Assassin Urged to Renounce Anarchy, Says He Cannot Do So.

TALKS OF SPIRITUAL WELFARE.

Czolgosz Abandoned His Faith Early in Life—May Seek Offices of Religion in Last Hours.

CZOLGOSZ SEEKS SPIRITUAL ADVICE.

Auburn, N. Y., Oct. 22.—Czolgosz, the condemned murderer of President McKinley, who since the commission of his villainous deed has refused to receive spiritual advice, has at last relented.

To-day he talked of his spiritual welfare with the Reverend Father Sodalzinski, pastor of the Polish Catholic Church at Rochester. The Reverend Father Sodalzinski has been appointed to attend Czolgosz by the Rev. Fr. J. J. Hickey, Catholic chaplain of the prison.

The interview between priest and prisoner proved very unsatisfactory to both. It took place in the condemned man's cell, and the conversation was carried on in Polish.

During the interview Czolgosz said that he had been baptized in the Roman Catholic Church in Detroit, Mich. He had abandoned the church early in life and had lost all faith in its teachings.

Father Sodalzinski, before taking his departure, left with Czolgosz some Catholic literature printed in Polish and also some emblems of the church.

While very reticent, the priest, after much persuasion, said Czolgosz should not make the subject of notoriety by the newspapers and that he was very loath to say anything of the man.

He said that inasmuch as there were hundreds of ignorant men who mistake Czolgosz's odious notoriety for fame, the more the man was advertised the more harm it would do to lead the people to follow his example.

Should Not Rush for "Pie." Advice Given by Speaker at Republican Club Meeting.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 22.—At the opening meeting of the Missouri Republican Club, held in this city to-night, E. C. Ellis caused something of a sensation when in his speech, he attacked office-seekers.

The speaker, the man who has taken the Missouri Republican Club to the State Committee meetings and the State convention, said that he was not a politician.

He said that he was not a politician, but a man who was interested in the welfare of the people.

CONVENT GIRLS' ELOPEMENT IS PREVENTED BY DETECTIVES.

Nellie Cassidy and Bessie Laery Run Away From Loretto Seminary—Miss Laery Meets Jesse Grigg, a Drug Clerk, and Marriage Is Planned—Police Take Trio in Charge.

Miss Cassidy aided Miss Laery to leave the Loretto Convent at Webster Groves. In St. Louis the police apprehended Miss Laery, her companion and Jesse Grigg.

Tiring of convent life, Misses Nellie Cassidy and Bessie Laery ran away from the Loretto Seminary at Webster Groves in St. Louis County and came to St. Louis.

Miss Cassidy is an orphan and has been raised at the seminary. She is 19 years old. Miss Laery is the daughter of Patrick Cassidy, a railway contractor living at Sherman, Tex.

On October 19 she received $25 from her mother and a letter advising her to come home. Instead, Miss Cassidy made a proposition to Miss Laery to leave the seminary together.

They were soon speeding on their way to St. Louis. When they arrived downtown they went to a hotel.

The next day while Miss Laery was buying chewing gum at the drug store across the street she met Grigg. It was a case of love at first sight, and the formality of an introduction was laid aside.

Miss Cassidy, who had known her for years, took them to the Four Courts. Grigg was arrested. He said they would have been married Saturday if the police had not interfered.

Beaumont Man Declares Standard Oil Company Controls Government Bureau.

VIGOROUS DENIAL IS MADE.

Professor C. F. Caracristi Says Southern Petroleum Fields Have Been Discriminated Against for Years.

THE REPUBLIC BUREAU.

Washington, Oct. 22.—The New Orleans States has published an interview with Professor C. F. Caracristi of Beaumont, Tex., asserting that the Standard Oil Company controls the United States Geological Survey, and has prevented development of the southwestern oil fields.

Director Walcott of the survey is out of the city, Mr. Caracristi's statements have caused a commotion in that office. The chief clerk, Colonel Riser, says in reply:

For some reason, which I am unable to fathom, Mr. Caracristi has a grievance against the bureau. I expect he is hitting at Professor David T. Day, one of the geologists, who co-operated with the Standard Oil Company in arranging an oil exhibit at the Paris exhibition.

BOLOMEN APPEALING FOR A GENERAL INSURRECTION.

General Chaffee Reports Discovery of a Widespread Plot Among the Insurgents—War and Navy Departments Join in Plan for Sweeping the Island of Samar.

Manila, Oct. 22.—General Chaffee does not expect to hear of any extensive engagement in the island of Samar. He believes the operations there will not result in an open fight.

The object of the re-enforcement of American troops now being pushed forward is to increase all the garrisons to thirty-eight men. Some of them have until recently numbered only eight men.

General Wheaton reports that a band of bolomen has entered Tarlac Province, island of Luzon, through Bulangan Province, and that the men composing it are distributing inflammatory bulletins, which are posted on the church doors, warning the people to prepare to take the field in January.

A harmonious agreement has been reached between Governor General Taft and General Chaffee, regarding habeas corpus proceedings in the case of military prisoners. The law has been amended so as to cover such cases.

Washington, Oct. 22.—In order to deal a deathblow to the insurrection throughout the Philippine archipelago an active campaign is being conducted by the army and navy.

Some light was thrown upon them by this dispatch received by the Navy Department today from Rear Admiral Frederick Rodgers, second in command of the Asiatic fleet.

This dispatch shows, Rodgers Long believes, the most gratifying co-operation between Rear Admiral Rodgers and General Hughes in the suppression of the insurrection.

Washington, Oct. 22.—President Roosevelt's day in Farmington provided quite a suitable addition to the historic annals of this ordinarily quiet town.

The intention of the President's sister, Mrs. Cowles, to make the occasion a private affair was considerably overcome by the anxiety of the people to see the President.

One of the features of the day was the presence of the McKinley oak on the picturesque, opposite the picturesque and historic Elm Tree Inn.

Old Obligations Will Be Paid by the State. Republic of Texas Debts.

Austin, Tex., Oct. 22.—The last Legislature made an appropriation of $15,000, to be expended in paying and redeeming the obligations of the Republic of Texas.

Yesterday the Comptroller's Department received a $50 and a $10 bill, issued January 1, 1890, and dated in the name of the late Governor R. E. McKie.

State Senator J. T. Beatty of Jasper, Tex., sent a promissory note of the Republic dated December 10, 1887, and signed by General Sam Houston. This note, too, will be redeemed for its full face value.

It is estimated that there are about $3,000 of these old obligations scattered throughout Texas and possibly many in other States. It is very likely that this appropriation will be exhausted before the next Legislature convenes.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 22.—A modern version of the story of Damon and Pythias was enacted in the Logan County Circuit Court at Lincoln today, when Frank King appeared in court and acknowledged that he had stolen a horse, for which crime his friend, Andrew Carmody, had been sentenced to the Penitentiary.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 22.—Clement L. Geffer, better known by his stage name of Clay Clements, died yesterday in bankruptcy. His liabilities were placed at $18,000 and his assets at $9,500.

BIG CROWDS VISIT CATHOLIC BAZAAR.

Benefit Entertainment at Exposition Building Opens Under Favorable Circumstances.

It was under most favorable auspices that the grand bazaar for the benefit of the St. Louis Cathedral, the Annunciation, St. Patrick's and Assumption Catholic churches was opened in the west nave of the Exposition building last night.

A feature last night was the number of pretty girls working in the interest of the bazaar. The girls were dressed in the most attractive manner.

Several contests for popularity were opened during the evening, but general interest was suspended by the fact that the entertainment features. The early part of the evening was taken up with a concert.

The St. Louis Credit Men's Association held a very interesting meeting at the Mercantile Club last night, presided over by President N. H. Foster.

The following new members were enrolled: J. F. Ewing & Co., Barr & Widen Mercantile Agency Company, Druker-Nichols Mercantile Company.

After the business session a light luncheon was set and the members spent a pleasant half hour in an informal manner.

DID TURKISH TROOPS STEAL MISS STONE?

Asserted That Sultan Instigated Kidnaping—Missionary's Companion Said to Be Dead.

Vienna, Oct. 22.—"Miss Stone was captured," says the Sofia correspondent of the News Wiener Journal, "not by brigands but by a detachment of Turkish cavalry, at the instigation of the Sultan."

London, Oct. 22.—"It is reported from Sofia," says the Vienna correspondent of the Daily Mail, "that United States Consul General Dickinson has received intelligence from shepherds that Miss Stone was seen at Jakkouda, on Turkish territory, about two hours' journey from the Bulgarian frontier."

Constantinople, Oct. 22.—Should no news be received during the next forty-eight hours from the missionaries who are seeking the captors of Miss Ellen M. Stone and her companion, Mme. K. Tsitika, more reliable tables came in for a large share of patronage, and the young ladies who served as waitresses were kept unusually busy.
