A Drowning Case.

Gulfport, July 15.—An Italian, name not given, employed at Hughes Brothers & Bang's quarry at Sachem's Head, was drowned yesterday while in bathing off the quarry pier.

N. E. O. P.

Charter Oak Lodge, No. 188, Meeting Tonight. The grand warden, accompanied by several of the grand officers, will make an official visit to Charter Oak lodge this, Wednesday, evening, July 17. It is hoped that every member of the lodge will attend this meeting, and by their presence show their unabated interest in the order and their pride in the lodge, which, if not the leading lodge in numbers, has by its efforts done as much for the prosperity of the order in this city as any other.

The Gould Suit.

New York, July 16.—The papers in the motion of Mrs. Zella Nicholas Ruhman for a preliminary examination of George Jay Gould of New York before the trial of her suit to recover a $40,000 check were submitted to Judge Lippincott in the Hudson county court, Jersey City, to-day, by ex-Senator William T. Hoffman on behalf of Mrs. Ruhman and R. V. Lindabury of Elizabeth, of counsel for Gould. Judge Lippincott took the papers in the case and reserved his decision.

Bodies Horribly Slashed.

Havana, July 16.—A family comprising six persons, a man, three women and two girls, living at Cayajabos, near Artemisa, in this province, were attacked by five negroes last night and the two girls were murdered and two of the women seriously wounded. They used knives and machetes. The bodies of the girls were horribly slashed. All of the miscreants were pursued and captured by the civil guard.

Kissed Her Counsel.

Laplat, Md., July 16.—The jury in the case of Mrs. Belle Farrell, charged with murdering her husband by poison, returned a verdict of not guilty, this afternoon. Mrs. Farrell threw her arms about Colonel Wilmer, one of her counsel, and kissed him.

He Died at Sea.

Quarantine, S. I., July 16.—Rev. Dr. Arthur Brooks, brother of the late Phillips Brooks and pastor of the Church of Incarnation at Thirty-sixth street and Madison avenue, died at sea at 6 a. m., July on the steamer Fulda, the primary cause being tumor of the duodenum. The body was brought to this port. Dr. Brooks was accompanied by his wife, Dr. G. Schmauch, the surgeon of the Fulda, suspected cancer, but as he did not perform an autopsy he could not say positively whether this diagnosis was correct.

All May Return to Work.

Amesbury, Mass., July 16.—The management of the Hamilton mills will open the gates of the spinning mills Thursday morning, July 18, when it is expected that all of the spinners will return to work, although it is thought by some of the striking weavers that they may stay out in sympathy with them. The weavers who are at work have got ahead enough to enable the company to take this action.

TO REMOVE STONE POSTS.

Make Room for Baby Carriages on Wooster Square. Alderman Hamilton, Councilman Peck, Harry Leigh and John Ruff appeared before the committee on squares last evening to urge the rights of women, babies and children. They asked that the committee grant the petition for the removal of the stone posts at the entrance to Wooster Square so that the baby carriages may have easy access to this down town breathing place. After hearing the claims of the petitioners, the committee voted to recommend the removal of the posts.

Rubber Trust Advances Wages.

Bridgeport, July 16.—Late yesterday afternoon General Manager Blanchard of the Rubber trust visited the plant in Newtown and caused to be posted a notice that, beginning to-day, the wages of all the employees would be increased an amount equal to one-half the reduction of 1893, and the company pledges itself to a full restoration of wages on the old scale as soon as business warrants.

THE NORFOLK BURGLARY.

One of the Gang Believed to Have Been Arrested. Norfolk, July 16.—There is a growing belief here on the part of the authorities and the populace that George Maher, who is under arrest in Great Barrington, Mass., is intimately connected with the burglary of Winthrop Cone's store here last week. Maher was arraigned before Judge Townsend yesterday and held for a further investigation. He is known to have been in northern Connecticut last week.

Blood Vessel Bursts.

Frank McCormick, janitor of Shanley's building on Congress avenue, had a blood vessel in his left arm burst while walking on Wooster street last night. He had his arm bandaged at a house and walked to police headquarters. Dr. Klenke sent him to the hospital.

BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE.

International Convention to be Held in Baltimore This Week. The fifth international convention of the Baptist Young People's union of America will be held in Baltimore, beginning to-morrow and ending next Sunday. It is expected that there will be no less than 12,000 delegates present. They will go from all parts of the United States and Canada. A large delegation will go from this state. The main delegation, made up of parties from various parts of the state, will leave this city this (Wednesday) morning at 9:35 o'clock, arriving in New York at 11:30 o'clock.

JULY DIVIDENDS.

Should be invested in DIAMONDS at the well known establishment of SILVERTHAU & SONS, 700 Chapel Street, the Diamond experts. They are lower than Now is the time to invest. Headquarters for Wedding Gifts. Established 40 years in New Haven, Conn.

GULFPORT.

A Home Destroyed by Fire. Gulfport, July 16.—The two-story dwelling house near the depot owned by A. G. Sommer, caught fire at 2:45 yesterday morning. The house was occupied by Mrs. Richard Benton and her three children. They were taken out safely, but the house with its contents, was totally destroyed. There was no insurance on the furniture. The house was worth $2,000 and was insured for $1,500. It is thought the fire originated by the explosion of a lamp, which was usually left burning in the sitting room through the night.

State Board of Charities.

Hartford, July 16.—The state board of charities held a meeting at the capitol to-day, an adjournment being taken to July 31, until which time the old organization will be continued. A general discussion of laws passed by the legislature was had, that members of the board might become familiar with their provisions when they go into effect. Members of the board present to-day were Misses Mary Hall of Hartford and Bacon of New Haven, Messrs. Tracey of Meriden, H. C. Whittlessey of Middletown, and George F. Spencer of Deep River.

Will Use a Bicycle.

Salt Lake, Utah, July 16.—Private S. H. Webber of the Sixteenth Infantry, stationed at Fort Douglas, this city, left here yesterday for Washington, D. C. He will make the entire trip by bicycle and bears despatches from General Penrose.

Council of Honor Resigns.

Paris, July 16.—The Council of the Legion of Honor have resigned in consequence of the action of the chamber of deputies in adopting an interpellation calling upon the government to introduce a bill to reorganize the council, because of their retention of M. Eiffel upon the membership roll after the disclosures connecting him with the Panama canal swindles.
