways, all the richest of the season's production, all at about half price.
