YACHTING NOTES.

The Annual Opening Sail May 20th—Boats to Take Part.

The local yachtsmen are now looking forward to and preparing for the annual opening sail and race on Memorial day. Following are the boats and their owners who are listed to take part in the event:

Wild Pigeon, Commodore Holcomb; Diana, Captain Hinman; Rival, Captain Dickinson; Ceres, Captain Parish; Phantom, ex-Commodore Parmelee; Captain Burwell's new sloop Niagara; Captain Ketchum, Seabell; Captain Seymour, Io; Captain Hastings, Neva; Captain Fleck, Agnes; Captain Morgan, Starlight; Captain White, Edith; Captain Beach, Aris; Captain Warner, Iona; Captain Eaton, Arli; Captain Cannon, Cypress; Captain Sargent, Dare-Devil; Captain Andel, Flora; Captain Hammer, Thalia; Captain Zink, Castania; Captain Beecher, Mercury; Captain Durham, Muriel.

The time of the yachts as they leave the anchorage and as they arrive at Branford Point will be taken by the club steamer and a handsome prize will be awarded the winner, time allowance not considered. At Branford Point the yachtsmen will partake of one of Captain Swift's famous shore dinners. The committee in charge, Messrs. North, Foskett and Elliott, have made arrangements to seat over two hundred guests. The return will be made at 4 p. m. The yacht club has extended an invitation to the Naval Militia of this city to join with them in the opening sail. The invitation has been accepted and about twenty-five of the Naval Militiamen will sail down in the sloop yacht Clarence, flying the flag of the National Naval Militia which was recently presented to the division.

The official announcements are as follows: NEW HAVEN YACHT CLUB. Annual Opening Sail, Thursday, May 20, 1895.

The committee are pleased to announce that complete arrangements have been made for dinner at the Branford Point house. Dinner will be served at 1 p. m. Tables seating twelve persons each, with ample number of waiters to ensure prompt service, will be provided. A steamer has been chartered for the accommodation of those not otherwise provided. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance of members and friends.

George P. North, W. A. Foskett, Jr., Lewis A. Elliott, Committee. General Orders No. 1—Mr. William Russell Clark is hereby appointed fleet captain.

H. S. Holcomb, Commodore. May 15, 1895. General Orders No. 2—Captains participating in the sail to Branford Point on opening day, Thursday, May 20, will observe the following orders: 1. The fleet shall be at anchor off the club house at 9 a. m.

2. A gun fired from the flagship at 10 a. m. will be the signal for the hoisting and saluting of the colors by the fleet at the club house. 3. At 9:35 a. m. wind and weather permitting, a gun will be fired from the flagship and the signal, prepare to get under way, hoisted. At 10 a. m. a second gun will be fired and the signal, get under way, given. The fleet will then be in review of the flagship and proceed to Branford Point, leaving New Haven light on the port hand.

4. Leaving Branford Point, the signal, prepare to get under way, will be hoisted on the flagship thirty minutes before the signal, get under way, is given. Following the latter the fleet will proceed at once to the anchorage off the club house, leaving New Haven light on the starboard hand. By order of Commodore H. S. Holcomb. W. R. Clark, Fleet Captain. May 15, 1895.

FUNERAL OF JAMES G. ENGLISH Took Place From His Late Residence Yesterday and Was Largely Attended. The funeral of James G. English took place from his late residence, 78 Wall street, yesterday afternoon and was attended by a large number of relatives and other sorrowing friends, among them many of the business men of the city. The funeral services were conducted in accordance with the beautiful and impressive ritual of the Episcopal church by the Rev. William A. Beardsley, rector of St. Thomas' church, with which for many years the deceased had been prominently connected.

The remains were encased in a handsome black cloth casket, imbedded in a bank of roses and lilies of the valley, and lay in the parlor of the house. There were flowers in profusion, among them being handsome pieces from members of the family and close personal friends. At the head of the coffin stood a magnificent wreath of lilies, and all around the room were wreaths of roses, palms, smilax and ivy. There was also a handsome floral piece from the employees of the firm of English & Merick, of which the deceased was the senior partner.

Among those present at the funeral were the directors of the New Haven County National bank, of which for years Mr. English was president and a director, and other prominent business men and citizens. The employees of the firm of English & Merick also attended the obsequies in a body.

The interment was in the Evergreen cemetery. General S. E. Merwin and ex-Postmaster Benjamin R. English had charge of the funeral arrangements and the honorary bearers were Henry D. White, Ezekiel G. Stoddard, ex-Governor Charles R. Ingersoll, Edward C. Beecher Joel A. Sperry, Wallace R. Fenn, Willis E. Miller, Samuel A. Galpin and ex-Mayor Samuel A. York.

Among the prominent citizens present at the funeral were Charles S. Leete, Dr. C. A. Lindsay, James D. Dewell, Frank H. Hooker, George H. Barnum, W. H. Moseley, General George M. Harmon, Frank T. Lee, Thomas Hooker, Collin M. Ingersoll, George B. Martin, E. H. Kimberly, Dr. C. Purdy Lindsay, R. A. Brown, J. H. Lewis, Edward Hall, George Bishop and A. B. Beers.

At a meeting of the directors of the New Haven County National bank held on Saturday last, the following minutes were passed, and a copy of the same, signed by all of the directors, will be sent to Mrs. English: It is with feelings of the profoundest sorrow that the directors of the New Haven County National bank meet today to take official action upon the death of James G. English, a director of this bank from 1870, and its president from 1876 to 1890.

Mr. English's mind was clear, discriminating and acute, so that he readily saw and decided all matters that came before him. His moral perception or right and wrong was keen to discern any subtlety. He had a calm decision of character that gave authority to his opinion on all business matters, and both as president or director he won the unquestioned respect and confidence of his associates.

In his private life he was the devoted and loving husband and the true friend, with a memory for the past history of New Haven and its citizens that made him ever a most charming companion to all.

He passed suddenly and peacefully from this life to that of the better life beyond with the love and respect of all who knew him.

Inadequate as these words are, for language ever fails to express the deepest feelings, we desire to enter these minutes upon the records of the bank, and request the secretary to send a copy, signed by the board of directors, to Mrs. English.

Fire in a Fruit Store. An alarm of fire was rung in from box 23 at the corner of State and Crown streets about 11:20 Saturday night.

The fire was found to be in the rear of the wholesale fruit store owned by William H. Tuttle of No. 203 State street. Sergeant Cook and Officer Colwell were standing at the corner of State and George streets, when a young man came running up and said there was a fire in Tuttle's fruit store. Upon investigation Sergeant Cook found smoke and fire shooting out from the rear of the fruit store. The flames spread to the second story, which is occupied by W. A. Plueger and R. C. Henze, sign painters.

The fire was soon got under control and aside from the loss from damaged fruit the damage will not be great. Chief Kennedy expressed an opinion that the fire was of incendiary origin. The exact loss could not be ascertained. The students were out celebrating Yale's victories in large force and swooped down upon the scene of the blaze in great numbers and behaved hilariously, but made no trouble nor disturbance.

G. A. R. The members of Admiral Foote post are planning for an excursion and outing at the State Soldiers' home at Noroton some time this summer, probably in July.

A Novel Entertainment. The Boys' Brigade connected with the Church of the Redeemer, will give a military drama (in full force) at the Sunday school rooms of the church on Thursday and Friday evenings. The play has been written by a talented New Haven artist, and has many humorous points. It is said to be very entertaining. The proceeds will be for the better equipment of the company.

Hillhouse Boys Defeated. The Hopkins grammar school baseball nine defeated the Hillhouse high school nine Saturday morning by a score of 13 to 7 in five innings at Yale field.

WON BY A SINGLE RUN.

Yale Defeats Princeton in a Hard-Fought Game—Carter and Trudeau in Form—The Game Was Very Exciting, and Was Well Played From Start to Finish—A Pitcher's Contest.

For the first time in a number of years what is known among Yale men as the fatal seventh inning to the blue was productive on Saturday of good luck, for during that inning Yale captured the only run that was made to the game with Princeton.

The contest was one that tried the souls of the collegians. For nine innings the two teams fought a glorious battle, and not until the last man was put out did the Yale men breathe in comfort. Over four thousand people witnessed the game. The grand stand was full of spectators, the bleachers were crowded, hundreds lined the diamond at every vantage point, and the place assigned to the carriages was completely filled.

The blue of Yale waved jauntily in every quarter, and the delegations that had been selected to do the cheering for the home team were as vigorous in lung power as ever, sending wave after wave of cheering encouragement to their representatives on the field.

Princeton had a big following from New Jersey on hand, too, and it was not lacking in those boisterous characteristics that help to brace the favored team. For that matter every brilliant play—and there were a number of such scattered through the game—was rewarded with a demonstration such as all enthusiastic college boys are capable of.

The great Carter was in the pitcher's box for Yale and that made the Yale men happy. It had been whispered about the campus for a day or two that he might not be in condition, and his appearance was greeted with a demonstration that must have flattered the tall twirler. But when he retired in the sixth inning on account of a disabled arm the hopes of the Yalestans received a shock. They were doubtful about Trudeau, who succeeded him, and it was a critical time in the game in which to put the fortunes of the Yale nine on a substitute pitcher. But Trudeau surprised everybody with his clean cut, splendid work, and put up a pitcher's game that can be placed alongside that of Carter.

Princeton went to the bat first, amid a tremendous cheer. Payne got to first base on an error by Rustin, the Yale shortstop. That was as near to making a run in that inning as Princeton came, the two men who followed Payne going out on strikes, and the other before he reached first. The Yale side met with about the same treatment. In the second inning Redington made a brilliant catch for Yale that seemed good for two bases. It was the distinguishing feature of that inning. Another event that provoked a wild outbreak of joy among the Yale followers was the splendid catch by Spear of Ward's long drive over left field. The hit looked good for three bases.

The play up to the seventh inning was clean and sharp on both sides, Princeton showing up in a form that was hardly expected by Yale. In the seventh Altman struck out, Otto went out on a fly to Redington, Williams struck out. For Yale Trudeau sent a fly to Bradley that was neatly taken. Stephenson knocked another to Easton that was easily caught. Quinby got his base on balls. Then came the unexpected. Spear, with the cheers for his great catch in the third inning still ringing in his ears, went to the bat and smashed the ball out of reach of the Princeton fielders, and Quinby, like a deer, ran around the bases and crossed the plate. Spear was put out right at the plate.

THREE MORE DEPUTIES. High Sheriff Spiegel's Appointments. Sheriff-elect Charles R. Spiegel Saturday announced the appointment of three more deputy sheriffs and also a physician at the jail. The new deputies are George T. Burton of Branford, formerly an employe of the lock works of that place, but now engaged in agriculture; Adelbert F. Bradley of Derby, at one time chief of police in Shelton, but now connected with the Sterling Organ company of Derby; William A. Booth of Wallingford, a liverman.

For physician at the jail Sheriff Spiegel has appointed Dr. Robert E. Peck, a son of Captain Leonard H. Peck, one of the best known Grand Army men in this city.

Dr. Peck has been at Bellevue hospital, New York, the last year and comes highly recommended. Sheriff Spiegel will probably soon appoint a deputy for Guilford or Madison.

RIGHT OF WAY OBTAINED. To Extend the Line to South End. The New Haven Street Railway will extend their line from Morris Cove to South End. Papers have been made out by Attorney Roger F. Baldwin, giving the company the right of way through the old Lighthouse property, which belongs to the Miseses Siles of Southbury. The negotiations were consummated through the real estate agent, F. E. Hurlbut.

SCOTLAND

Sends her greeting to you in the shape of "Scotch Ginghams." Same quality as sold here at 25c. Same make, same patterns, only more of them. These are the identical Ginghams sold by Arnold, Constable & Co., New York, in their retail department at 25c. An over surplus stock in their wholesale department prompted us to buy these at a big reduction from import prices. We offer them to you at 15c yard. A better bargain never graced our shores. We advertise these for Monday, but may not receive them before Tuesday.

ANOTHER GREAT Bargain. We bought 100 pieces Striped, Fancy and Plaid Piques. These have been sold right along, and are now, at from 25c to 45c a yard. Styles are very desirable, particularly for Shore Dresses, Mountain Suits and Tennis Suits, or Shirt Waists. Our price will be an "eye-opener," as no one would suppose we could buy these so they could be sold at our price, 12 1/2c yard. We advertise these for Monday, but may not receive them before Tuesday.

NOVELTY DRESS Goods. It is extremely doubtful if there ever was a bargain placed on sale to equal the one we name here. We claim, and rightly too, that the all wool 40-inch Novelty Dress Goods bought by us last Thursday, to be delivered Monday—or Tuesday at the latest—is the grandest value the ladies have ever had offered them. 50c was the latest price these goods were quoted at. Our price, while they last, 32c yd.

LACES. We purchased a lot of laces at "E. S. Jaffray's" Auction Sale in New York. Through stress of business they were only delivered Saturday. Will put on sale Monday at half regular prices.

15 PIECES ALL PURE Silk Black Laces, identical pattern sold elsewhere at 25c, sale price 12 1/2c yard.

10 PIECES ECRU Oriental Laces, regular price 20c, sale price 12 1/2c yard.
