Yesterday's Results.

Brown & Cleveland 2, Philadelphia 4, Wash 2, Detroit 4, Chicago 2, New York 3, Boston 1.

Consistent hitting and the excellent pitching of Harry Howell gave St. Louis a victory over Cleveland yesterday by a score of 5 to 2.

The game was called at 2 o'clock in order to allow the players and spectators to see the World's Fair Hamilton.

Only one hour and thirty minutes were required for the Browns to bring matters to a decisive end.

As soon as the game was finished the Cleveland players jumped into their bus and were driven to the Fair grounds.

The game was without any particular brilliancy.

St. Louis had the better of the battle all the way.

Harry Howell was in excellent form. His control was perfect.

He did not allow a single free pass to first or make a pitcher's error.

He also added to the Cleveland's woes by fanning eight of their batsmen, but as the day was hot they didn't object very strenuously to the breezing.

DONAHUE'S INEFFICIENCY.

"Red" Donahue, who pitched for the visitors, was found ten times, and three of these came at the right time, giving the locals sufficient runs to win.

"Red" also passed three of the local batsmen. At that Donahue was not altogether held out of the running.

The peppery halter either spanked out a hit, which was so unexpected that the spectators in the grand stand begged for police interference.

When "Red" was with the locals his batting average was .67, but he seems to have improved in better company.

Bobby Waite returned to the game for a short time. He remained four innings, after which his injured side began to bother him.

Donahue tossed the sponge in for Wallace, sending "Cherub" Gleason out to relieve him.

Cleveland played well in the field, not an error of any kind being charged against them.

Lajoie, however, let a home run pass him on a single bouncer.

This was the nearest approach to an error that the visitors made.

HOWELL'S PITCHING BEST.

Howell performed the remarkable feat of retiring the Cleveland batsmen on strikes in the fifth inning of the game.

St. Louis got off in the lead, making four runs in the fourth inning.

Burkett hit a home run, which was followed by a double by Hemphill.

Wallace, shortstop, pitched for the Browns in the seventh inning.

STAR DILANTERO OR INSIDE MAN OF THE PELOTA PLAYERS AT ST. LOUIS

In Havana, the place where men and women think pelotas the only game on earth, Cecilio Benguela, is considered the greatest "dilatante" or insider known to the game though players say that Irua Macala, Isidoro, Baracaldas and others excel him.

Cecilio, as he is known professionally, is a native of Bilbao, Spain, the home of pelotas. He is 22 years old and weighs 170 pounds, and is the highest of the local pelotas players, says De Eibar.

Cecilio is a young man of fair complexion and English type. He much resembles George Norman, a famous golf professional, who formerly served golf clubs in St. Louis.

He is a hard and accurate server, a fast man on pick-ups, very cool, and a great man to endure hard rallies.

McKINNIE WINS GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Defeats Ralph McKittrick in the Contest for The Republic Cup.

MEMBER OF NORMANDIE CLUB.

Second Time That Victor Has Been Possessor of Trophy Since Match Was Inaugurated Five Years Ago.

Burt P. McKinnie won The Republic Cup and the golf championship of St. Louis yesterday from Ralph McKittrick by the score of 5 up and 4 to play.

Both contestants played a brilliant game, McKinnie beating the bogey score of the course by 1 and McKittrick equalling it.

The game was played on the links of the Normandie Park Club, of which the champion is a member.

McKittrick is a member of the Country Club, and the finals in the golf event of the year brought out a large crowd, the gallery being equally divided between the partisans of both devotees of the game.

The Country Club has had possession of the cup for two years, through Stuart Suckney's victories, and hoped, even though he was defeated early in this year's tournament, that it would be retained through McKittrick's work.

In driving and approaching neither player had the advantage, but in putting McKittrick's work was erratic, while McKinnie's was steady.

In fact it was on the greens that the Country Club won the championship.

This is the second time that McKinnie has won The Republic Cup since it was introduced here two years ago and he defended it successfully for two consecutive years before it becomes his absolute property.
