STATE SENATE TO STAND BY FOLK

Four Votes Are Found to Be the Limit in a Farris Defection.

PROGRAMME IS "DEMOCRATIC"

Leaders of All Factions Have Been Here and Optimism Prevails—Governor Elect and Dockery Lunch Together.

After luncheon together yesterday at the Southern Hotel, both Governor Dockery and his successor-to-be, Joseph W. Farris, declared that there was nothing of a political significance in their meeting, that they had met casually and had a little chat and a little lunch.

The Governor-elect stroled into the hotel and the present Governor happened to be strolling along the corridor. They greeted each other warmly and presently went into the dining-room.

Democrats were almost as many around town yesterday as Republicans. Joe Shannon of Kansas City was at the Southern, and among those at the Laclede were Charles E. Yeater of Sedalia, Z. T. Brawford of Unionville, T. F. Mitchell, former secretary of the State Committee, and Frank Farris.

By this time most of the leaders of all factions in the Democratic ranks of the State have been in St. Louis since the election. Practically all the new Senators have been here or have been represented in visits by other leaders.

WRANGLING An Old Couple's Troubles.

There is an old couple of Hillsdale, Kansas, the husband 71 and the wife 61, who made a discovery late in life that something was amiss with their troubles, something they learned about in a very interesting way.

"So I prepared half a pint of Postum according to directions, and as soon as she had drunk it she felt warm and nourished all over, and in a little while her pain was gone; it was like magic. For a few meals she used a little coffee and then a wrangling began in her stomach each time, so finally she gave up coffee altogether and used Postum only. Better and better she got, and grew stronger, and finally all the old disease left."

"There's a reason." Look in each pkg. for the famous little book, "The Road to Well-being."

NEW CONGRESSMAN RIDES IN ELEVATOR

William T. Tyndall of Sparta Has First Experience in Commercial Building Lift.

HAD NEVER VISITED CITY.

Since the Election He Has Made Two Trips to St. Louis and Is Enjoying Metropolitan Life.

Though the recent Republican landslide brought luck to many an unsuspecting nominee, it is probable that it has made little change in the material condition of any man other than William T. Tyndall, who was elected to Congress from the Fourth District.

Mr. Tyndall's domicile is at Sparta, Tany County, not so very far from the town of Pro Tem. Sparta is not on a railroad, and is a typical Ozark Mountain town. Tany County is the old home of the Balkinobbers, Republican to the core, and when Mr. Tyndall was nominated it was done with a view of keeping the right in the post office.

Upon the confident assurance of Mr. Ellis that it was all right, Congressman-elect Tyndall got in the car on the seventh floor, caught his breath and remarked that the car certainly moved. It was a relief to him, as he had never before seen a car of this kind.

Mr. Tyndall saw many strange things during his first visit to St. Louis. He went back home to Sparta, where he was returned yesterday to meet the President-to-day. Mr. Tyndall is highly thought of by the people of his district, and he is not so very heavy. He is also a school teacher and has been receiving a salary of $1,000 a year.

As Congressman he will receive $3,000 a year, and he is expected to receive the amount of his present income.

Representative Hill of Poplar Bluff Begins Campaign for the Honor—Bittinger Withdraws.

Republican State politics took a boom yesterday preparatory to the visit of President Roosevelt. Republicans of high and low degree appeared on the many excursions to St. Louis. They almost captured the Laclede Hotel and spread themselves around the headquarters of the Senatorial candidates like so many flies.

As was to be expected most of them visited the State headquarters and called on State Chairman Niedringhaus. In the morning about 150 of the faithful were on the seventh floor of the Commercial building. It was a field day for the headquarters and compliments were showered upon the official head of the organization.

Two important conferences of the State officers were held. One was held at a downtown cafe, and the other at 4 o'clock in the office of National Committeeman Akins, with him and State Chairman Niedringhaus.

Attorney-General-elect Herbert S. Hatley probably will make personal appointments in the near future. The Republican will make an effort to influence the office of the Attorney General, an idea that has been advocated by Attorney-General-elect Frank J. Wright.

PUBLIC MUSEUM IS NOW ASSURED

Citizens' Meeting Develops That Nucleus for Fund Has Been Subscribed.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE TO ACT

Majority of Exhibitors Declare They Prefer to Favor St. Louis and Will Do Much to Aid the Project.

A public museum for St. Louis is assured. At a meeting of the citizens interested in the movement at the Mercantile Club yesterday afternoon, it was announced that the nucleus for the museum fund was in hand and that it was a nice sum for a starter.

President H. H. Wernse of the Merchants' Exchange, chairman of the Museum Committee of Sixty, president, and George T. Parker of the Furniture Board of Trade acted as secretary. A number of St. Louis's prominent citizens were present and showed strong interest in the plan for a museum.

During the discussion it developed that the $1,000 subscription made to the museum fund by the St. Louis Furniture Board of Trade had been added to by liberal donations of a number of individuals. Of these a few are for $100, one or two for larger sums, and a considerable number for smaller amounts.

THE PAGAN'S PROGRESS

By COUVERNEUR MORRIS

"It is impossible in a summary to convey the charm and seriousness of this book. The style has a dignity, an almost archaic simplicity, that lends itself at once to the parable of progress and the stern details of history itself.
