

BLIZZARD HOLDS WEST IN ITS GRASP.

Severe Suffering From Storm Reported in Oklahoma and the Indian Territory.

SNOW PROTECTS WHEAT CROP.

Low Temperatures Reached on Nebraska Ranges—Cold Likely to Continue a Day or Two.

All the States west of the Mississippi and Illinois, and two or three other States east of the river, are in the grasp of a blizzard.

Out in Nebraska, where high winds prevailed, temperatures from 10 to 25 degrees below zero were reported late last night.

In Kansas similar conditions prevailed.

Further south in Oklahoma and Texas and in Arkansas, while extremes of temperature were not reached, the high winds caused great suffering and considerable loss.

Some of the Creeks in the Indian Territory reported to be very badly prepared to undergo the hardships of severe weather and some of the cattle were perishing. No actual loss of life has been reported.

In Nebraska and Kansas cattle stood the storm better than expected, and wherever they were able to find shelter there has been practically no loss.

In Missouri, though the weather had been exceedingly mild for several weeks, the storm found cattle generally well prepared for cold.

Forecasts sent out by the Weather Bureau indicate the temperature is likely to remain low for at least a day, but the last part of the West to be visited by the storm is the extreme south of Texas, where a cold wave is predicted for to-day.

THREE BELOW AT KANSAS CITY.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 26.—The lowest temperature to-day was 3 degrees below zero at 3 a. m., but there was no perceptible snow later and still severe cold is expected to-night.

A bitter north wind made the weather more disagreeable than during the December cold snap. All trains and the snowfall having been moderate.

TRAINS DELAYED IN NEBRASKA.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 26.—Predictions made last night as to probable disastrous effects of the blizzard which raged all day yesterday and last night were partially verified.

Reports received here today and to-night from points in Nebraska. What seems a remarkable condition exists in the vicinity of Ogallala, where the storm was more severe than in any other portion of the State except the northwest quarter.

It was expected that the losses among cattle in that district will be enormous, but the reports received from several points in the cattle district affirm that actually no loss was sustained.

Reports from the northwest portion of the State are so flattering, however, while those from Kimball and Banner counties, the farthest corners on the western side of the State, indicate that heavy losses have occurred.

Traffic on all roads is still delayed somewhat, trains arriving from two to six hours late, but reports from the railroad officials indicate that no serious damage has been done, but that the tracks will be quickly cleared and regular schedules resumed.

A late report from Alliance states that the thermometer dropped to 25 degrees below zero and remained there several hours.

BLIZZARD VISITS CAIRO.

Cairo, Ill., Jan. 26.—A blizzard struck this vicinity at 6 o'clock this evening, the temperature falling twenty degrees. A high wind set in from the northwest and sleet and considerable quantities of snow began to fall, and the probability is that it will develop to be the fiercest blizzard of the season.

RAIN AND SLEET IN ARKANSAS.

Foxe, Ark., Jan. 26.—The storm reached here last night with a hard rain lasting until this afternoon when it began to sleet, with indications of continuing all night.

IOWA CROPS ARE BENEFITED.

Burlington, Ia., Jan. 26.—The snowstorm resulted in about four inches of snow on the level. Reports from Southeastern Iowa indicate vast benefit to crops.

COLD WAVE FOLLOWS RAIN.

Mill Spring, Mo., Jan. 26.—Heavy rain fell here last night and this morning, followed by a heavy sleet storm. The temperature now reached this place. The thermometer registers a drop of thirty degrees since morning.

DROP OF FORTY DEGREES.

Medora, Ill., Jan. 26.—Following a heavy fall of snow in this section last night there has been a drop of forty degrees in temperature, and intense cold prevails all night. What will result is inconceivable benefit from the heavy blanket of snow.

STORM INVADERS MICHIGAN.

Niles, Mich., Jan. 26.—A terrific snow-storm set in here to-day. The temperature fell twenty degrees in three hours.

GREAT SUFFERING IN OKLAHOMA.

Guthrie, Ok., Jan. 26.—The coldest weather of the winter, with the thermometer at zero all day and a howling north wind, covers all Oklahoma. Possibly nowhere else in the Southwest will its severity be so great. There are large cattle interests that are suffering greatly.

TEXAS DROUGHT IS BROKEN.

Dallas, Tex., Jan. 26.—The coldest weather and the heaviest snowfall since February, 1898, visited Northern Central Texas last night and to-day. The worst drought known in a quarter of a century was broken and rain fell from 3 a. m. to 7 a. m., accompanied by high wind and terrific thunder. Then it sleeted and froze until 7 p. m. and has been freezing all day, with frequent snow squalls. The weather bulletin posted this evening said:

"Mercury will drop to within twenty-five degrees of zero to-night in the sugar farm region of the Gulf Coast and go to zero or below in the interior."

The mercury at Dallas at 10:30 p. m. is 10 degrees above, with prospects of going considerably lower before morning. The change in the weather is estimated to be worth millions of dollars to the general farming territories. The only interests likely to suffer are those of the range-cattle sections.

Colonel C. C. Slaughter said to-night: "If the wind didn't come as a blizzard in the Panhandle, I estimate the cattle losses are slight. Of course, considerable cattle in the upper Panhandle country are in good flesh and prepared to stand a pretty sharp northern wind. Down in the Palo Pinto country and immediately west of there the cattle are in poor flesh and a blizzard would cause heavy loss."

CHICAGO SHIVERS IN GALE.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—Chicago shivered and shook the piercing winds of a howling northwester to-day. Monday and Tuesday the city will be as bleak and frail as the weather in the mountains. A temperature of 10 degrees below zero is predicted with the dawn of to-morrow. The weather man thinks he is conservative.

In eight hours, from 6 in the morning until midnight, the mercury took a tumble of approximately 35 degrees, making a temperature below the zero mark. From that time on it fell steadily, with a severe cold wave came a high wind from the Northwest.

WATERWORKS ARE FROZEN.

Port Angeles Is Now Without a Water Supply.

Port Townsend, Wash., Jan. 26.—The first blow from down the Straits for two days arrived to-day and reports to-day's storm are doing much damage at small towns and to farms.

At Port Angeles a boathouse was carried away and one or two small wharves were wrecked.

G. M. Lauritzen lost much property, and in an effort to save his goods had both legs broken.

The Port Angeles water supply is cut off on account of waterworks being frozen.

PATRICK ATTENDED CHURCH.

Accused Lawyer Participated in Religious Services in the Tombs.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL. New York, Jan. 26.—Albert T. Patrick took part in two religious services in the Tombs to-day. In the morning Chaplain Munro preached and in the afternoon the Reverend R. D. Mendell conducted Episcopal services.

Patrick's cell is so situated that he can plainly see the minister and attend the services throughout with interest.

In one of the hymns are the words: "Hold thee in full survey."

It is held that the man accused of murder might have taken as applicable to his own case, the words of the psalmist: "How- ever, he appeared as unconcerned as though he had been in a church instead of a cell."

Patrick's cell is so situated that he can plainly see the minister and attend the services throughout with interest.

In one of the hymns are the words: "Hold thee in full survey."

It is held that the man accused of murder might have taken as applicable to his own case, the words of the psalmist: "How- ever, he appeared as unconcerned as though he had been in a church instead of a cell."

Patrick's cell is so situated that he can plainly see the minister and attend the services throughout with interest.

In one of the hymns are the words: "Hold thee in full survey."

It is held that the man accused of murder might have taken as applicable to his own case, the words of the psalmist: "How- ever, he appeared as unconcerned as though he had been in a church instead of a cell."

Patrick's cell is so situated that he can plainly see the minister and attend the services throughout with interest.

In one of the hymns are the words: "Hold thee in full survey."

It is held that the man accused of murder might have taken as applicable to his own case, the words of the psalmist: "How- ever, he appeared as unconcerned as though he had been in a church instead of a cell."

Patrick's cell is so situated that he can plainly see the minister and attend the services throughout with interest.

In one of the hymns are the words: "Hold thee in full survey."

It is held that the man accused of murder might have taken as applicable to his own case, the words of the psalmist: "How- ever, he appeared as unconcerned as though he had been in a church instead of a cell."

Patrick's cell is so situated that he can plainly see the minister and attend the services throughout with interest.

In one of the hymns are the words: "Hold thee in full survey."

It is held that the man accused of murder might have taken as applicable to his own case, the words of the psalmist: "How- ever, he appeared as unconcerned as though he had been in a church instead of a cell."

Patrick's cell is so situated that he can plainly see the minister and attend the services throughout with interest.

In one of the hymns are the words: "Hold thee in full survey."

It is held that the man accused of murder might have taken as applicable to his own case, the words of the psalmist: "How- ever, he appeared as unconcerned as though he had been in a church instead of a cell."

Patrick's cell is so situated that he can plainly see the minister and attend the services throughout with interest.

In one of the hymns are the words: "Hold thee in full survey."

It is held that the man accused of murder might have taken as applicable to his own case, the words of the psalmist: "How- ever, he appeared as unconcerned as though he had been in a church instead of a cell."

Patrick's cell is so situated that he can plainly see the minister and attend the services throughout with interest.

In one of the hymns are the words: "Hold thee in full survey."

It is held that the man accused of murder might have taken as applicable to his own case, the words of the psalmist: "How- ever, he appeared as unconcerned as though he had been in a church instead of a cell."

Patrick's cell is so situated that he can plainly see the minister and attend the services throughout with interest.

In one of the hymns are the words: "Hold thee in full survey."

It is held that the man accused of murder might have taken as applicable to his own case, the words of the psalmist: "How- ever, he appeared as unconcerned as though he had been in a church instead of a cell."

Patrick's cell is so situated that he can plainly see the minister and attend the services throughout with interest.

In one of the hymns are the words: "Hold thee in full survey."

It is held that the man accused of murder might have taken as applicable to his own case, the words of the psalmist: "How- ever, he appeared as unconcerned as though he had been in a church instead of a cell."

Patrick's cell is so situated that he can plainly see the minister and attend the services throughout with interest.

In one of the hymns are the words: "Hold thee in full survey."

It is held that the man accused of murder might have taken as applicable to his own case, the words of the psalmist: "How- ever, he appeared as unconcerned as though he had been in a church instead of a cell."

Patrick's cell is so situated that he can plainly see the minister and attend the services throughout with interest.

In one of the hymns are the words: "Hold thee in full survey."

It is held that the man accused of murder might have taken as applicable to his own case, the words of the psalmist: "How- ever, he appeared as unconcerned as though he had been in a church instead of a cell."

Patrick's cell is so situated that he can plainly see the minister and attend the services throughout with interest.

In one of the hymns are the words: "Hold thee in full survey."

It is held that the man accused of murder might have taken as applicable to his own case, the words of the psalmist: "How- ever, he appeared as unconcerned as though he had been in a church instead of a cell."

Patrick's cell is so situated that he can plainly see the minister and attend the services throughout with interest.

In one of the hymns are the words: "Hold thee in full survey."

It is held that the man accused of murder might have taken as applicable to his own case, the words of the psalmist: "How- ever, he appeared as unconcerned as though he had been in a church instead of a cell."

Patrick's cell is so situated that he can plainly see the minister and attend the services throughout with interest.

In one of the hymns are the words: "Hold thee in full survey."

It is held that the man accused of murder might have taken as applicable to his own case, the words of the psalmist: "How- ever, he appeared as unconcerned as though he had been in a church instead of a cell."

Patrick's cell is so situated that he can plainly see the minister and attend the services throughout with interest.

MANY DISPLEASED WITH ROOSEVELT.

Delay in Settling St. Joseph Post Office Fight Nettles Republicans at St. Joseph.

FEAR PARTY WILL BE SPLIT.

Uncovering of Records of Some of the Leaders Not Calculated to Be of Benefit to the Machine.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.

St. Joseph, Mo., Jan. 23.—While President Roosevelt has been trying for months to bring about an understanding between the warring politicians in this section of the State, he has earned the displeasure of a large, though more quiet and potent, element in the party.

The rank and file of the party, who care little for the advancement or detriment of the dozen or more alleged bosses who are keeping the factional controversy alive, are now demanding and have been demanding that the St. Joseph Post Office fight be settled as speedily as possible.

They fancied that when Roosevelt became President they had a man in the White House who had the courage to act upon his convictions.

Kerens Still in the Saddle.

Notwithstanding the reports to the effect that Kerens has been relegated, he seems to have considerable power still, for it is he who has held up the appointment of a successor for Postmaster Atkinson for so many months.

The municipal campaign, of more than ordinary importance, will open in this city within the next two weeks. It would have been on it, but all have been waiting for the termination of the post office fight.

The Mayor and the entire membership of the Municipal Council are now gathered together with the full quota of other officers.

If the Federal ple had all been distributed last summer or even in the autumn the spots, which must necessarily result from the choice the President will make, would have been healed, in a measure at least, and the amount of the campaign would have been getting together. But all chance for such a thing is now passed, and even the party leaders admit that the chances are slight for the Democrats to sweep the city, and the proud boast that St. Joseph is the only Republican city of any size in the State will exist only as a dream.

This is why many of the best men in the party are rallying at the bosses and demanding that the strife for Federal pastry be ended lest it disrupt the party, not only in the coming campaign, but in the long succeeding ones. The Democrats view with complacency the fight that will not down in the g. o. p., and realize that it will be a bitter and a long one.

But the bosses and distributors of the patronage jobs seem to care little or nothing for the welfare of the party. They will dictate and propose to do it if the Democrats get every vote in the city.

A prominent Republican said to-day: "It is a pity that Roosevelt knew what he was doing for the future of the party in St. Joseph and Northwestern Missouri by allowing the bosses to file charges and sue for freedom of practice and to dictate and propose to do it if the Democrats get every vote in the city."

A prominent Republican said to-day: "It is a pity that Roosevelt knew what he was doing for the future of the party in St. Joseph and Northwestern Missouri by allowing the bosses to file charges and sue for freedom of practice and to dictate and propose to do it if the Democrats get every vote in the city."

A prominent Republican said to-day: "It is a pity that Roosevelt knew what he was doing for the future of the party in St. Joseph and Northwestern Missouri by allowing the bosses to file charges and sue for freedom of practice and to dictate and propose to do it if the Democrats get every vote in the city."

LETTERS TO GENERAL BOOTH.

Seceding Salvationists Notify Him of Their Determination.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL. New York, Jan. 26.—Copies of letters by Arthur Booth-Clibborn and his wife, the daughter of General Booth, to the founder and head of the Salvation Army, were received here to-day.

Holland, Mr. Booth-Clibborn's letter, addressed to General Booth, speaks of the writer's desire for freedom of practice and to preach the full gospel and more liberty for the Salvation Army on the Continent of Europe.

My Dear Father: Desiring as you know for years past a greater, fuller liberty for Arthur Booth-Clibborn, I have written you a letter specially called and remarkably qualified for the purpose. I have written you a letter, I intend suffering of heart, decide to cease to be under the government of the Salvation Army. I hope you will stop the interference of my daughter to my brothers and sisters, and to my children. I have written you a letter, I intend suffering of heart, decide to cease to be under the government of the Salvation Army. I hope you will stop the interference of my daughter to my brothers and sisters, and to my children.

My Dear Father: Desiring as you know for years past a greater, fuller liberty for Arthur Booth-Clibborn, I have written you a letter specially called and remarkably qualified for the purpose. I have written you a letter, I intend suffering of heart, decide to cease to be under the government of the Salvation Army. I hope you will stop the interference of my daughter to my brothers and sisters, and to my children.

My Dear Father: Desiring as you know for years past a greater, fuller liberty for Arthur Booth-Clibborn, I have written you a letter specially called and remarkably qualified for the purpose. I have written you a letter, I intend suffering of heart, decide to cease to be under the government of the Salvation Army. I hope you will stop the interference of my daughter to my brothers and sisters, and to my children.

My Dear Father: Desiring as you know for years past a greater, fuller liberty for Arthur Booth-Clibborn, I have written you a letter specially called and remarkably qualified for the purpose. I have written you a letter, I intend suffering of heart, decide to cease to be under the government of the Salvation Army. I hope you will stop the interference of my daughter to my brothers and sisters, and to my children.

My Dear Father: Desiring as you know for years past a greater, fuller liberty for Arthur Booth-Clibborn, I have written you a letter specially called and remarkably qualified for the purpose. I have written you a letter, I intend suffering of heart, decide to cease to be under the government of the Salvation Army. I hope you will stop the interference of my daughter to my brothers and sisters, and to my children.

My Dear Father: Desiring as you know for years past a greater, fuller liberty for Arthur Booth-Clibborn, I have written you a letter specially called and remarkably qualified for the purpose. I have written you a letter, I intend suffering of heart, decide to cease to be under the government of the Salvation Army. I hope you will stop the interference of my daughter to my brothers and sisters, and to my children.

My Dear Father: Desiring as you know for years past a greater, fuller liberty for Arthur Booth-Clibborn, I have written you a letter specially called and remarkably qualified for the purpose. I have written you a letter, I intend suffering of heart, decide to cease to be under the government of the Salvation Army. I hope you will stop the interference of my daughter to my brothers and sisters, and to my children.

My Dear Father: Desiring as you know for years past a greater, fuller liberty for Arthur Booth-Clibborn, I have written you a letter specially called and remarkably qualified for the purpose. I have written you a letter, I intend suffering of heart, decide to cease to be under the government of the Salvation Army. I hope you will stop the interference of my daughter to my brothers and sisters, and to my children.

My Dear Father: Desiring as you know for years past a greater, fuller liberty for Arthur Booth-Clibborn, I have written you a letter specially called and remarkably qualified for the purpose. I have written you a letter, I intend suffering of heart, decide to cease to be under the government of the Salvation Army. I hope you will stop the interference of my daughter to my brothers and sisters, and to my children.

My Dear Father: Desiring as you know for years past a greater, fuller liberty for Arthur Booth-Clibborn, I have written you a letter specially called and remarkably qualified for the purpose. I have written you a letter, I intend suffering of heart, decide to cease to be under the government of the Salvation Army. I hope you will stop the interference of my daughter to my brothers and sisters, and to my children.

My Dear Father: Desiring as you know for years past a greater, fuller liberty for Arthur Booth-Clibborn, I have written you a letter specially called and remarkably qualified for the purpose. I have written you a letter, I intend suffering of heart, decide to cease to be under the government of the Salvation Army. I hope you will stop the interference of my daughter to my brothers and sisters, and to my children.

My Dear Father: Desiring as you know for years past a greater, fuller liberty for Arthur Booth-Clibborn, I have written you a letter specially called and remarkably qualified for the purpose. I have written you a letter, I intend suffering of heart, decide to cease to be under the government of the Salvation Army. I hope you will stop the interference of my daughter to my brothers and sisters, and to my children.

My Dear Father: Desiring as you know for years past a greater, fuller liberty for Arthur Booth-Clibborn, I have written you a letter specially called and remarkably qualified for the purpose. I have written you a letter, I intend suffering of heart, decide to cease to be under the government of the Salvation Army. I hope you will stop the interference of my daughter to my brothers and sisters, and to my children.

My Dear Father: Desiring as you know for years past a greater, fuller liberty for Arthur Booth-Clibborn, I have written you a letter specially called and remarkably qualified for the purpose. I have written you a letter, I intend suffering of heart, decide to cease to be under the government of the Salvation Army. I hope you will stop the interference of my daughter to my brothers and sisters, and to my children.

My Dear Father: Desiring as you know for years past a greater, fuller liberty for Arthur Booth-Clibborn, I have written you a letter specially called and remarkably qualified for the purpose. I have written you a letter, I intend suffering of heart, decide to cease to be under the government of the Salvation Army. I hope you will stop the interference of my daughter to my brothers and sisters, and to my children.

STATUE OF ZOLA FOR ST. LOUIS.

Progressive Order of the West May Start Fund for Suitable Memorial.

FAIR WORKERS DEPART ON KENTUCKY TRIP.

Delegation to Frankfort Will Urge Appropriation by Legislature for Exhibit.

A strong delegation of St. Louisans and Kansas Cityans who were formerly residents of Kentucky departed last night for the Blue Grass State on a mission of exploitation in the interest of the World's Fair. The special car, in which the party will make the entire trip, was attached to the Louisville and Nashville train, which pulled out from St. Louis at 8:55 o'clock.

Great enthusiasm prevailed among the members of the delegation and the crowd which was at the train to see them off. To a man the delegates expressed themselves satisfied of the results of the trip, and stated that they would leave no stone unturned to secure a substantial appropriation from the Kentucky Legislature for an exhibit at the Fair.

Tuesday has been set aside by the Legislature for a joint session, at which the Missourians will make their appeal for an adequate appropriation to be used for exhibiting the resources of Kentucky at the World's Fair. The proposition will probably meet the delegation to-day, joining it in Frankfort.

The delegation includes the following members: Herbert C. Hawes, former Governor W. J. Stone, B. Jones, Estill McHenry, Jim T. Price, Judge William Jones, Scott Blewett, William G. Boyd, George T. W. H. Doolittle, Robert G. Moore, Robert H. Kern, George H. Small, J. Young Brown, Jr., S. Milton Hill, Judge John M. Wood and Captain William Hill of St. Louis.

The party will arrive at Louisville at 7:30 o'clock this morning. In the early part of the day they will visit the Chamber of Commerce, where speeches will be made in the interest of the World's Fair. In the evening a reception will be tendered the delegation at the Louisville Hotel. To-morrow morning the party will depart from Louisville in time to reach Frankfort by 10 a. m. The entire day will be put in with the Legislature. Wednesday morning the delegation will depart for Lexington, in which city a stay of six hours will be made. After leaving Lexington the party will return direct to St. Louis.

The delegation will be selected to speak before the joint session of the Kentucky Legislature are former Governors Stone and Crittenden, President Frankfort, W. J. Stone, B. Jones, Estill McHenry, Jim T. Price, Judge William Jones, Scott Blewett, William G. Boyd, George T. W. H. Doolittle, Robert G. Moore, Robert H. Kern, George H. Small, J. Young Brown, Jr., S. Milton Hill, Judge John M. Wood and Captain William Hill of St. Louis.

The party will arrive at Louisville at 7:30 o'clock this morning. In the early part of the day they will visit the Chamber of Commerce, where speeches will be made in the interest of the World's Fair. In the evening a reception will be tendered the delegation at the Louisville Hotel. To-morrow morning the party will depart from Louisville in time to reach Frankfort by 10 a. m. The entire day will be put in with the Legislature. Wednesday morning the delegation will depart for Lexington, in which city a stay of six hours will be made. After leaving Lexington the party will return direct to St. Louis.

The delegation will be selected to speak before the joint session of the Kentucky Legislature are former Governors Stone and Crittenden, President Frankfort, W. J. Stone, B. Jones, Estill McHenry, Jim T. Price, Judge William Jones, Scott Blewett, William G. Boyd, George T. W. H. Doolittle, Robert G. Moore, Robert H. Kern, George H. Small, J. Young Brown, Jr., S. Milton Hill, Judge John M. Wood and Captain William Hill of St. Louis.

The party will arrive at Louisville at 7:30 o'clock this morning. In the early part of the day they will visit the Chamber of Commerce, where speeches will be made in the interest of the World's Fair. In the evening a reception will be tendered the delegation at the Louisville Hotel. To-morrow morning the party will depart from Louisville in time to reach Frankfort by 10 a. m. The entire day will be put in with the Legislature. Wednesday morning the delegation will depart for Lexington, in which city a stay of six hours will be made. After leaving Lexington the party will return direct to St. Louis.

The delegation will be selected to speak before the joint session of the Kentucky Legislature are former Governors Stone and Crittenden, President Frankfort, W. J. Stone, B. Jones, Estill McHenry, Jim T. Price, Judge William Jones, Scott Blewett, William G. Boyd, George T. W. H. Doolittle, Robert G. Moore, Robert H. Kern, George H. Small, J. Young Brown, Jr., S. Milton Hill, Judge John M. Wood and Captain William Hill of St. Louis.

The party will arrive at Louisville at 7:30 o'clock this morning. In the early part of the day they will visit the Chamber of Commerce, where speeches will be made in the interest of the World's Fair. In the evening a reception will be tendered the delegation at the Louisville Hotel. To-morrow morning the party will depart from Louisville in time to reach Frankfort by 10 a. m. The entire day will be put in with the Legislature. Wednesday morning the delegation will depart for Lexington, in which city a stay of six hours will be made. After leaving Lexington the party will return direct to St. Louis.

The delegation will be selected to speak before the joint session of the Kentucky Legislature are former Governors Stone and Crittenden, President Frankfort, W. J. Stone, B. Jones, Estill McHenry, Jim T. Price, Judge William Jones, Scott Blewett, William G. Boyd, George T. W. H. Doolittle, Robert G. Moore, Robert H. Kern, George H. Small, J. Young Brown, Jr., S. Milton Hill, Judge John M. Wood and Captain William Hill of St. Louis.

The party will arrive at Louisville at 7:30 o'clock this morning. In the early part of the day they will visit the Chamber of Commerce, where speeches will be made in the interest of the World's Fair. In the evening a reception will be tendered the delegation at the Louisville Hotel. To-morrow morning the party will depart from Louisville in time to reach Frankfort by 10 a. m. The entire day will be put in with the Legislature. Wednesday morning the delegation will depart for Lexington, in which city a stay of six hours will be made. After leaving Lexington the party will return direct to St. Louis.

The delegation will be selected to speak before the joint session of the Kentucky Legislature are former Governors Stone and Crittenden, President Frankfort, W. J. Stone, B. Jones, Estill McHenry, Jim T. Price, Judge William Jones, Scott Blewett, William G. Boyd, George T. W. H. Doolittle, Robert G. Moore, Robert H. Kern, George H. Small, J. Young Brown, Jr., S. Milton Hill, Judge John M. Wood and Captain William Hill of St. Louis.

The party will arrive at Louisville at 7:30 o'clock this morning. In the early part of the day they will visit the Chamber of Commerce, where speeches will be made in the interest of the World's Fair. In the evening a reception will be tendered the delegation at the Louisville Hotel. To-morrow morning the party will depart from Louisville in time to reach Frankfort by 10 a. m. The entire day will be put in with the Legislature. Wednesday morning the delegation will depart for Lexington, in which city a stay of six hours will be made. After leaving Lexington the party will return direct to St. Louis.

The delegation will be selected to speak before the joint session of the Kentucky Legislature are former Governors Stone and Crittenden, President Frankfort, W. J. Stone, B. Jones, Estill McHenry, Jim T. Price, Judge William Jones, Scott Blewett, William G. Boyd, George T. W. H. Doolittle, Robert G. Moore