

ORTHWEIN MISSES A GOOD BARGAIN

Young St. Louis Sportsman Had a Favorable Option on Crack Kennel of Greyhounds.

DEAL WAS MISMANAGED.

The Dogs Which the Millionaire Sportsman Should Have Had Won $700 at San Francisco Last Week.

It seems that Mr. Ralph Orthwein, the millionaire St. Louis sportsman, missed out, apparently unfortunately so, on his purchase of the Healy kennel of greyhounds. It will be remembered that Mr. Orthwein secured an option on four hundred dogs for $10,000. Among them were several of the best performers as Siquero, Lady Clara, Thurston and a litter of puppies by Duke, a new sire owned by Mr. Levin at St. Louis, and which were to be sold as an exceedingly good and clever greyhound.

Mr. Orthwein was slow in closing the deal with Mr. Healy, and it is said that it is he, Mr. Levin, who is now the owner of the Healy kennel, and that it is he, Mr. Levin, who is now the owner of the Healy kennel, and that it is he, Mr. Levin, who is now the owner of the Healy kennel.

Since Mr. Orthwein secured the option on the Healy kennel, he has been performing remarkably. Siquero, the crack, won the California cup, and the Healy kennel won the California cup, and the Healy kennel won the California cup.

OLD PEOPLE

Do not always receive the sympathy and attention which they deserve. Their ailments are regarded as purely imaginary, or natural and unavoidable at their time of life. Disease and infirmity should not always be associated with old age.

Good Blood is the secret of healthy old age, for it regulates and controls every part of the body, strengthens the nerves, makes the muscles elastic and supple, the bones strong and the flesh firm; but when this life fluid is polluted or rained and loses its nutritive, health sustaining elements, then there is a rapid decline of the vital powers, resulting in premature old age and disease.

Write us fully about your case and let our physicians advise and help you. This will cost you nothing, and we will mail free our book on blood and skin diseases.

DENONCED POLICE "SWEATING" SYSTEM.

Spurred Debate on Question of Grand Jury Abolition Before Current Topics Club.

In the course of a debate on the question whether the Grand Jury as an institution should be abolished before the Current Topics Club at the Y. M. C. A. building last night, one of the speakers took occasion to denounce the "sweating" system.

"Should a man who induces or encourages others to offer bribes to public officers disclose his knowledge of the transaction under the promise of immunity from criminal prosecution?" There was no decision on the debate.

Clarence C. Case, one of the speakers, took the position that morally a man should disclose information in a bribery case, but that it is a matter of fact, when it comes to a trial, the Constitution provides that a man cannot be compelled to give testimony incriminating himself.

"To the initiated," he said, "it does not conform to modern ideas. These secret star-chamber sessions, where a man can be accused and have no witnesses for any one to represent him, are wrong. A man of the highest integrity may be charged with an infamous crime, cooked up against him."

As a substitute, Mr. Johnson favored permanent judicial tribunals to be organized by the legislature, and for a petty jury direct, thus avoiding star-chamber methods.

H. G. Wagner replied to Mr. Johnson, saying that the Grand Jury system of the United States is the best in the world, and that which would result from allowing police and detectives to carry important cases to court for direct trial, would be a disaster.

"This would mean the 'sweating' or police courts," he said, "which is not authorized by the Constitution. I am told that it is sometimes as bad as the 'sweating' of the religion and everything. This sweating may make a man confess and say anything to get out of a bad predicament."

"Take the case of Ben Kilpatrick. This man, who was charged with the murder of a woman, succeeded after ten days of the process, which was considered very long to get out of a bad predicament."

Mr. Case, who had opened the discussion, defended the grand jury system and said that the "sweating" system is a disgrace to the grand jury and should be abolished.

"I think," said the speaker, "that the record of the grand jury in this city is a strong argument in favor of the institution, and I hope the good work will go on."

The evening rally of the Episcopate of the Diocese of Chicago, which was held in which many ministers took active part.

PUPILS ASK TEACHER TO DEFER MARRIAGE.

Secret Marriage Planned by Miss Minnie Cannady Came to Children's Knowledge.

Miss Minnie Cannady, teacher of Room No. 1 in the East St. Louis High Grammar School, who, it is said, has been planning for some time to surprise the little boys and girls under her charge by getting married, was herself very much taken aback yesterday when a petition was presented her, signed by all of the pupils in the room, asking that she postpone her wedding for a year, and not have a year.

When it became known among the children that their teacher intended to marry, they got very excited. There were many expressions of regret, and finally it was concluded to present a petition in a formal way. In the hope that she might change her mind and get married, the petition was signed by all of the pupils in the room, asking that she postpone her wedding for a year, and not have a year.

Miss Cannady was seen by a reporter at her home last night, but she would not discuss the rumor of her marriage or state whether the petition of the pupils would cause any change in the arrangements for the wedding that have been contemplated. It is understood that the young lady was to have been married very quietly, and very few of her friends knew that she contemplated the wedding. She is a very young teacher, and is well liked by the children in her department.
