Grand Opera House. There was a great scare among the depositors of the wrecked bank, Percy and Harold, last evening at the Grand opera house, but the officials were enabled to secure a large loan and the bank will be open this evening and tomorrow afternoon and evening for business.

Some very enjoyable musical numbers are introduced during the three acts. The supporting company is above the average. Miss Gilberte Lenock as Mele Man, a female book agent, was most acceptable, and Clara Belle as Harty Writer well portrayed her role.

Denman Thompson and George Ryer's well known drama, "The Two Sisters," will be presented on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday next week. It is a neat, clean, enjoyable play throughout, well cast and beautifully staged, and the characters and scenes introduced are true pictures of New York life.
