AMERICAN CAPITALISTS MAY BUY THE PALAIS ROYAL

Plan to Convert Historic French Building into a Depot for the Exhibition of American Goods.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, Jan. 21.—Confirmation is obtained at the temporary office of the Corporate Securities Company, in Wall street, that American capitalists, co-operating with French interests, are negotiating for the purchase of a part of the Palais Royal. It is said that if the deal goes through it will involve the expenditure of $7,000,000 as the outside figure.

W. W. Dean said that the Corporate Securities company is not a director, is simply acting as a banker and broker in the negotiations. "Our company has not, as yet, started business," he said, "although we have a temporary board of directors. We have a capital of $1,000,000, which will be increased to $2,000,000 with a surplus of $1,000,000.

RUSSIAN QUAKERS WILL SETTLE IN CALIFORNIA

Leave Their Homes, as Their Tenants Forbid the Bearing of Arms.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, Jan. 21.—Under escort of Captain P. D. Deamanna, formerly of the Russian Imperial Guard, but now a man of peace, seventy-two Russian Quakers, whose tenants forbid bearing of arms or the killing of their fellow-men, fled through the portals of Ellis Island and started for Los Angeles.

Captain Deamanna, who met the party, said he became acquainted with them while serving as an officer in the Imperial Guard. As the Russian military service is not a peace service, he became involved in much trouble when it became known that he had joined the sect.

REMARKABLE RECOVERY OF Mrs. Welch. Attracts Wide Attention.

Glennont, N. Y., Jan. 21.—After suffering twenty years from asthma and being unable to walk from one room to another, Mrs. William Welch of this place, wife of a prominent citizen, is now well. She performs all her household duties and takes long walks. Mrs. Welch claims her recovery of health is due to the use of the new Austrian drug, asato.

GUERRILLA'S SHOT FOUND ITS MARK. William Halley's Death Recalls His Duel With a Captain on Texas Plain.

QUARREL OVER A WOMAN.

Aim of Quantrell's Chief Lieutenant Proved Too True for Infantry Commander—Burlingame on Field.

WILLIAM GILLETTE THE ADMIRABLE CRICHTON

By J. M. BARRIE, Author of "The Little Minister."

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Joseph Mo, Jan. 21.—The death of William Halley, the chief lieutenant of the noted guerrilla, Charles Quantrell, during the Civil War, at the State Insane Asylum in this city, a victim of paroxysms, recalls a duel fought on the plains of Texas, as he was fleeing with Shelby and a handful of Confederates from the United States, to seek an asylum under the reign of Maximilian in Mexico.

After the last remnant of the guerrilla band had been hunted to earth, Halley escaped to one of the commands under General Joe Shelby, which was then making its way to a point on the Brazos River, in Texas, with the expectation of making a final attack upon Federal forces and supplies at Corsicana.
