

An Excellent Christmas Screen by the Emperor of Germany is one of the great features in Next Sunday's Republic.

Two Days Remain For Christmas Shopping. See Republic Advertisements for Attractive Bargains.

SUMMARY OF The St. Louis Republic Friday, December 22, 1905.

THE WEATHER. Slightly Cooler. For St. Louis and vicinity: Partly cloudy Friday; slightly cooler, with northwest wind.

Forecast for Near-By States. Washington, Dec. 21.—Forecast for Friday and Saturday: Eastern Texas—Generally fair Friday and Saturday, variable winds.

FEATURES OF TO-DAY'S NEWS. 1. Police Raid Sunday "Clubs." Chief Kiely to Be Deposed. Russian Strikes Worst Than War. Senate Reopens Old Feud. Lawson's Tactics Bewildering.

WANT ADS. On Pages 10 and 11. Birth, Marriage and Burial Records and New Conventions on Page 10. South Valley and Amusement Ads on Page 7. Various Advertisements on Page 2. Timetables on Page 11.

FOREIGN. Mr. Wm. Campbell, Russian Consul in New York, has been the first to reach the city after the leaflet attack on the Government on various occasions.

WASHINGTON. The House of Representatives today accepted responsibility for retention of Puerto Rico at Jefferson City.

CITY AND SUBURBAN. Judge calls a halt upon the wrangling of counsel in Leffler case. Checks of the leading hotels are each day for Christmas shoppers.

GENERAL DOMESTIC. The New York Superintendent of Insurance testifies before the investigating committee.

SENATE REOPENS OLD FEUD WITH WHITE HOUSE

Revolts Against the Executive's Assumption of Full Authority in Panama Canal Matters.

MEANS TO TAKE THE REINS. Demands That President Come Forward With Full Statement of Expeditions and Other Details.

"EXECUTIVE USURPATIONS." Republican Leaders Do Not Hesitate to Criticize Roosevelt on Every Possible Occasion—Breath Widens.

SPoonER'S ALARM OVER EXECUTIVE USURPATION. Washington, Dec. 21.—Senator Spooner of Wisconsin made stinging remarks in the open Senate on Tuesday upon the theme of "Executive Usurpation," when he said: "There seems to be a general feeling of indignation on the part of the people of this country, which is a tendency to be resisted, not encouraged."

Washington, Dec. 21.—The Senate's sudden reversion yesterday in executive session on Panama Canal matters creates the first open sore of this Congress in the old feud between the White House and the Senate, a feud that already has been active in chapters since Roosevelt became President.

SENATORS UNANIMOUS. The significance of the Senate's action lies in that the movement did not come from Democrats or from a few Republicans, but was taken unanimously. Moreover, as to the Senate's general protest, there is a widely held opinion among the Republicans as well as the Democrats, that of Maine and Kittredge of South Dakota, the best posted man in the Senate on isthmian subjects, Spooner already this session has begun making speeches on "executive usurpations."

TO MOVE FROM TOOLHOUSE. A. L. Carter, Columbia Student, Finds Rich Friend. Mr. Carter is a graduate of the University of Missouri. To perfect his education he came to New York. The position of night librarian at Columbia University, which pays him $10 a month, was his only financial resource.

POLICE RAID SUNDAY CLUBS IN WEST END

Attaches Five Liquor - Dispensing Institutions Are Arrested by Officers of the Eighth District.

TWO MINORS ARE TAKEN IN. General Charge Made Against Defendants in All Cases Is Selling Liquor Without License.

CRUSADE TO BE CONTINUED. Following Orders From Governor Folk, Police Become Active—Mulvihill Co-operating With Police Department.

"CLUBS" RAIDED BY POLICE. THOSE WHO WERE HELD. Central Club, No. 204 Walnut street; Charles Harris arrested. Modern Horseshoe Club, No. 209 Chestnut street; four arrested; Charles Johnson and Cliff Harrison held.

The "clubs" raided last night were the Occidental, No. 312 Locust street; George Massey and Herman Wasserman held, with two boys who are under age. West End Business Men's Club, No. 206 Olive street; George Coke arrested.

MULVIHILL CO-OPERATING. Excise Commissioner Mulvihill is co-operating with the Police Department in the crusade against the "clubs." There is every indication that the "clippers" will be the subject of a general investigation, and that all "clubs" which have been established to take the place of saloons, or as a means of getting around the provisions of the Sunday closing regulations, will be raided until they have been forced to quit business.

SHAW SAYS NO IMMEDIATE ISSUE OF BONDS IS CONTEMPLATED. Washington, Dec. 21.—President Roosevelt to-day signed the bill passed by Congress appropriating $1,000,000 for the Panama Canal.

WELL-KNOWN DETECTIVE SUSPENDED UNDER CHARGES.

DETECTIVE R. LEE KILLIAN, Suspended by Chief Desmond to answer charges of conduct unbecoming an officer.

WHOSE BODY WAS FOUND IN VAT?

Corpse Recovered From Medical Institution Not That of Wealthy Carpenter.

M'CARTHY IS IN CALIFORNIA.

Dead Man Is Now Supposed to Be H. E. McDowell—Mystery of Bank Books Remains Unsolved.

A sensational development in the case of H. E. McCarthy, whose body was supposed to have been picked in a vat at the American Medical College, Jefferson and Adams avenues, is reported from the home of the wealthy carpenter in Selms Grove, Pa.

LODGE MAY EXPEL MEMBER. Springfield, Mo., Dec. 21.—The murder of T. M. Kinney, a tailor, killed Wednesday night as he was entering his own yard, still remains a mystery. One arrest has been made.

PANAMA CANAL BILL IS SIGNED.

Shaw Says No Immediate Issue of Bonds Is Contemplated. Washington, Dec. 21.—President Roosevelt to-day signed the bill passed by Congress appropriating $1,000,000 for the Panama Canal.

KIELY'S HEAD IS NOW EXPECTED TO FALL MONDAY

Formal Charges Against the Chief Probably Will Be Preferred After Delayed Trial To-Day.

SCOURING CITY FOR WITNESS. Board Members in Conference With Desmond for Ten Hours, Adjourned at 1 O'Clock This Morning.

CREECY APPEARS FAVORITE. Kiely Will Have Forty-Eight Hours in Which to Answer Charges Before He Can Be Removed.

MARONEY SAYS INDUSTRY FAVORABLE AS THE BOARD. Vice President Andrew C. Maroney of the Board of Police Commissioners said last night: "There is perfect harmony in the board. All the members, without exception, are acting together and along the same lines. There is no truth in the rumor that there is friction between any of the members or between the President and the members."

Chief of Police Kiely will not be removed or reduced at the meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners to be held to-day. The reason is that, under the rules of the board, notice of charges must be preferred and served on Chief Kiely. He then has forty-eight hours in which to make answer and stand trial.

MULDER MYSTERY UNSOLVED. Springfield, Mo., Dec. 21.—The murder of T. M. Kinney, a tailor, killed Wednesday night as he was entering his own yard, still remains a mystery. One arrest has been made.

DISORDERS AT SHANGHAI ARE APPARENTLY QUELLED.

Shanghai, Dec. 21.—Order has been restored here. The Viceroy to-day settled the mixed court dispute, and the court will reopen to-morrow. American, British, German, Italian and Japanese soldiers are guarding the foreign legations and mounted volunteers are patrolling the roads outside the city.

MAINE'S GOVERNOR TALKS TO ST. LOUIS NEW ENGLANDERS.

Portrait by Strauss. GOVERNOR WILLIAM F. COBB, Of Maine, who spoke before the New England Society of St. Louis last night.

LAWSON'S TACTICS ARE BEWILDERING.

Assignment of Camp of Millions Would Not Surprise Boston Financiers—James Ambrose Statement. Boston, Mass., Dec. 21.—State attorney published to-day over "issue" statements signed by T. W. Lawson, one to the effect that people should keep their eyes on copper to-day, for if they rose he should be compelled to make an assignment for the benefit of his creditors.

FELL FIFTY FEET AND THEN WALKED TO THE AMBULANCE. Miraculous Escape of John Queenan After Fall From a Dizzy Height. As he was tumbling from a smokestack fifty feet high, at the Union Electric Light and Power Company's plant, at the foot of Bielle street, yesterday afternoon, John Queenan, a laborer, 29 years old, whose home is at No. 219 Middle street, turned three somersaults and then only broke his left arm and severely bruised himself.

BURIED BESIDE HIS WIFE.

Funeral of Judge H. D. Wood Is Held at Boston. Boston, Mass., Dec. 21.—Simple services were held over the body of Judge Horatio D. Wood of St. Louis, at the home of his son-in-law, W. G. Horton, No. 25 Braintree street, Alton, Mass., yesterday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

SECRETARY HITCHCOCK IS ILL.

Confined to Washington Home by Severe Cold. The Republic Bureau, Wyatt Building, 103 and F Streets, Washington, D. C., Dec. 21.—Allen Hitchcock, Secretary of the Interior, is confined to his home with a severe cold. Inquiries at his residence to-night resulted in positive assurances that Mr. Hitchcock is not seriously ill. However, his physicians have required that the Secretary keep within doors for a day or two. It is probable that he will not return to his desk at the department until after Christmas.

AGED MOTHER'S APPEAL WINS PARDON FOR CONVICT SON.

Albert Wilgig, Sentenced for Murder, Free After Serving Eight of Twenty-Five Years. JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Dec. 21.—Oscar Wilgig of St. Louis will leave the Penitentiary to-morrow a free man, after serving eight years of a twenty-five-year sentence. His mother, 85 years of age, made a personal appeal to the Governor in her son's behalf, and she was told by Governor Folk to-day that she might take her son with her to-morrow.

RUSSIAN STRIKE MORE TERRIBLE THAN THE WAR

Fighting Begins in the Streets of Moscow, Government Engineering Regiments Having Revolted.

PANIC IN ST. PETERSBURG. People Are Hurrying From the City, Which is Bristling With Troops, and Where Encounter is Imminent.

TELEGRAPHS TO BE TIED UP. Fifty Thousand Factory Hands Idle at the Old Capital, City in Darkness and Pickets Established in Many Places.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 21.—The single telephone wire working to Moscow this afternoon brought grave reports of further disorders and collisions between the troops and the populace. The strike in Moscow is on in earnest. Fighting is going on in the streets. One engineering regiment has revolted and gone over to the people. The strike commenced here to-day. People going long distances on the railroads are told that tickets are issued at their own risk.

PARANOID REVOLTS. From all over the country reports come of paranoias revolts. Count Bobinski's property at Bogoroditsa has been destroyed. Two German vessels belonging to the Hamburg-American Company, the Bismarck and the Eclair Wiedler, are being sent to Riga and Luga to take away German subjects. The Petrovsk Zemstvo has gone bankrupt, owing to the peasants refusing to pay taxes. Twenty telegraph wires have been cut and the rest may do so next moment. At Moscow the General Post Office narrowly escaped total destruction, an infernal machine being found just in time.

NEWSPAPERS TO CEASE. There will be no newspapers to-morrow beyond one published by the workmen, called the Workers' Official Gazette. In cold and blustering snow is blowing down uncomfortably from the roofs of the houses, while everybody is getting in provisions. A grand council was held at Tzarsoe-Belo yesterday, when it was agreed that the situation requires most rigorous measures to be taken. Life is much the same as usual, only every one is palpably nervous at the idea that in three hours St. Petersburg may be cut off from the world.

TELEGRAPHS CLOSED. According to a notice just posted up on all the telegraph lines except that to Brest are closed. The streets are full of military workmen, and strong military forces are being stationed in the courtyards of the houses. Drunken drivers are bantering as they do in the last hour's drive. At the telegraph office there is a guard of police and employees working, mainly pensioners. All the women and new hands lock ill at ease.

Odell Deposed as Leader. New York, Dec. 21.—Former Governor DeWitt C. Odell was deposed as leader of the Republican party in this State to-night, when at a meeting of the Republican County Committee Herbert Parsons, representing the alliance of President Roosevelt and Governor Higgins, was chosen president. This victory of the reform wing of the party was won after a night of bitter recrimination, during which Odell accused the President of betraying Frank S. Black as a candidate for United States Senator.