

EASTER DAY IN FAIR HAVEN

HOW IT WAS COMMEMORATED IN THE CHURCHES.

At the Grand Avenue Congregational Church—At the Methodist Church—At the Baptist Church—Sunday School Exercises—Second Church—At St. James and Grace P. E. Churches—Other News.

Easter was celebrated in all the churches. Owing to the rain the morning attendance was smaller than usual, but the programs were carried out substantially as prepared.

Rev. J. Lee Mitchell, at the Grand Avenue Congregational church, preached in the morning on "O, King, Live Forever." The decorations prepared one week ago for the Sunday school cantata remained. The pulpit platform had been built out, and there was a beautiful display upon this platform.

Christ Our Passover—Marsh Prayer of Invocation. Congregational Hymn. Scripture reading. Hosanna—Granier Prayer. Offertory—All Hail to the New Risen Lord—Solo for Soprano.

At the East Pearl street M. E. church the new pastor, Rev. S. G. Cheney, was present in the morning and preached an excellent Easter sermon.

Following is the program: Organ Prelude. Anthem—Jubilant Deo. Scripture Reading. Hymn—Our Lord is Risen. Invocation. Anthem—Jesus Christ is Risen.

There was a pretty floral display at the Grand Avenue Baptist church. The Easter lilies, geraniums, petunias, with palms, were effectively arranged around the pulpit platform.

Prelude—Fantasia—L. N. Bartlett. Processional—Welcome Happy Morn—Schnecker. Christ Our Passover—G. W. Marston. Te Deum (Festival in D)—Buck. Jubilate in B flat—Buck. Hymn 102. Kyrie: Gloria Tibi—In F—Spahr. Hymn 98. Offertory—Sing Alleluia Forth—Buck. Sanctus: Hymn; Communion Service; Gloria in Excelsis—in F—B. Tours. Postlude—Fugue—Alex. Gullmant. William J. Kraft, Organist and Director.

In the afternoon the annual festival for the children of the Sunday school was held. Easter was observed in a very appropriate manner at Grace church.

There was a large attendance at all the services in St. Francis' church yesterday morning. In the afternoon an excellent program at the vesper service was given and there was a large attendance.

Yesterday morning the Fair Haven and Westville road started the first car from Fair Haven at 6 o'clock and at the same hour a car from Westville. At 6:06 a. m. a car left from the west-end West Chapel street.

The meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held yesterday afternoon in the East Pearl street M. E. church.

Beautiful Flowers—One Hundred and Fifty Persons Received Holy Communion Easter offering amounted to $1,500—A Large Attendance.

On account of the rain the early services at St. Paul's were not as largely attended as usual. There was a good congregation at 6:30, at morning prayer.

The church was well filled at 10:30 in spite of the rain. The Easter anthem, "Christ Our Passover," by Chapple; the Te Deum, Haydn in C, and the offertory anthem, "As It Began to Dawn," by Foster, were finely sung.

Some Very Unfashionable Ideas—What a Disgusted Tourist Really Thinks—The Climate There No Better Than That of Connecticut—Better Scenery Around New Haven.

The Editor of the JOURNAL AND COURIER: Bermuda is fashionable; Bermuda is a fad. The climate of Bermuda is delightful because it is fashionable to think so.

The next day was so cold that I could not go without a spring overcoat. The next day I could scarcely wear it in the forenoon, and could not leave it off in the afternoon.
