Chairman Rothwell Will Probably Issue the Call Within a Few Days.

LOOK FOR EARLY CONVENTION.

Politicians Discuss Advisability of Ending Present Strife in the Party by Quick Action.

Prominent politicians from over the State were at the Laclede yesterday to attend the meeting of the Missouri Press Association.

Around the hotel were James A. Reed of Kansas City, Harry B. Hawes and Joseph W. Folk, candidates for Governor; Secretary of State Sam B. Cook, candidate for re-election; Lieutenant Governor J. L. Rubey of Macon and James Todd of Maryville, candidates for Lieutenant Governor; E. C. Meyer of Bowling Green, J. M. Salles of Bethany and H. S. Cook of St. Louis, candidates for Attorney General; Auditor Albert O. Allen, candidate for re-election; Treasurer R. P. Williams of Fayette, mentioned for Governor; Railroad Commissioner W. E. McCully of Maxey, candidate for re-election; Senator H. Clay Hatcher of Union, candidate for re-election, and Judge W. N. Evans of West Plains, one of the Folk managers.

Of those who are not candidates for office, but who are taking an active part in politics, were State Chairman Will A. Rothwell of Missouri, and Committee Chairman Virgil Conkling of Carrollton, former Editor-News of Springfield, and J. O. Oldham and R. M. Yost of the Hawes headquarters, County Chairman Silas Carr of Montgomery, and others.

Chairman Rothwell will probably issue his call for a meeting of the State Convention at some time or three days after that time the committee will probably fix the places of State conventions and the dates.

Indications yesterday were that the State Convention will be held in the city of Jefferson City, Mo., at the residence of the State Chairman, Will A. Rothwell, on the 22nd or 23rd of February.

FOR AN EARLY CONVENTION. Indications are that the State Committee would decide to have the State Nominating Convention for Governor and other general offices the latter part of June, a week or so before the National Convention to select delegates to the National Convention will be held the first of July.

No matter at what time the State Nominating Convention is held the counties will be instructed before June 1st to select delegates to the National Convention.

It is likely that county committees will be organized in the State before the first of July, and the State Convention will be held in Jefferson City, Mo., at the residence of the State Chairman, Will A. Rothwell, on the 22nd or 23rd of February.
