

MUNYON'S PAW-PAW CURING HUNDREDS

Here Are Statements From People You Know

CURED Of Dyspepsia, Sleeplessness, Catarrh and Other Blood Ailments

Very Warm Friend of Munyon's Paw-Paw.

"I have been troubled considerably with nervous indigestion and dyspepsia. I have tried many things, but none proved beneficial until I tried your Paw-Paw. It certainly acts as a splendid nerve tonic and sedative, and since I have been taking it I feel fine."

(Signed) HYMAN BLOCK, 813 Raymond place, St. Louis, Mo.

Cured Him of Nervousness.

"Justified by my former experience with Munyon's Remedies, I am trying Paw-Paw, the new stomach and nerve tonic, and can truly say that I am feeling vastly improved. I believe it to be the best tonic ever offered to the public."

(Signed) D. J. WHITE, 351 Thomas street, St. Louis, Mo.

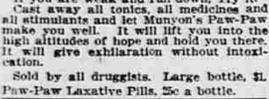

Says Paw-Paw Is Best Nervous Remedy in Use.

"Regarding Munyon's Paw-Paw, would say: It has proven to me its wonderful power as a digestive agent and nerve sedative. My work on the police force calls for hard work and constant attention to the details of my business. I take pleasure in saying the effect of Paw-Paw on the nervous system is wonderful. I feel braced up after taking it sleep well and eat heartily; it stimulates and soothes at the same time."

(Signed) POLICEMAN L. E. HULFISH, 480 Garfield avenue.

If you have dyspepsia, try it. If you are nervous, try it. If you are despondent, try it. If you are weak and run down, try it. Cast away all tonics, all medicines and all stimulants and let Munyon's Paw-Paw make you well. It will lift you into the high altitudes of hope and hold you there. It will give exhilaration without intoxication.

We are ever advancing.

The combined knowledge of the most eminent physicians of the world is ours—and we are still studying.

As specialists to men we acknowledge no superiors. We cure to stay cured.

It is no unusual thing for us to cure cases of nervous debility, varicocele, hydrocele, contagious blood poison and genital troubles after the patient has been pronounced incurable by other physicians.

The diseases of men due to the abuses of youth are an open book to us.

Our immense practice is not of mushroom growth, but is the result of the wonderful cures so quickly effected.

If your troubles are of a confidential nature you should see us at once, for delays are frequently very dangerous—sometimes fatal. We cure:

Nervous Diseases, Varicocele, Weaknesses of Men, Contagious Blood Poison. Consultations free and confidential, by mail or in person.

HAPPENINGS IN EAST SIDE CITIES AND TOWNS.

WITNESSES SAY PARSONS MISTOOK WIFE FOR BURGLAR

Trial of Man Charged with Murder Begins in Belleville Circuit Court.

Samuel A. Parsons, charged with the murder of his wife, Virginia, on July 21 at their home in East St. Louis, is on trial in the Circuit Court at Belleville. The State charges that Parsons committed a deliberate murder after a quarrel with his wife. The defense asserts that the shooting of Parsons' wife was accidental and that he mistook her for a burglar.

The strongest points in the State's case were established yesterday afternoon during the testimony of Doctor R. Stanton of East St. Louis, who attended the woman shortly after the shooting. When Doctor Stanton arrived at the house Mrs. Parsons was lying in the position in which she fell after being shot. He helped carry her to the bed and attended her until her death a few hours later.

"He says that he mistook me for a burglar," Doctor Stanton said as Mrs. Parsons' reply to his question as to how the shooting occurred. Doctor Stanton in reply to questions of State Attorney James A. Farmer and Judge Lightfoot of Paducah, Ky., who is assisting him, stated that it was impossible for Parsons to shoot his wife unless he got down to the foot of the bed and leaned over the edge.

Mrs. Sarah J. Harry, a neighbor, testified to a quarrel which Mr. and Mrs. Parsons had over the purchase of two rugs. Mr. Parsons is said to have used violent language toward his wife because she contracted to buy rugs from solicitors. The quarrel stopped at midnight, Mrs. Harry said, and an hour later she heard the shot. When she got to the Parsons' home, she was met by Mr. Parsons, who told her that he had shot his wife, thinking that she was a burglar.

One of the peculiar features of the case is the unexplained disappearance of Mrs. Gertrude Golding, who occupied a room in the Parsons' home at the time of the shooting. She testified at the coroner's inquest and fainted several times. She made conflicting statements at the time and it was impossible for her to get a straightforward statement from her. She said that she heard Mr. and Mrs. Parsons talk about the rugs and that she went to sleep and was not awakened by the shooting. She said that Mr. Parsons awakened her by knocking on the door of her room. Mrs. Harry, in her testimony yesterday, said that Mrs. Golding was dressed when she got there, and she hurried over as fast as she could after she heard the shot.

State Attorney Farmer has made a futile effort for two months to find Mrs. Golding.

MRS. KNERRER CHARGES CRUELTY.

Divorce Suit Follows Arrest of Her Husband and Father-in-Law.

Mrs. Martin Knerrer, who on Monday caused the arrest and conviction of her husband and father-in-law for assaulting her and disturbing her peace, yesterday entered suit in the Circuit Court at Belleville for divorce. She also asks for an injunction restraining her husband from disposing of his property until the legal questions are settled. Cruelty is charged.

The troubles in the Knerrer family began last Saturday night, when Knerrer returned from the circuit court at Belleville for divorce. She also asks for an injunction restraining her husband from disposing of his property until the legal questions are settled. Cruelty is charged. "SILVERS" KEMPER DROPS DEAD.

Forty-Third Degree "Rooter" Succumbs to Apoplexy.

J. H. Kemper, a better known as "Silver," known to every baseball "fan" on the East Side and to many in St. Louis, dropped dead yesterday on Broadway, East St. Louis. His death was due to apoplexy.

Kemper, who was married, was at one time, one of the best switchmen on the East Side of the river. A misstep one day cost him his right leg and later on with his working at his accustomed position he was discouraged and took to drinking. After a few years his wife left him and secured a divorce on the grounds of drunkenness.

Since then "Silvers" has made his home in many places. Always a patron of the baseball game, he became known to the habitués before his departure. He was always ready to bet and he was given enough money to keep him for a few days. A few weeks ago he fell from a porch. He was taken care of at the East St. Louis hospital, but his body will probably be buried at the expense of the men who were often spurred on to victory by his "rooting" at baseball games.

SAYS WIFE ASSAULTED HIM.

Charles Devos Declares He Was Chased With a Butcher Knife.

Charles Devos, a carpenter, No. 2214 Gaty avenue, East St. Louis, yesterday filed a suit for divorce from his wife, Helene Devos, who is a native of Belgium. They were married on June 7, 1900.

Devos asserts that after several months of his married life he learned that his wife had an affectionate temporary lover, which he says he had seen nothing either before their marriage or during their married life.

The real trouble, according to the petition, started on May 28 of this year, when the wife was despaired of. Devos emphasizes an argument used a hunk of wood which, he says, she hurled at his head. He alleged that she used a rolling pin on his head, and on June 21, he alleges, that she was compelled to hold the side of the tub, which she used a rolling pin on his head, and on June 21, he alleges, that she was compelled to hold the side of the tub, which she used a rolling pin on his head, and on June 21, he alleges, that she was compelled to hold the side of the tub, which she used a rolling pin on his head.

CHILD SERIOUSLY BURNED.

Edward Eckles Falls Into Tub of Boiling Water.

Edward Eckles, 18 months old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Eckles of School street, Belleville, was probably fatally burned by scalding water at his home yesterday morning. Last evening the little one's life was despaired of.

Mrs. Eckles was preparing to do the family washing yesterday morning and had filled a tub with boiling water. Leaving it for a few moments to attend to other matter, she did not see the child grab hold of the side of the tub, which she used a rolling pin on his head, and on June 21, he alleges, that she was compelled to hold the side of the tub, which she used a rolling pin on his head, and on June 21, he alleges, that she was compelled to hold the side of the tub, which she used a rolling pin on his head.
