LAY ON THE TRACK.

Son of the Inventor Picked Up by a Fender. Waterbury, Jan. 11.—A trial of the Darrach fender, invented in New Jersey, was made on a trolley car at the West End this afternoon. A son of the inventor lay on the track in front of a car and was picked up smiling, yet muddy. Secretary A. M. Young of the Waterbury Traction company said he should not have permitted such a test to be made if he had known of it.

No Where Else

Except at Rogers', 799 Chapel street, can photos be obtained by the wonderful electric light apparatus. The work is elegant and made up to 9 o'clock every evening.

An Important Letter.

CORN & Co., DESIGNERS AND MAKERS OF LADIES' CLOAKS, Nos. 117 & 119 PRINCE ST., NEAR GREENE ST. T. CORN, P. MAGYARY, New York, Jan. 7, 1895.

Malley, Neely & Co., New Haven, Conn. Gentlemen: We have decided to accept your cash offer of 50c on the dollar for our entire stock and trust that in making this heavy loss it will give us an opportunity to do a large business with you in the future.

Our purpose in buying these garments, was to supply a certain style of Jackets to Ladies who have delayed buying and now, of course, expect lowest prices. Not before and not hence,—such an opportunity. Without doubt the largest shipment that ever entered New Haven at this season of the year.

Just three prices, $5.00—$7.50 and $10.00. Along with this brilliant offering, shall go the balance of our own high-class garments, (some of them retailing a while ago for $27.50) at $10.00 each.

The Palmer Cox "Brownies" have become a household word. Applied to Handkerchiefs, what they become? Let the children answer.

We sell the "Brownie" Handkerchiefs at about cost so that no child need cry in vain for one. Singly, 5 c. each. Set of six embracing 37 of the principal figures in the "Brownie" Band, 25 cents.

Sold hard by where the large concourse of Saturday Veiling shoppers congregate. Chapel St. Corner Entrance.

Last day of Men's Mackintoshes at special prices. $7.98 for $10.00 and $12.00 garments. When it comes to an argument for a Mackintosh we just shout to this last week's weather, "Go up head!"

Always the most and best of everything, that men put on their backs and fix up with. Neckties, handkerchiefs, collars, cuffs, suspenders, socks, gloves, handkerchiefs, etc. Men's Furnishings.

The regiment of Remnants are on dress parade every day in Daylight Square. Broken ranks, oh, yes. It means skirts and waists and girls' frocks at one fifth off first rates, on cloths as fine, as stylish and as perfect as they ever were. Short lengths, that's all.

If couldn't-be-helped reasons have hindered big, little, or even old girls from entering their Dolls for the Prize Doll Show, fetch them in Saturday. We'll try and make a place for them.

Night Hawk You'll find the "Night-Hawk Camera" at our Optical Counter. It's the best low-priced detective Camera made. Takes a clear-cut picture 4x5 inches, of anything you aim it at. It's arranged for either, time or instant exposures. Price, $3.98. Full instructions, easy as a primer, and one double plate-holder goes with each Camera.

Price-mitten Candy for Saturday. 500 lbs. of Cream Wafers, assorted flavors, 14c a lb. We don't sell poor Candy. Candy Counter.

Birds, Insects, Reptiles These names may have no charm for you. But if you see the objects and hear Prof. Schurr talk about them, information will be unfolded such as you never dreamed of.

What man or woman can be indifferent to the wonders of creative power? 50,000 such wonders are here to gaze upon, without charge.

Boys' Clothes First and foremost we consider the kind of cloth, the way they're made and the way they're finished.

After that, we whittle the price as small as we dare to. Saturday you can judge what sort of a fist we've made of it, by looking sharp at Suits marked $3.75, $4.00, $4.25, $4.50, $4.75, $5.00, $5.50.

Many customers have asked for the Messrs. Hopkins "Star Pants." We were able to get a few of them. Price 55 cents. Then there's a large lot of odd pants in our regular stock, 25 cents and up.

Cooking Cakes and serving them every day in the basement. Through this means, one can best test the quality of "Quaker Self Raising Buckwheat." The Cereal Cook Book and a set of 12 World's Fair Souvenir Cards with every package of Buckwheat flour ordered.

HOUSEKEEPERS' SALE. Wish we had the space to keep items and prices before you. Perhaps, like many others, you've clipped from the papers that "program" advertisement of ours.

If not, hunt up Sunday's, Monday's or Wednesday's paper. Better still, come straight to the Sale. We never fooled you, did we? Invest your money in some some of these shrunken priced, first-class Linens, Towels, Bedding, Crockery and Kitchen Implements.

If you are "stuck," we'll trade back. No risk about that, is there?
