ROSES SHOWERED FOR BRIDE AT JONAS-TUHOLSKE WEDDING

Who was Miss Rose Tuholske until yesterday. BY JONAS TUHOLSKE

Roses in profusion played their part yesterday at the wedding of Miss Rose Tuholske, only daughter of Doctor and Mrs. Herman Tuholske, and Doctor Ernest Jonas, formerly of Berlin, but lately removed to St. Louis.

The drawing-room was converted into an arbor of green, all the walls being covered with Southern smilax studded with luscious Carnot roses.

The bride had only one maid of honor, her cousin, Miss Stella Tuholske, who wore pale-pink crepe de Chine, with lace applications, and a bouquet of pink roses.

The bride wore a soft white silk gown of the new Armand weave, which has a pronounced silvery tint.

Endorses Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound After Following Its Record For Years.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Health is the greatest boon bestowed on humanity and therefore a principle that can restore lost health is a blessing. I consider Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a blessing to State and Nation. It cures her mothers and daughters and makes them well and strong."

PRINCESS VIROQUA. Practising Physician and Lecturer.

"Elevation and inflammation of the womb has been cured in two or three weeks through its use, and as I find it purely an herbal remedy, I unhesitatingly give it my highest endorsement."

"I have used it for years, and I can testify that it is the only medicine that I know of that is so effective."

"If you are ill do not hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for special advice; it is entirely free."

DRAWING-ROOM IN DOCTOR TUHOLSKE'S HOME. In which his daughter was married to Doctor Ernest Jonas. The bridal couple stood under a canopy of smilax and white roses. The mantelpiece was decorated with bride's roses in cut-glass vases, and the two tall vases at the side were filled with huge American beauty roses.
