THE LOGIC OF SELFINESS.

Domingo R. Castillo, former Venezuelan Undersecretary of State, vigorously asserts that the attitude of certain European Powers toward Venezuela has been a mere diplomatic pretext to determine another issue of international moment.

SLANDERING BUSINESS AND LABOR.

Trying to bolster up its narrowly partisan opposition to the recent bond proposal, the Globe yesterday plunged into the most insulting attack which the business men of St. Louis have ever suffered in a newspaper.

Preparing the Lawn.

The lawn is one of the most important features in all landscape and home ornamentation. Success depends more upon the spring treatment than that given at any other time.

News From Venice.

George Ade recently heard that an old lady from the neighborhood in Indiana where he was born was in town on a visit to a granddaughter.

our attitude toward the South American Republics; but the European nations may be expected to view it as he does, rather than to subscribe to the theory of "rights," as stated by Rapallo.

The lesson to be gleaned, the thought which is impressed, by every consideration of America's future international relations is that we require ships to maintain our "rights." Even under the old Monroe Doctrine, which left the Orient to others and permitted the Powers to collect their bad debts below us as best they could.

PROGRESS STEADY AND LASTING.

Thirty commercial, civic, industrial and improvement associations lately formed a union for the advancement of St. Louis. Finding a common basis for co-operation to promote the general welfare of the city, they merged their influences and began acting in harmony to a common purpose.

St. Louis cannot, particularly at this time, tolerate any blunders which would open a period of retrogression. The opportunities which exist as a result of intensified public spirit must be utilized that St. Louis may progress in season and take an honorable position as one of the greatest among the leading American cities.

RECENT COMMENT.

Missouri Wins Applause.

Because of its relationship to the administration of Governor Folk the session of the Missouri Legislature that closed a few days ago was of special interest, committed as it was to the elimination of legislative corruption and to a general programme of reform.

Philosophy of Eating.

Sunset Magazine. Too many cooks spoil the broth, but they don't reduce its price on the bill the water brings you.

WOMAN'S CLUB MUSICAL.

The St. Louis Woman's Club has issued invitations for a musical in the club-house next Saturday afternoon.

AUTHORS' CLUB MEETING.

The Authors' Club met last Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Lola V. Hayes, No. 312 Brantley place, with the president, Miss Marie Mercet, presiding.

EUCHEIRE IN UNION CLUB.

C. F. Meyer gave a handsome euchre party yesterday afternoon in the Union Club, entertaining about 100 ladies.

the proposition. Then it will be the "servitor of the plutocratic combine" and the "mouthpiece of the monopolists." The Globe has often gone before—witness the Public Library and other experiences—and is cowardly as well as inhumanly silly.

MUNICIPAL SALARIES.

Just a few words about the so-called "salary grab." During the boodle exposures, opinion was almost unanimous that the small compensation of $300 a year, which members of the Municipal Assembly receive, is in itself a temptation.

That was a good reason for giving the voters an opportunity to decide whether Assemblymen should receive larger compensation. During Mayor Wells's term he expended more money than he received from the city, being obliged to draw on his private resources.

The commercial, civic, industrial and improvement associations which ratified the plans for comprehensive, permanent betterment ought to stand resolutely by their original policy. Every plan which merited their sanction before still merits their approval; and every plan, when thoroughly understood, will appeal to the intelligence of all public-spirited citizens.

St. Louis is attuned to its opportunities. Whether opposed by outside enemies or resident enemies it will continue to go forward. The only obstruction which can seriously impede advancement, or seriously injure commerce and industry, is local, malicious antagonism to the city's best interests.

That party who found the $7,000 purse, bought champagne with the money and then blamed the owner for his bad habits, may not be grateful, but he at least illustrates the truth that money is usually better off in the hands of the man who has made it.

Frick, the big steel man, is going into politics, hoping to succeed Mark Hanna as the big boss of the G. O. P. Certainly a big steel man ought to be valuable at election time. Frick's political sobriquet will probably be Silck.

Protest keeps up against the Rockefeller gift to the Board of Missions. Some of the protest is excellent and very reasonable—but some of it needs editing.

The exact meaning of a word is often exemplified in the affairs of life. The Globe at present demonstrates the definition of "demoralized."

If Togo's marines are at all superstitious they will keep well away from the "Admiral Nakhimoff," the fiercest named war vessel afloat.

A town "dry" in spots must be also very "wet" in spots.
