CZAR'S POLICE ROUT ANTIWAR ASSEMBLY AT ST. PETERSBURG

With Drawn Swords Charge Is Made on Crowd of 5,000 Persons at Pavlovsk Gardens.

CRIES OF "DOWN WITH WAR!"

"We Have Had Enough Blood" Shouts Multitude in Proposing Eulogy to Victims of Naval Fight.

TROOPS AWE THE PUBLIC.

Officers, First Driven From the Hall, Return Reinforced, and Succeed in Breaking Up the Meeting.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 4.—At a great demonstration this evening in the Pavlovsk Gardens, near Tsarskoe-Selo, the 5,000 persons present clamored for a funeral march in memory of the Russian sailors who had lost their lives in the naval disaster in the Sea of Japan.

The members of the orchestra became alarmed and fled from the platform, when M. Novikoff, former Mayor of Izk, rose and said:

ORDER BEING RESTORED, A NUMBER OF SPEECHES WERE DELIVERED ON THE NATIONAL CRISIS.

Suddenly the police, re-enforced to between 200 and 300 again invaded the hall, and rushed on the audience with drawn swords. The people defended themselves with chairs and sticks, but after ten minutes were driven from the hall into the garden, where there was a battalion of traitors, who raised their rifles to fire being given, causing a panic.

THE PUBLIC FLED TOWARD THE EXITS, AND, FINDING THEM CLOSED, SMASHED THE DOORS AND WINDOWS OF THE HALL, AND SO GAINED THE STREET.

Many persons were injured, some so seriously that they had to be taken to a hospital.

M. NOVIKOFF WAS ARRESTED AND THE GARDENS WERE OCCUPIED BY POLICE AND COSACKS.

A strong military force was placed on the road leading from Pavlovsk to Tsarskoe-Selo and St. Petersburg, and at the railway stations.

PEOPLE RETURNING TO ST. PETERSBURG FROM THE GARDENS SPREAD ACCOUNTS OF THE AFFAIR WHICH SOON BECAME A GENERAL TOPIC.

Pavlovsk is nineteen miles from St. Petersburg, and is a summer resort for inhabitants of the capital. Concerts are given in the gardens three nights a week, and a fashionable audience largely composed of people from St. Petersburg.

NAN PATTERSON QUILTS THE STAGE

Discouraged by Much Severe Criticism, Girl Accused of Murder, Goes Back Home.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.

ALTOONA, Pa., June 4.—Discouraged by the adverse criticism that has greeted her re-appearance on the stage, following her recent trial for the murder of Caesar Young, Nan Patterson Patterson, broken in spirits and disheartened, severed her connection with the "Romance of Panama" company, with which she was traveling, last night, and left early today for her home in Washington.

MISS PATTERSON, WITH BROKEN VOICE AND TEARS IN HER EYES, IN AN INTERVIEW JUST BEFORE SHE BOARDED THE TRAIN, SAID:

"When I went on the stage I adopted the city motto left me to earn a livelihood, and I am awfully sorry the people have so severely condemned me. I wanted to do right, and could see no harm in going on the stage, which is my profession. I owe thousands of dollars and don't know how in the world I am ever going to pay it by any other means."

"I BELIEVE THAT MUCH OF THE CRITICISM WAS DUE TO THE COMPANY WITH WHICH I WAS TRAVELING. IT WAS NOT SUCH AS EVERYBODY WOULD CARE TO PATRONIZE, AND OF COURSE I HAD TO STAND THE BLAME FOR IT. I REALLY DID NOT KNOW MUCH ABOUT IT WHEN I SIGNED A CONTRACT, AND RATHER THAN BEAR THE HARSH TREATMENT THAT I HAVE BEEN SUBJECTED TO I HAVE DECIDED TO LEAVE THE STAGE FOR A TIME AT LEAST."
