MISSOURI'S GIFT PLEASES OFFICERS OF INSTRUMENTS

Silver Service Presented to Battleship Through Efforts of Republic Highly Appreciated.

MANY SUBSCRIBERS TO FUND. BECKHAM IS IN CONTROL.

Parker May Fail After Being Elected Chief of Temporary Organization.

Members of the party who presented the silver service to the battleship Missouri at Newport News last Saturday, carrying to a successful completion the idea suggested by 'The Republic, which was instrumental in raising the fund to purchase the service, returned to St. Louis yesterday, having stopped at Washington Monday to call on the President.

L. D. Kingsland, president of the St. Louis Manufacturers' Association, who was a member of the party, said the President, speaking of the welcome which Miss Roosevelt had received in St. Louis, expressed the warmest appreciation, but rather deprecated the demonstrations caused by her visit to the Fair.

When Mr. Kingsland was introduced to the President, he said: "The first thing that he said was, 'I have had a description of the beautiful service which you have presented to the Missouri.'"

The members of the party who delivered the service to the battleship were: Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Ballard and Miss Gertrude Ballard, Judge and Mrs. Frank M. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Kingsland, and son, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Skinker and Mrs. J. H. Knapp, who joined them from New York.

TUG IN READINESS. A Government tug was in readiness to take them to the battleship, and they boarded the Missouri at noon.

Mr. Ballard made the opening speech, commenting favorably on the plan of naming battleships after the States, and saying that those States which had ships named after them were proud of the ships, and the citizens were moved to greater patriotism.

He eulogized Missouri and presented the silver service, consisting of the punch bowl, plate, ladle and twenty-four goblets.

Ben C. Adkins, friend who supported him against Morris Sherrard for president, and the votes were pretty evenly distributed between the two candidates.

The delegates voted in a body for Mr. Adkins.

They were read by the following members: William R. Hill, Owen T. Smith and John W. Alvord.

"PE-U-NA" A VALUABLE PREPARATION. WRITES DR. KEMBALL.

Most of the Ailments Peculiar to the Female Sex Are Due to Catarrh of the Pelvic Organs.

Rachael J. Kembell, M.D., 221 Virginia St., St. Louis, Mo., is a graduate of the University of Buffalo, class 1884, and has been in the practice of medicine in that city since 1888. She writes as follows:

"My conviction, supported by experience, is that Peruna is a valuable preparation for all catarrhal affections. I have taken one bottle of Peruna myself and just feel fine. I shall continue to take it."—Rachael J. Kembell, M.D.

Peruna has cured thousands of cases of female weakness. As a rule, however, before catarrh of the head or other remedies have been tried in vain. A great many of the patients have taken local treatment, and taken all sorts of doctor's stuff, without any result.

The reason of so many failures is the fact that disease peculiar to the female sex is not commonly recognized by catarrh of the pelvic organs. These organs are lined by mucous membranes. Any mucous membrane is subject to catarrh.

Catarrh of one organ is exactly the same as catarrh of any other organ. What will cure catarrh of the head will also cure catarrh of the pelvic organs. Peruna cures these cases simply because it cures the catarrh.

Most of the women afflicted with pelvic diseases have no idea that their trouble is due to catarrh. The majority of the people think that catarrh is a disease confined to the head alone.

This is not true. Catarrh is liable to attack any organ of the body, throat, bronchitis, lungs, stomach, kidneys and especially the pelvic organs.

Many a woman has made this discovery after a long siege of useless treatment. She has made the discovery that her disease is catarrh, and that Peruna can be relied upon to cure catarrh wherever located.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Dr. Hartman, President of the Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.
