

YESTERDAY'S DIVORCE MILL.

JUDGE WHEELER HEARD EVIDENCE AND RESERVED DECISION.

Marital Woes Alred in the Superior Court—Four Were New Haven Cases—Berk Business in Probate Court—Other Court Items.

It was late yesterday when Judge Ralph Wheeler in the superior court began the consideration of divorce cases. There were seven cases on the list, of which number five were brought by New Haven parties. The first case taken up was that of Mary E. Carter of Meriden, who asked for a divorce from her husband, George E. Carter, alleging desertion. The couple were married in 1881. Four years later George deserted his wife and three children, their ages now being thirteen, eleven and nine years respectively. After hearing the evidence in the case Judge Wheeler reserved his decision.

Decision was reserved in the suit brought by Edith A. Warren of Naugatuck for a separation from her husband, Frank W. Warren. The ground on which the divorce was asked was habitual intemperance. They were married in May, 1881. As all the evidence in the case was given by relatives, Judge Wheeler decided to reserve his decision.

Judge Wheeler also reserved decision in the suit brought by Christiana Anderson against her husband, Niles Peter Anderson. Both are Swedes and resided in Stony Creek, where they were married May 24, 1891. At that time Mrs. Anderson had five living children by a former husband. Three weeks after marriage Anderson deserted his new wife and her five little ones and since that time has remained among the missing.

Ira M. Keeler of Schenectady, N. Y., through her counsel, E. C. Dow, asked for a divorce from her husband, Wilbur A. Keeler of this city, on the grounds of desertion. The alleged desertion occurred four years ago. The evidence was all submitted, but Judge Wheeler reserved his decision.

The divorce suits of Elizabeth Donovan against Walter J. Donovan and of Ida M. Babcock against Arthur E. Babcock, both of this city, were continued until next week, owing to the lateness of the hour. Not a divorce was granted yesterday by Judge Wheeler.

MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE. Judge Wheeler granted Patrick Ryan judgment to foreclose a mortgage of $1,200 held by him on property of John Proctor and located on Grove street, annex.

Probate Court—Judge Cleaveland. In this court yesterday a hearing took place upon the application of William R. Peters & Co. of New York to force George H. Burgess, the owner of the barytes mill on Brewery street, into insolvency. Burgess owes Peters about $2,000. No objection was made to the application and Burgess was declared insolvent. The hearing on the appointment of a trustee will take place to-day.

INSOLVENT ESTATE. Frank M. Dibble of Naugatuck was appointed trustee on the insolvent estate of J. M. Dibble of Chapel street, this city. An effort is being made to effect a compromise with creditors on the basis of twenty-five cents on the dollar.

VOLUNTARY ASSIGNMENT. O. C. Coggins & Co., manufacturers of carriage tops and trimmings at 444 Elm street, filed a voluntary assignment, naming Henry C. Collins for trustee. The liabilities are estimated at $1,000 and the assets at $800.

PHORBATING OF A WILL. Notice was also filed by counsel for ROUGH ON TOOTHACHE. Instant relief. Rough on Fits and Hysteria. For nervous irritability, wakefulness, the severest forms of nervous headache, hysterical and epileptic tendency, convulsions, fits, delirium tremens, "Jim-jams," horrors, hallucinations, etc., see Druggists or mail order. FRANK H. CLAYTON OF BOSTON, MASS., TO THE EFFECT THAT HE WOULD CONTEST THE PROBATING OF THE WILL OF HIS GRANDMOTHER, MRS. MARY CLAYTON. THE ESTATE IS SAID TO BE WORTH $200,000.

City Court—Criminal Side—Judge Cable. William Loshoff, reform school complainant, continued until January 29; Charles A. Hunt, embezzlement, continued until February 2; Charles B. Bates, non-support, continued until February 15; Cornelius Reynolds, violation of city ordinance, judgment suspended; Alfonso Martino, non-support, bond of $125 to guarantee payment of $3 a week to his wife; James Kane, begging, judgment suspended; William Walter Wilroy, theft, $7 fine, thirty days in jail, $6.24 costs; Peter Moran, reform school complainant, continued until February 28; Frederick Miller, reform school complaint, nolle; Henry Laast, reform school complaint, committed.

THE CASE OF CHARLES A. HUNT OF BALDWIN PLACE, WHO IS CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLING $1,000 FROM HIS EMPLOYER, RAYMOND G. BALDWIN, THE GROCER OF WHALLEY AVENUE, WAS AGAIN CONTINUED YESTERDAY MORNING AT THE REQUEST OF THE ACCUSED UNTIL FEBRUARY 2. THE STATE IS NOT YET FULLY PREPARED, AS MR. BALDWIN HAS NOT FULLY FINISHED HIS INVESTIGATION INTO THE EXTENT OF THE YOUNG MAN'S PECUNIARIES.

It is expected that the friends of Hunt will endeavor to settle the case. THOUGHT IT A LONG TIME TO WAIT. A judgment of foreclosure was granted to Patrick Ryan against James Proctor of the annex yesterday morning by Judge Ralph Wheeler. Ryan sold a piece of property on Grove street, annex, to Proctor for $1,400 some time ago. Ryan understood that he was to receive $100 a year on the purchase until it was paid for. Proctor paid that amount for the first year and then stated that his understanding was that he was to pay only $25 a year. Mr. Ryan figured up that it would take sixty-four years at that rate to pay principal and interest, and he decided to foreclose. The time for redemption was fixed at April 1.

J. E. Hubinger was granted a foreclosure against Presentus Brothers upon property on Minor street. The foreclosure is only nominally against Presentus, a man named Wilfred Thompson having purchased the property. There are three mortgages aggregating $3,500.

FINAL LITIGATION OVER THE BASSERMAN BREWERY PROPERTY. The Farmington Savings bank of Farmington, Conn., through their attorney, ex-Judge S. A. York, has begun foreclosure proceedings against the Basserman Brewing company property. The bank holds a first mortgage on the property of $20,000, taken out July 19, 1893. Last July the trustee of the property, John B. Manning, defaulted the interest, which amounts to $500, hence the foreclosure proceedings.

There is a second mortgage of $95,000 held by John V. Hayes and John T. Holley, both of New York. This mortgage was obtained August 8, 1894. Besides these there is an attachment of $5,000 placed on the property by James E. Ramsey of New York December 4, 1893, through his attorney, Jason P. Thomson.

The property includes the brewery plant and residence of the late Colonel George Basserman. The lot extends 824 feet on Rock street and 290 feet on State street, and includes a part of East Rock.

After the death of the late Colonel Basserman, about five years ago, the property passed into the hands of a joint stock company. About two years ago the company assigned and has since been in the hands of a trustee.

The case is returnable to the superior court this morning, Tuesday, in February, when Attorney Thomson will move for a decree of sale.

SOUTHINGTON. Jan. 25.—The board of relief has finished its work and has made a good job of it. Friday was a good day to go hunting on the snow. The weather was just right and the dogs liked it.

The borough may be called upon to consider the sewer question about the middle of February. There has been a paragraph in one of the papers stating that the trotting park has been rolled down. It is to be hoped that there will be some trotting there this spring.

Some one of the season ticket holders of the St. Thomas fair will win a $20 gold piece. The sleighing is as good as it has been this winter. There has been no day in six weeks better to be out doors in than Friday. The sun was bright and the air was tempered to make it fine, and anyone who could was out.

Mr. T. H. McKenzie has made his report of survey of sewers to the warden and burgesses, and it will be business for the board at their next meeting. The mill hands will be back at work Monday.

The racing from the green north a half a mile and back has been worth watching the past few days with good trotters out, everyone of them, and owned by a lover of horses each. The fair opened on Thursday evening. It will be held each night the rest of the month, and there will be a play presented on Wednesday evening. This should bring a good number to the hall. People from other towns will be at the fair each night next week.

Edward Lowrey is in the postoffice a part of the time, and is learning the work of the office. PERSONAL. Arthur M. Drummond, Yale '94 S., son of A. M. Drummond, superintendent of the public schools of West Haven, has received an appointment to a position in the expert department of the General Electric company at Schenectady, New York.

Twenty-nine of last year's track athletic team are still in college. The Princeton University Chess club has challenged the Yale Chess club to compete in a series of correspondence games.

YALE-PRINCETON WRESTLING. In addition to the program which has already been published for the Yale-Princeton gymnastic exhibition to be held here on February 27 it has been decided to have a contest in wrestling. There will be three classes: Light, middle and heavyweight. Those who will contend in these events will be chosen by competition, which will be held about a week before the exhibition takes place.

All desiring to enter this competition are requested to hand their names as soon as possible to H. B. Lee, '95. TRACK ATHLETIC TEAM. The following is a brief summary of the men now in college who have been prominent in track athletics and from whom this year's team will in the main be chosen. The events and men are as follows: 100 and 220 yards dashes—Richards, Pond, Gillette, Burnet, Wade and Bennett; 440 yards dash, Pond, Chubb, Jordan and Gerard; half mile run, Woodhull and Lapham; mile run, Morgan, Wadhams, Beathard and Scoville; two mile bicycle race, Alling, Hill, Peck, Hedrick and Parmelee; high jump, Sheldon, Cady and Thompson; broad jump, Sheldon and Mitchell; pole vault, Thomas, Kerchow, Allen and Brett; shot put, Hickok, Brown and Colt; hammer throw, Hickok, Chadwick and Cross; mile walk, Thrall.

YALE FOOTBALL PLAYERS. The following is supplementary to the article which appeared in last Saturday's Yale News on the occupations of college football players: Howard H. Knapp, '92, end rusher on the Yale teams of 1891 and 1892, is a prominent lawyer in Bridgeport, of which city he has been a citizen. He is a member of the firm of Seymour & Knapp. Robert N. Corwin, '87, was end rusher on the Yale team of 1885 and 1888 and captained the eleven in the latter year. He has taken the degree of Ph. D. since graduation, and at present is an instructor in the Sheffield Scientific school.

Ray Tompkins, '84, one of the Yale forwards of '81 to '83, and captain in the last two years, is a successful wholesale grocer in Elmira, N. Y. W. T. Bull, '88 S., Yale's full back in 1885 to '87, is editor of the amateur athletic department of the New York Mail and Express. W. Winter, '93, Yale's tackle in 1890-'92, is connected with western railroad interests at St. Paul, while his fellow tackle, A. H. Wallis, '93, is a lawyer in New York.

F. W. Wallace, '89, the grand end rusher for Yale of 1886, '87, '88, holds an important position in the manufacturing plant of Wallace Brothers, at Ansonia, Conn. Lucius F. Robinson, '85, end rusher on the '84 Yale team, has gained much prominence in public life and in the practice of law in Hartford.

H. B. Twombly, '84, quarter back for Yale in 1882 and 1883, is a lawyer in New York. M. H. Martin, '86 S., full back on the Yale team in 1884, is an officer of the Marine Arms company in New Haven. W. W. Heflinger, '91 S., the phenomenal guard, is in the shoe business in Minneapolis.

NEW BOOK BY PROFESSOR LADD. Professor Ladd of Yale has just issued from Scribner's press a book entitled "Philosophy of the Mind." It discusses problems suggested, but not discussed in his earlier works, which are descriptive in their character, and is a treatise in metaphysics in the more special meaning of that term. The work contains twelve chapters, the principal topics discussed being: The Relation of Psychology to Philosophy; Reality and Unity of the Mind; Problems of Personal Identity and Double Consciousness; Relation of Body and Mind; Problems in Dispute Between Dualism and Monism; Materialism and Spiritualism; Origin and Permanence of the Mind; Place of Man's Mind in Nature. The work will be found of special value to advanced students in philosophy. The price of the book is $3, and it will be on sale at news stores throughout the city and at the Co-op.

NOTES. Hartwell '89 S., assisted Captain Armstrong in coaching the university crew candidates Thursday afternoon.

Rev. George A. Gordon, D. D., of Boston, lectured in Marquand chapel at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon on "Christ in the Faith and in the Pulpit of To-day." He will lecture again this afternoon at the same time. A valuable collection of minerals and insects has been presented to the Peabody Museum from the estate of Edward Norton '44, of Farmington, Conn. C. G. Clarke '95 is ill with pneumonia.

Arthur W. Bell '97 has returned to college. W. B. Wood '97 S. has been taken to the infirmary. Those who desire promenade dance orders for souvenirs may now obtain them at the Co-op, for 50 cents. An excellent photograph of the interior of the armory was secured by electric light just before the promenade Wednesday evening.

Of the members of the Sheffield senior class who have received preliminary appointments nineteen are from the state of Connecticut, nine from New York, three from Illinois, and one each from Indiana, California, New Jersey, Missouri, Texas, Kentucky and the District of Columbia. A large picture, handsomely framed, comprising photographs of the Yale, Harvard and Princeton baseball teams for the season of 1894, together with individual photographs of the Yale players who took part in any of the championship games, has been hung in the trophy room of the gymnasium.

Trainer Goldie of Princeton has been in town to confer with Mr. H. C. Anderson in regard to the arrangement of the apparatus for the Yale-Princeton gymnastic exhibition to be held here February 27. Thirty-seven men have thus far signed the list placed at the Co-op for those Sunday evening trials from New York. Eighty-seven additional signatures are necessary to insure the addition of this train to the regular schedule.
