105. First Gentleman (entering the apartment of second gentleman)—About a year ago you challenged me to fight a duel. Second Gentleman (eternally) I did, sir. First Gentleman—And I told you that I had just been married, and I did not care to risk my life at any hazard. Second Gentleman (thoughtfully)—I remember, sir. First Gentleman (bitterly)—Well, my feelings have changed; any time you want to fight me, I am ready.

106. The Rev. William H. Kidd of the Mary Taylor M. E. church has been elected a delegate to the National Epworth League convention to be held at Chattanooga, Tenn., in July.

107. June 15 will be observed as Memorial day by the members of Wopowage lodge, I. O. O. F. The services will take place in the afternoon, when the grave of each deceased brother will be decorated. In the evening the members of the lodge will attend the Mary Taylor M. E. church and listen to an address by the Rev. Mr. Kidd.

108. Extra efforts are now being put forth to purify the morals of this old town in one respect at least. For years the notorious Switch house, located in Yaleville, opposite the depot, in that place has carried on its nefarious business. Raids would be made occasionally, but still the business continued. An element in the community of Yaleville is determined this business shall be broken up. On last Good Friday a raid was made on the place, and it cost those caught there quite a sum. Last Sunday night another raid was made, and besides John Beck, the lessee of the place, and Sarah Burns, who run the house, five girls were found there also.

109. At 5 o'clock yesterday their cases came up before Judge Hubbard, and all hands pleaded not guilty. A continuance was made until 2 o'clock. In the afternoon they changed their pleas to guilty, and in view of the fact that Beck promised to give up the business at that place, although he stated he had a lease of the place that did not expire until several years, Judge Hubbard was lenient with the prisoners. He fined Sarah Burns $50 and $25 costs, John Beck $10 and $25 costs, the other five girls were each fined $10 and $25 costs. The total will figure up $179.25, which was paid.

110. The heavy shower of rain here yesterday afternoon had a cooling effect on the atmosphere, and there was quite a corresponding drop in the mercury, much to the relief of many.

111. A meeting of the Clerical club will be held next month on the second, in Saybrook with the Rev. Mr. Hart.

112. The team found in New Haven early Sunday morning belonged to Mrs. A. Ryan here. The team was stolen about 1:30 Sunday morning.

113. AS OF OLD. Men want to Live Long, be Strong Happy, Love and be Loved. AND THEY MAY!

114. THE SECRET DISCOVERED. "Make it known!" "Make it known!" "Make it known!" "Tell it to all men!"

115. AS OF OLD. So write a happy man, fresh from the blough of life, the discovery has been proclaimed but men are slow to believe.

116. The way is open to inquire, to investigate. Why will not every man do so? There is a simple way to cure at home all those baneful effects of the sins of youth and the excesses of later years which blast the lives of multitudes of men.

117. There is a way to regain strength lost by disease, overwork and worry. A way to secure and retain the abilities sacrificed to dissipation—to be glad again after suffering and alienation.

118. A way to repair drains on the system that sap the vitality. A way to replace nervousness, dread and despondency with courage and self-reliance. A way to give full strength, development and tone to every portion and organ of the body.

119. A way to remove every obstacle to happy and fruitful married life. All this is clearly shown in a little medical work recently published. It is not a book for general circulation, being purely medical and scientific and for men only who need advice and aid.

120. How to get it: Write to the Erie Medical Company, Buffalo, N. Y., say you read the article in this paper and ask them to send you the book called "Complete Manual, and the Way to Attain It." They will send one copy entirely free in a plain sealed wrapper to any man who writes for it at once in good faith.

Quite a number of the W. R. C. will visit the Soldiers' home in Noroton tomorrow.

These are the jurors selected at the meeting of the selectmen and justices of the peace yesterday: W. R. Cook, Z. P. Beach, J. N. Allen, W. J. Francis, H. C. Burghoff, W. C. Loomis, C. R. Lamb, J. McKenzie, N. E. Hall, W. H. Bartholomew, G. W. Cook, G. A. Hopen, H. W. Andrews, J. R. Campbell, S. Williams, J. P. Stevenson, H. B. Todd, J. A. Hall, G. I. Williams, J. B. Mix, M. O'Callaghan, W. Burr Hall, J. O. Hoach, D. W. Burke, J. J. Myers, W. E. Rose, J. H. Padlock, James Barnes.

The marriage of Frederick M. Cowles, son of Robert H. Cowles, and Miss Charity Bishop of Worcester, Mass., will take place in this city tomorrow.

Miss Carrie McCaughy returns home from Smith college a week from Saturday.

This evening the borough officers will hold a meeting.

Last evening Compass lodge worked the third degree upon one candidate. Besides it being the official visit of District Deputy Woodford of Naugatuck, there were others from sister lodges in Meriden, Cheshire and Northford.

This evening there will be an interesting pool match in the Amaranth club rooms in Meriden, the occasion being the third match between the St. John's club of New Haven and the Young Men's T. A. B. and L. society of this place. Each club has won a match.

First Gentleman (entering the apartment of second gentleman)—About a year ago you challenged me to fight a duel. Second Gentleman (eternally) I did, sir. First Gentleman—And I told you that I had just been married, and I did not care to risk my life at any hazard. Second Gentleman (thoughtfully)—I remember, sir. First Gentleman (bitterly)—Well, my feelings have changed; any time you want to fight me, I am ready.

FACE LIKE A BURN

Bloody Water Oozed Out Constantly. Sufferings were Terrible. No Peace Day or Night from Itching and Burning. Doctors Failed. Cured by CUTICURA.

My child's disease, which was the worst kind of Eczema, started on one cheek like ring worm, it spread and itched so the poor little fellow had no peace night or day. Then it started on the other cheek and chin, until all were raw as a piece of beef-steak, like a burn where you would rub off the skin, and bleed and scald under constantly. His sufferings were terrible. I tried his hands that he would not scratch, then he would rub his poor little cheeks on his shoulders to relieve the intense itching. I had no good doctor as was in Philadelphia, but he failed to relieve him. I read of the CUTICURA, and at once purchased them. Strange to say, and very strange, I ceased without scratching his face, and from that on he improved and soon was entirely cured. I would like anyone suffering from this terrible disease to see my boy now; his complexion is as clear and smooth as can be. This is an unqualified testimonial, and every word is true. I thank God for my child's recovery, and I thank the manufacturer of CUTICURA.

HOUSE CLEANING TIME. Is not only trying and laborious to the good housewife, but also "a trifle unclean" to the "lord of the manor," who misses many little attentions which he receives when "everything" is not "pulled up" and "put somewhere" where "one can't find it."

Since ROOT, the Famous Baker, Introduced his Celebrated QUAKER BREAD. House-cleaning time has lost much of its "terror." Fortified with a good breakfast, of which Delicious Quaker Bread is one of the articles of consumption, good health and spirits are sure to render the work "a labor of love" and the "man of the house" also feels so pleasant that he finds himself involuntary wishing "Home, sweet Home."

June 3.—The entertainment to be given at Clintonville chapel is to take place on Tuesday evening, June 4, instead of Wednesday evening, as was printed by mistake. The reputation of the Clintonville ladies in furnishing good things for the tables is a sufficient guarantee that this strawberry shortcake will be as good as can be found anywhere.

Children's day will be observed at the Congregational church next Sunday. Members of the Sunday school will take part in the morning service, with recitations and singing. The sacrament of baptism will be administered to those children who brought for the purpose.

Mrs. C. B. Maginness is reported seriously ill. Her daughter, Miss Carrie, is taking care of her.

The reception given by Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Bradley in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary was largely attended, between seventy and eighty friends braving the hot weather to pay their respects to Mr. and Mrs. Bradley. The house was a bower of evergreens and flowers and presented a very inviting appearance after a drive in the heat. Mrs. Bradley was dressed in the costume of twenty-five years since, wearing a long wedding dress that was as attractive as then. The guests chatted and partook of light refreshments without any formality and it was
