THAT TOBACCO CROP REPORT.

In its final report on the acreage and condition of the tobacco crop of the present year the Department of Agriculture admits that the acreage was greatly overstated in the preliminary report issued in June, and accounts for the misinformation thus spread abroad among dealers and growers by alleging three undetected errors in the computations.

MISSOURI DEMOCRATS.

If the Republicans have learned to carry Missouri they have not yet compassed the art of approaching politics truthfully. The moral element in politics is still lacking.

THE SUN'S GLARING ERROR.

Seeing it in the Sun is no longer absolute proof of the fact, we are grieved to note; but is only probable at most. In one of its erudite and disquisitorial surveys of things Western the revolving light is halted upon Nebraska, where the one prime topic of conversation now is the marvelous skill in pitching horseshoes lately displayed by the Honorable John T. Mickey, now serving his second term as Governor and tentatively a candidate for the United States Senate.

MISSOURI WAR MAP.

Germany, whence come far and away the best maps printed, has led the way again for military cartographers by producing war charts so small that a man may carry them in the palm of his hand. They are photographic reductions of ordinary maps, and a complete set will be issued to each officer, with a powerful microscope by the aid of which they can be read with ease.

While commending the present temper of leading Democrats The Republic reminds them that they are yet far behind the Republicans in their state of preparation.

It is not to that more erroneous suggestion that we address our objection, but rather to the Sun's express and crass and ignorant ignorance of the technical term "ringer." A "ringer" does not occur when the shoe "hangs on to the stake," assuming that the shoe on a horizontal plane could ever hang on to an upright stake, but occurs when the shoe has been thrown around or about the stake so that a straight line drawn across the heel would fairly include it.

Where the horseshoe merely leans against the peg—and we presume that the Sun means "leans" when it says "hangs on to"—there cannot be a ringer. We ask the Sun if it is a physical possibility for the shoe to "hang on to" or lean against the peg on its inner rim? A ringer counts three as the game is usually played; that being the highest count. A throw which results in a lean, or one of the Sun's "hang-on-to" throws, counts no more than one, provided, of course, that the other fellow's throw is not a "hang-on-to" also, in which case the throw is a tie.

PEACE CONSIDERATIONS.

It is to be hoped that the Kaiser talked some sense to the Czar at their meeting on the Polar Star, and that the Little Father's return to Peterhof will be marked by something like a sane recognition of the important fact that he is thoroughly whipped. Heretofore he has been a pathetic spectacle, unable to realize his helplessness. So little has he perceived the meaning of his broken series of naval defeats and military disasters that he has wholly ignored it in his plans for the future.

Arkansas is still arresting legislators suspected of hoodling in promoting the enactment of laws, but she, somehow, seems to lack the Missouri incisiveness in dealing with the culprits.

RECENT COMMENT.

Can Russia Pay? Saturday Evening Post. What is the security back of these thousands of millions which the Czar of Russia and the Grand Duke are borrowing to carry on their war with Japan?

Just Any Old Day. The celebration of King Edward's birthday this year on June 30, at all "home stations," and on November 9 at all other stations, is brought about by a curious coincidence of dates.

Purity and Pander. Six lilies turned to the West in a garden fair. And the south wind sowed in a jest. Some poppies there.

Down came a storm of hail in ruthless showers. And the sun looked wan and pale. For love of the flowers.

And when the sun grew bright he beamed and smiled. As a fond father might. On a stricken child.

The lilies like stately dames. Stood still and cold. But the poppies lay like flames. On the dark brown mold.
