

SUMMARY OF ST. LOUIS MARKETS.

There was not a great deal of speculative interest in the local grain markets yesterday, though there was sufficient trading on the buying side to cause both wheat and corn to close higher than on the preceding day.

DULL DAY IN GRAIN WITH SLIGHT ADVANCES.

CROP REPORTS ARE STILL BULLISH. Receipts Light and Farmers Continue to Hold Wheat and Corn.

All grains again advanced in the local market yesterday, the principal bullish influence being weather conditions and additional crop damage reports.

Foreign markets were strong, and there was a better export inquiry for wheat and flour. Local and primary receipts were light and farmers unwilling to let their holdings go at present prices.

Receipts of wheat at primary points were 22,747 bu., as compared with 62,100 bu. same date last year.

Receipts of corn at primary points were 22,814 bu., as compared with 60,000 bu. same date last year.

Receipts of oats at primary points were 22,814 bu., as compared with 60,000 bu. same date last year.

ST. LOUIS PRODUCE MARKETS.

Current receipts at St. Louis: Received 1,350 pigs, local, 30 through 70 shipped.

GRAINS MADE A SPURT AT CLOSE OF A DULL DAY.

Speculation in all lines again a waiting game. Reports of crop damage and an improved export demand bring about a rally.

REPORTS OF CROP DAMAGE AND AN IMPROVED EXPORT DEMAND BRING ABOUT A RALLY.

Chicago, March 7.—Speculation in grains was again a waiting game today until just before the end of the session, when the dollar value of fair export business advanced.

What was speculative about the day because of the divergence of opinions on the crop condition. Weather predictions were far showers throughout the suffering country.

Corn was dull and followed the lead of wheat. Receipts of wheat at primary points were 22,747 bu., as compared with 62,100 bu. same date last year.

Receipts of corn at primary points were 22,814 bu., as compared with 60,000 bu. same date last year.

Receipts of oats at primary points were 22,814 bu., as compared with 60,000 bu. same date last year.

TRACTIONS WELL SUPPORTED DESPITE HEAVY SELLING.

Early losses are nearly wiped out. Transit drops to $25, at which price all offerings are absorbed.

TRANSIT DROPS TO $25, AT WHICH PRICE ALL OFFERINGS ARE ABSORBED.

Local traction securities gave a striking example of their ability to withstand heavy selling pressure yesterday by recovering and closing strong after several thousand shares had been sold on the downturn.

Knowing that Transit had sold on the previous day, Thursday afternoon, local traders were extremely nervous when yesterday's morning session opened.
