FITZKANET WON BRILLIANT RACE.

Son of Fitzjames Got Away Slowly But Ran Six Furlongs in 1:14 Flat.

MOULIN ROUGE ALMOST BEATEN

Troxler Eased Up the 2-to-5 Favorite in the Stretch and Sadie Burch Almost Nipped Her on the Post.

Mr. Rogers's Fitzkanet won the fastest race of the Delmar meeting when he cantered over Miss Mae Day and Kindred in the six-furlong handicap yesterday afternoon. The game son of Fitzjames was sent to the post fit to run the race of his life, but many wise betters would have nothing to do with him because Sheehan was up.

Mae Day and Kindred shared favoritism at 16 to 5, while Fitzkanet was as good as 6s in the ring. Mr. Rogers told his friends his horse would win sure, and the stable played a nice commission on the horse.

Troxler threw Miss Mae Day out in front as the barrier went up, and the railbirds began to cry, "Miss Mae Day." Fitzkanet broke slowly and on the outside. He took his time going up, went to Mae Day at the stretch turn, and came home leisurely, several lengths to the good, in 1:14, by far the fastest time of the Delmar meeting and within one-quarter of a second of the track record for the distance. Fitzkanet will be very hard to beat in any company just now. He is sound as a dollar and in rare good form.

Doctor Cartledge was pounds the best in the 2-year-old race and won it hands down, just as The Republic said he would. The wise bookmakers laid 2½ to 1 against the lame and sore Quaker Girl, and 7s and 9s against Cartledge. F. Smith gave the latter a good ride and brought him home all alone. Quaker Girl was never a contender. Just why Rogers started her is a mystery unless it was to make a price against Fitzkanet, and to see that requires some subtle race-track reasoning indeed.

TROXLER'S CARELESS FINISH.

Troxler almost threw away the first race when he eased up Moulin Rouge in the last quarter of the first race. Rouge was a prohibitive favorite at 2 to 5, and not many bettors would have cared had she lost, but there would have been no salvation for Troxler had this happened. The filly broke in front and opened up a gap of twenty lengths in the first quarter.

Coming down the stretch, Troxler glanced over his shoulder, saw the field in the hazy distance and began taking up wraps. L. Austin brought Sadie Burch, a 30-to-1 shot, up with a whoop, and, although every one in the grand stand saw the favorite's danger, Troxler apparently did not. He continued to take wraps up till he could take no more, and, just as Moulin Rouge crossed the line Burch passed her.

It was a heart-breaking finish for those who had bet their money on the favorite at 2 to 5, and probably will make them a bit timid about betting on another odds-on favorite for a long time. Judge Brady had Troxler in the stand and gave him some sound advice after this race.

F. SMITH RIDES IN FORM.

Pirateer, an even-money shot, and a legitimate one, outclassed his field in the second, and won rather easily under a good ride by F. Smith. Mr. Daniels's clever negro boy, by the way, rode three winners, bringing Cartledge and Hook-se-Oka home first in addition to Pirateer.

Hook-se-Oka was all kinds of a good thing in the fifth race, and won by a nose of Smith's clever handling. Lady Strathmore, another torrid tip, was backed from 4s to 2s and ran second, but was set back for fouling Aules at the second turn. It was a palpable foul.

Morris Volmer won his semiannual race at nice odds, 10 to 1, considering that he was ridden by the good boy, A. W. Booker. The ride which Troxler gave Pierce J., the favorite, in this race was anything but satisfactory to the backers of the horse. He was pocketed all the way, and never had a chance to extend himself. F. Smith brought the 15-to-1 shot, Weird, home second in this race, while Lunar slipped into the show money without much effort.

THE REPUBLIC'S SELECTIONS.

First Race—Mafalda, Ocyrohe, Mendon.
Second Race—Mimo, Olonetz, Tioga.
Third Race—Aylmer Bruce, La Cache, John Yerkes.
Fourth Race—Mulkey's best, Actine, Zirl.
Fifth Race—Light Opera, Orris, Lady Strathmore.
Sixth Race—Josie F., Linden Ella, Ivernia.
Seventh Race—Lunar, Tony Lepping, Pierce J.

MULKEY'S BEST IN THE STAKE.

One of the d'Ors Should Win the Home Bred—Mafalda in the First.

On Mafalda's race in the Belle Stakes Thursday it is hard to see how they are going to beat Hayes's filly in the first race to-day. She is taking off eighteen pounds from that race, when she was beaten less than two lengths. With any kind of a ride and an even break at the luck she should come home alone. Ocyrohe should be second. Her last race was good enough to win here with Mafalda out. Wreath of Ivy gets only ten pounds off for being soundly beaten in the stake, and Mafalda held her safe that day. Mendon is a big, strong rascal, which has been improving with every race and finishing like a good horse. He should be third.

MIMO IN SECOND.

Mimo showed enough last time to beat Olonetz and Tioga in the second. If she carries her speed and runs back to her spring form she will win. Olonetz is always right there and should beat Tioga for place, although the latter ran a better race last time out than was expected, and did not get any the best of the break.

ALYMER BRUCE LOOKS GOOD.

On his race Thursday, when he ran away half a mile to a false break, then ran with the pace all the way when the race was on and finished fourth, beaten a couple of lengths, Bennett's Alymer Bruce should win the third sure. La Cache's last two races have been good and he is taking off weight. His second to Tangent at this distance on Wednesday, when Troxler won the race for the favorite, gives La Cache a decided look-in here. John Yerkes should show.

MULKEY'S HORSES BEST.

One of the d'Ors should win the Home-Bred Stakes. Mr. Mulkey has two good ones in Bas d'Or and Croix d'Or, and the better of the two at the distance should take the first money in the stake. Bas d'Or seems to have more class, but he is not the sprinter that his half sister is. At that, he will about win. Actine hasn't been heard of for so long that she has been almost forgotten, but if she is anywhere near her form of last year, when she won at 100 to 1 first out, she will not be worse than second. Zirl gets in light and will be well ridden. She should be even money to show and should cash for her backers.

LIGHT OPERA MAY WIN.

The handicap is like all of the Maginn handicaps—hopeless. Light Opera might win it, but Bonner must hold him straighter than he did Lasso Thursday, when the Lemp stable cleaned up $3,000 by a neck. Orris is game and true and should be fresh and ready. She will be right there. Lady Strathmore is not Lady Strathmore, as The Republic has remarked before, but, with three pounds off her race day before yesterday, when she ran third to Malster in his good race and would have been second in another stride, she should not be worse than third to-day.

JOSIE AND ELLA.

Josie F. and Lindenella have the fifth between them. Josie is right on edge as proven by her easy victory in the mile race the day before yesterday, a distance generally believed to be short for her. Lindenella has her old-time early speed and is a sweet mare when right. She was a bit short last time out in a shorter race and may be hardly up to a mile and an eighth yet. Watch out for Ivernia. Remember what the Sire brothers have done with her two times before at 40 to 1. No one knows how good she is. She has won both races coming from behind, and Breeden knows how to ride with these boys around here. Ivernia ties up with higher-class animals to-day, but should be watched. A show bet looks like ready money here.

LUNAR IN GOOD FORM.

Lunar in the last. The Gumberts mare warmed up well yesterday and ran a good third under an easy ride. The distance is hers to the inch, and Watson will show more energy to-day. Tony Lepping is good now, too, and should be right there. Pierce J. will be in the money if he is ridden better than Troxler rode him yesterday.

BRIGHTON OAKS PROTESTED.

Claimed That Birch Broom Has Been Raced in Street's Name.

New York, July 24.—G. B. Morris, who was second with Gravina in the Brighton Oaks yesterday, protested the stakes to-day, claiming that Birch Broom, the winner, had been racing in the West under the name of S. W. Street. Birch Broom won the Oaks under the name and colors of James R. Keene. She is properly registered with the Jockey Club, and probably no action will be taken. James R. Keene leased the horse's running qualities to Doctor Street, in whose name she has been running in the West.

Hyland was the only favorite to win. Summary:
