Advertising Rates. Situations, Wants, Bids and other small advertisements, One Cent a Word each insertion. Five cents a word for a full week (seven insertions).

Go away from home to get the news. "St. Paul's" a weekly paper published in London, says that in the State of Albany, U. S. A., there is a stringent law against big hats in the theater.

Emperor William has just sent an oil painting of a naval maneuver to the Berlin Academy of Arts. It will not be rejected by the hangers. The artist's name, "Wilhelm I. R., 1895," is prominent among the waves on the right.

An Englishman and a German in Chicago are partners in a new business which they advertise as a Watchdog Exchange. They will be prepared soon to sell dogs trained for watching, or the dogs may be engaged by the month, week, or night.

Alonzo B. Miller, a farmer of Lyons, Nebraska, has begun suit against the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha Railway company for $75,000 for failure of the company to whistle for each crossing. For such failure a Nebraska statute imposes a penalty of $500, and Miller noted 1,878 times on which the engines passed the crossing without whistling from May 4, 1894, to August 3, of the same year.

The commissioner-in-chief of the negro exhibit at the coming exposition of the cotton States, to be held in Atlanta, is out in a manifesto in which he sets forth the extensive preparations that have been made for a great exhibition of the mercantile, manufacturing, educational and agricultural progress of the colored race.

The Berliner patent which the court of appeals practically sustained in its reversal of Judge Carpenter's decision adverse to its validity, may be attacked on another side. In the Bate refrigerator case the supreme court decided that a patent "granted for an invention which had previously been patented in a foreign country" shall expire at the same time with the foreign patent previously granted.

The Reformed Episcopal Church on Euclid avenue. But even they have ritual. One remembers the time when the present pastor of the Reformed Episcopal Church had two large hearts hung on parallel wires over a couple he was marrying, and as he pronounced them man and wife the wires were pulled and the two hearts seemed to become one.

SQUELCHED. The beautiful old Green is not to be disgraced and defiled by what the Register graphically calls an "iron emergency tank." The strange plan to so defile and disgrace it was promptly and effectually knocked in the head last evening at the meeting of the Committee on Squares.

ENCOURAGING. At last there are indications that conservative New Haven is actually waking up to the necessity of doing something about the dust nuisance. It is high time. Thousands of sufferers from the nuisances who have long hoped to see a general and thorough awakening of that kind have died without the sight.

RELIENTLESS FATE PURSUES US ALL. And fills our hearts with folly; For I love you and you love John, And John loves distant Molly.

WHILE CHARLIE BENDS HIS GAZE ON NELL, Who swears she loves me only; And thus the circle grows complete Wherein each heart is lonely.

SOME IMPRESSIVE FACTS. If Dr. G. De Saussure, of Charleston, South Carolina, is right, the negro problem will be greatly simplified within the next twenty-five years in a way that has not been considered.

IN HIS CONVENTION ADDRESS the other day Bishop Leonard (Episcopal), of Ohio, denounced as traitors not only broad churchmen, but ritualists. Certain ritualists in the diocese are indignant at the attack upon them, which they regard as undeserved.

Dr. De Saussure finds the reason for the greater mortality of the blacks in their bad habits and the prevalence of consumption among them. This fell disease carries them off by hundreds, though it was scarcely known among them in the days of slavery.

FREAKISH HATS and Make-Believe Bonnets. The latest freakish rule in millinery cuts away the whole side of the wide brim of a hat and substitutes outspreading stiff bows of ribbon. These bows, or rather loops, stand out like the spokes of a wheel, and may be bent up and down in an erratic and becoming manner.

standing where they will is all preference, for all the upper ones are wired into carefully considered positions. Hats of this sort are made of fancy straw, with wide and slightly rolling brims of contrasting color and braid that are taken up in back and fastened against the low crowns with a full bow of ribbon.

"Yes," said one woman, "I have my mind made up that I will have a journalistic career." "What duties will you undertake?" asked the admiring acquaintance. "I'll be an exchange editor. I did think that I'd write editorials and edit the political news. But I've concluded to do exchange work.

Why She Took Clothescapins. "What are dried cherries a pound, please?" she asked as she stood in the open door of the grocery.

THE DIGNITY OF A Scotch Bailie. To toss one's cap in the air in the presence of a Dundee bailie is evidently a very serious offense. At the police court last week a laborer named Anderson was convicted of an unprovoked assault on a woman by striking her several blows in the face, cutting her lip and knocking her down.

ROCHESTER BIER. An office boy attended at the collector's office on the last day for paying income tax.
