RACE RIOT IN NEW YORK; NEGRO SOLDIERS RESCUE NEGRO FROM CHICAGO MOB

Two Hundred and Fifty Po- licemen Are Required to Quell Battle on San Juan Hill.

MANY PERSONS ARE INJURED.

New York, July 14.—"San Juan Hill," the district bounded by Amsterdam and West End avenues and Sixty-first and Sixty-third streets, so-called because of its notoriety as a battleground, was the scene to-night of a furious race riot, which required 250 policemen to quell, after many shots had been fired and several persons had been seriously injured.

The trouble began shortly after 9 o'clock, when a policeman arrested Edward Connelly for attacking Henry Williams, a negro, and was pursued to the station-house with his prisoner by a mob of stones and other missiles. Williams, Connelly's friend, hurled showers of stones and other missiles at the police.

When the station-house reserves turned out the whole neighborhood was in an uproar, and negroes engaged in desperate struggles in the streets. Torrents of missiles were hurled from roofs and windows. Within ten minutes not less than a thousand men, boys and women, black and white, were engaged in furious combat.

The small party of police was powerless, and reinforcements were summoned. On their arrival a cordon was drawn around the whole district, and strong patrols made repeated charges down the streets in an effort to restore order. They succeeded in making a few prisoners, and were forced to retreat, firing every inch of the way, and pursued to the station-house by a howling mob.

MISSILES ARE RAINED FROM ROOFS AND WINDOWS.
The worst of the fighting was in Sixty-second street, where from every window and roof rained missiles, while hundreds of shots were fired. Home-man Patrick Walsh was knocked down by Joseph H. Smith, a negro, who leaped upon him from a stoop, and after attempting to shoot him struck him repeatedly with the butt of his revolver. Walsh was finally rescued by his comrades.

Inspector McLaughlin arrived shortly before 9 o'clock, and realizing how wide-spread was the danger, sent hurry calls for reserves from as far north as one hundred and Twenty-first street, and as far south as Leonard street, from the East Side and from the West Side. In all, there were more than 250 men under command of the inspector within twenty minutes.

THREATENED TO FURNISH AMMUNITION.
Squads of men were sent along the roofs of the houses in Sixty-second street, where the fighting seemed heaviest. They walked from West End avenue to Amsterdam avenue, clearing the roofs, and found that many chimneys had been torn to pieces to furnish ammunition to the rioters, and in the course of this work were found mounds of brick, pottery and bottles.

More arrests were made and several whites and negroes were rescued from gangs of assaults, but disorderly combats continued. Inspector McLaughlin and Captain Gallagher, while passing through, found Michael Jacoby, a white man, who was being held by two negroes, armed with tools. The negroes escaped. The rioting spread down to Fifty-seventh street and up to Sixty-eighth street, although the fiercest battles were fought between Sixty-first and Sixty-third streets. For more than half an hour cars on the city streets were blocked. Negroes were manhandled by whites, and cars were pushed and followed by showers of bricks and stones as they fled. Several windows in many cars were broken, and passengers took shelter to neighborhood houses. Conductors and motormen hid under seats, leaving their cars to the mercy of the mob. Several passengers were slightly hurt by stones and broken glass.

MRS. CHARLES F. JOY ABSENT FROM HOTEL

Wife of St. Louis Congressman Reported to Be Missing at Los Angeles.

WOMAN KNOWS WHEREABOUTS

Recent Ill Health of Mrs. Joy Referred to in Letters Home—Suffered From Nervous Affliction.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 14.—Mrs. Charles F. Joy, wife of Congressman Joy of St. Louis, is said to be absent from the Van Nuys Hotel, in this city, since July 4. A woman friend of Mrs. Joy says that she knows where Mrs. Joy is, but that for personal reasons Mrs. Joy does not wish her whereabouts to become known.

This woman is Mrs. Melvor Tyndall, wife of Doctor A. J. Melvor Tyndall, Doctor Tyndall says that he does not know where Mrs. Joy is, Mrs. Joy, he says, was his pupil in a psychic research class. Congressman Joy is registered at the Angelus Hotel. He arrived here on July 3, three days after Mrs. Joy is said to have been first missed.

When asked whether he knew where his wife was, Congressman Joy replied: "That is something I cannot talk about to anyone. I came here to settle a little matter of an overcharged dressmaker's bill for my wife. It will come up in court in a few days." H. G. Grant, a brother of Mrs. Joy, is registered at the Angelus with the Congressman. Mr. and Mrs. Joy came to Los Angeles several months ago, and after living at a hotel for several weeks rented a cottage at Pasadena.

Congressman Joy was called to St. Louis, but when he returned Mrs. Joy was reported as missing. Mrs. C. F. Joy was formerly Miss Elizabeth D. Grant and is well known in Washington, where she lived for many years. She is well known locally and in letters to friends here from acquaintances who have recently visited her, the idea of any family trouble in the Congressman's household is scouted.

In these same letters, however, it is said that she was greatly worried because of her ill health, and was suffering from a nervous affection which prostrated her at times. Mrs. Joy is now about 45 years old. Yesterday one of Mr. Joy's friends received a letter stating that he was much worried over his wife's health. Her illness had prevented Mr. and Mrs. Joy from going to the Philippines with Secretary Taft, Miss Roosevelt and party.

ENDS LIFE WITH HUSBAND'S POISON

Frank Niehaus Jr.'s Wife Drinks Drug Which He Declares He Had Intended to Swallow.

WOMAN DEAD WHEN FOUND.

Jeweler Acts Strangely After Quarrel—Asks for Police Protection.

Mrs. Minnie Niehaus, 22 years old, of No. 5644 Minerva avenue, ended her life last night by drinking cyanide of potassium, which her husband, Frank H. Niehaus Jr., says he poured into a glass only a few minutes before to take, his intention being to do the deed carried out by his wife.

A quarrel, which Niehaus says he and his wife had at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon, is said to be the cause of her suicide. The drug she took is of a most powerful nature and kills almost instantly. So powerful is the poison that physicians say they seldom use it in medical cases.

The first learned of Mrs. Niehaus having ended her life was when Frank Niehaus gossily walked into the home of Doctor William V. Loftus, No. 5671 Minerva avenue, almost directly across the street from the Niehaus home, and requested the physician to go with him to administer to his wife. He did not seem the least excited. Doctor Loftus declares, and intimates that his wife was only sick from an ordinary cause.

Doctor Loftus says he put on his hat and accompanied Mr. Niehaus to his home. They walked very slowly, Niehaus engaging the physician in pleasant conversation on the way over to his residence. After reaching the room in which Mrs. Niehaus was lying Doctor Loftus says he was startled to find the woman dead. Her body, he says, was cool, and it was evident that the woman had taken the drug that killed her some time previous.

Just how long before, however, Doctor Loftus says, he cannot say. After Doctor Loftus informed Mr. Niehaus that his wife was dead, he told the physician that she had taken cyanide of potassium, which, Niehaus said, he had prepared to take himself.

SON KILLS FATHER TO PROTECT MOTHER
Albert Wild, Residing Near Caseyville, Instantly Slays Parent With Shotgun.

Three loads from a repeating shotgun into his father's head and body, instantly killing him on the rear porch of their farmhouse near Caseyville, Ill., Albert Wild, a 20-year-old boy, then gave himself up to the authorities yesterday, claiming he had done the shooting to protect his mother.

Stating that George Wild, his father, had threatened to kill his wife and had started from the room, gun in hand as if to put his words into execution, the boy admitted that he had wrenched the weapon from his father, had thrown it into one corner and had grasped his own gun, just as his father seated himself in a chair on the rear porch.

GENERAL WOOD SICK IN HOSPITAL

Nature of Malady Is Not Made Public, Though It Is Said to Be Nothing Serious—Wife With Husband.

St. Petersburg, Fla., July 14.—General Leonard Wood is a patient there. Until tonight it had been denied that anybody of the name of Wood was in the institution. It was also admitted tonight that Mrs. Wood is with her husband.

The nature of the General's illness is a secret. The hospital authorities refusing to say a word as to his condition, the matron said one might draw his own conclusions from the fact that the General's physician has gone out of town. It is rumored that General Wood underwent an operation for an affection of the head. His brother, Jacob Wood, denies that the General is suffering from any serious malady. Mrs. Wood refused to make any statement.

FOUR TRAINMEN KILLED IN WRECK AT RICHLAND, IA.

Marshalltown, Ia., July 14.—Four men were killed and two probably fatally injured to-day in a freight wreck on the Iowa Central Railroad near Richland, Ia. The dead are: C. K. Williams, engineer; Jessie Long, brakeman; William West, fireman; Samuel Woolley, brakeman. The injured are: H. H. Beckman, fireman; A. C. of oil tank, the tank exploded and buried the bodies of the killed to a depth of several feet. The fire destroyed a bridge over a creek, where the wreck occurred, and buried six cars. All the victims lived in Oklahoma and had families. The train was running rapidly down a long grade, and at the bottom struck a sharp curve. Evidently the rails spread and the first engine went off the track. The second engine and six cars piled up in a heap on top of the first engine, burying the victims. Long and Woolley were instantly killed. West was fatally injured and burned. He died in a short time. Williams was frightfully scalded, and after three hours suffering, died in a hospital here.
