

"Nursing"
The balls is the secret of long runs in billiards.
"Nursing" the customer's good-will—looking out for his interests—seeing that he is satisfied and that, always taking infinite pains that he may be attired fashionably and tastefully, is the secret of a long-lasting trade.
It's our secret. It's one reason why we believe we deserve your patronage. It's the reason why we know that if you'll let us make your clothing this Fall you'll come to us for your "next Spring garments." How about trying us? How about one of these $30 Coronation Suits, that we are showing for that trial?

PRINCIPALS MEET AT HIGH SCHOOL.
Superintendent Soldan Emphasizes Importance of Boundaries and the Collection of Tuition.
INSTITUTIONS OPEN TO-DAY.
Changes in the Course of Study Explained to 1,200 City Educators.

The annual meeting of the principals, preceding the opening of the public schools, took place at the High School yesterday morning. Fully 1,200 teachers and principals were present. It was the largest principals' meeting in the history of the St. Louis public schools. Two-thirds of the total number of educators in the employ of the city attended.

P. Louis Soldan, Superintendent of Education, made the only address. In a general way he outlined the work of teachers and principals, and laid great emphasis on the importance of principals demanding tuition from nonresident pupils, and also maintaining school boundaries by not permitting scholars from other districts to come to their schools.

He complimented the teachers on their ready appearance after the summer's vacation and praised their work of the last year. In connection with changes in the course of study, he spoke of the work in grammar, saying that the pupils would learn more from the language used by the teacher than by great application to his books. He suggested that the teacher spend more time in describing scenes and events, than in showing the proper use of English.

The Board of Education has expended $6,000 in purchasing supplementary reading books to be used in the eight grades, and trustees crayon has been introduced in many schools. Mr. Soldan spoke of these changes and also outlined the work he desired the substitute to do. A general register followed the address.

BIG ATTENDANCE EXPECTED.
Fully 6,000 pupils are expected to-day at the opening of the schools. Last year the opening day's attendance was 50,000 and the total enrollment during the year was 1,200,000. This year Superintendent Soldan expects the attendance to exceed 50,000.

The opening of the schools is the beginning of the school year, and on account of the erection of the Emerson School the transfer of teachers was made necessary. All the principals have been provided with lists of teachers assigned to their schools, including the substitutes.

Most of the old buildings have been repaired during the vacation period and additional schools have been opened. The portable buildings will be provided to relieve the congestion. At the High School the new gymnasium rooms have been made out of study halls.

VON DER AHE SOUGHT TO AVOID DIVORCE.
Met His Wife and Made a Proposition for Settlement Which She Accepted.
HIS LAWYER DID NOT APPROVE.
After Leaving Attorney's Office They Separated, Postponing Further Negotiations Indefinitely.

Chris Von der Ahe and his wife, Anna, between whom divorce proceedings are pending, met yesterday in an attorney's office under a flag of truce. A protocol was drawn up, but its signing was indefinitely postponed.

Von der Ahe made a proposition to settle the differences, but the terms were not satisfactory to his lawyer. When this became known the offer was withdrawn by the husband.

Mrs. Von der Ahe instituted the suit for divorce several months ago, and at the same time the husband brought suit against her brother, Max Kaiser, to have set aside deeds conveying his property at Grand and St. Louis avenues to her, through Kaiser. She is living at the home of her father, Joseph Kaiser, No. 2914 Kosciusko avenue.

Von der Ahe and his wife met in the office of her counsel, C. F. Meyer, in the Lincoln Trust building, where the negotiations to settle took place. Mr. Meyer said Von der Ahe telephoned him last Saturday night to return to St. Louis on Monday at 10 a. m. Mrs. Von der Ahe promptly appeared at the office, and about ten minutes later Von der Ahe came.

Mr. Meyer suggested that they wait for Mr. Kinner before proceeding with the negotiations. Von der Ahe would not wait, however, and proposed that the terms be satisfactory to Mrs. Von der Ahe and her attorney, the latter stated. Von der Ahe and his wife left together.

PART AFTER FRIENDLY MEETING.
They separated after leaving the attorney's office. He went to the office of Mr. Kinner, and she to her home. The conference with his lawyer was that later he called on Attorney Meyer and withdrew the proposition to return to the wife which was not satisfactory.

Mr. Meyer says his client is desirous of having her property rights preserved. The deeds transferring the property to her were executed a year ago, but she has since been in his possession until last May, he said. During his absence from the city the latter part of May, his wife obtained possession of the deeds and they were placed on record. She then sued for divorce.

When Von der Ahe returned to St. Louis he found the door of his residence, No. 2612 St. Louis avenue, locked against him. He called on the police, but they found another relative were in the house.

Von der Ahe instituted a prosecution against them in the police court.

Mrs. Von der Ahe stated that she returned with her children to her father's home, and the case was dismissed. She retained her parents' home pending the trial of the suit in regard to her property.

Attorney Kinner said yesterday that Von der Ahe made the first proposition to settle without consulting him.
