Hyperion. This evening John L. Stoddard will deliver the fourth lecture in his course at the Hyperion. With the exception of Switzerland no European country in Europe can vie in scenery with Norway, and in the latter country may be had unique experiences not found elsewhere, among which is the strange spectacle of the midnight sun.

Grand Opera House. The return of the Wilbur opera company to the Grand for a week's run was favorably inaugurated last evening, a mammoth audience being present.

"The Black Hussar" was given in an excellent manner. The old faces were cordially welcomed. There was only one change in the cast, Claude Amaden took the place of James Donnelly, who was last seen in the part of Hackenback, the magistrate of Tautendelf.

Miss Eloise Mortimer, the prima donna of the company, made a bewitching Minna and sang the part delightfully. Miss Mortimer will be seen in leading parts during the week. W. H. Kohline in the comedy role of Pitkow convulsed the house with merriment.

PALE, THIN AND EMACIATED PEOPLE.

The country is full of them. They do not know what it is to feel well like other folks. Medicines of all kinds have been tried without good results. Cod Liver Oil and the preparations of Malt have all failed. What is the reason? These emaciated people cannot digest starchy foods. The fat of the body is produced with bread, potatoes, and other starchy food.

You can buy it at any drug store. Send your name to The Pre-Digested Food Co., 30 Reade st., New York, and get their interesting pamphlet.
