Adj. Gen. Graham of the Connecticut National Guard has issued the following orders in relation to long service medals, uniforms and the pay per diem of members of the National Guard:

Adjutant General's Office, Hartford, Conn., July 17, 1895. General orders, No. 14:

I. Commandants of the different organizations of the Connecticut National Guard are hereby directed to make requisition on the quartermaster general through the adjutant general's office for long service medals to be issued to those members of their command who have rendered faithful service in the Connecticut National Guard for periods covering ten, fifteen and twenty years. All requisitions must be accompanied by the application and the certificate of each officer and enlisted man entitled to said medals. Term of service may be computed by the aggregate number of years' service in the Connecticut National Guard, not necessarily consecutive. Medals will be issued after August 12, 1895, in accordance with an act authorizing the granting of long service medals by the commander-in-chief to the Connecticut National Guard. Said act becoming operative August 1, 1895.

Officers of the Connecticut National Guard purchasing new dress coats will conform in pattern to the above described bill of dress. Officers who may have in their possession serviceable undress coats of the old pattern will be permitted to wear them until further orders.

"WILL SWING FOR THIS."

Thus Spoke Holmes, Suspected Slayer of the Pielzet Children.

Philadelphia, July 17.—H. H. Holmes, alias Herman Mudgett, the New Haven, Conn., man, has, according to the district attorney, virtually confessed to the murder of the two Pielzet children, whose bodies were found in the cellar of a Toronto house.

It was learned to-day at the office of the district attorney that during the two hours' interview Holmes had yesterday with three members of the district attorney's staff he said: "I suppose I'll swing for this."

This is the only remark dropped from his lips which in any way would tend to criminate him, and the district attorney takes this as a practical admission of Holmes' guilt.

His counsel says that Holmes was not in Toronto when the Pielzet children were murdered. This, he states, can be proved by Mrs. Howard, Holmes' third wife.

Toronto, July 17.—The inquest on the bodies of Elie and Nellie Pielzet was opened last night. Evidence was taken as to the finding of the bodies, and then the jury adjourned until to-night to await the post-mortem report of the medical men entrusted with the examination of the bodies.

Detectives Geyer and Cuddy are hard at work. They have discovered the expressman who took the trunk, which has invariably accompanied Holmes in all his journeys, into the St. Vincent street house, and this man had no difficulty in picking out Holmes' photograph from a number of others.

The Late B. Rogowski.

The directors of the New Haven Retail Dealers' association Tuesday presented the family of the late Bernard Rogowski with an engraved copy of the resolutions passed by them at their recent meeting on the death of the deceased.

The resolutions were engrossed in book form in a very artistic manner and were handsomely bound in crushed tawny.

AT ELM CITY DRIVING PARK

RACES TO BE HELD THERE TOMORROW.

Project to Hold Races All Through the Summer and Fall—Old Days at Hamilton Park—Men of Note in Former Days Interested in Good Horses.

It has now been definitely decided to hold races at the Elm City Driving Park to-morrow and it is not at all unlikely that a series of races will be held during the rest of the summer and fall perhaps once a week, if the races to-morrow meet with the proper support and patronage. Some of the best horses in this city and from neighboring towns also will, with proper encouragement, be secured for the contests, and if sufficient encouragement is given horses may be brought here from some of the great national racing centers. It promises to be very nice trotting and will be conducted in the best possible manner. The idea is to revive in some measure the old time celebrity of this park. Of course no pools will be sold, so the races will simply be exhibitions of speed.

The movement reminds one of the old days of racing when the present Elm City Driving Park was known as Hamilton Park. The late General Nye, who was for many years well known as a clothier in this city, was accustomed to preside at the races, as one of the judges or to drive some fast trotter. Also among those who used to either drive at the park or have their horses there were Charles Crutenden, the late Charles Chase and Samuel Crutenden of this city, and the late Charles Dickerman of Centerville, who drove and won many races in the old park; also Mr. Pratt of Bradley & Pratt of the old "Corner Hat Store." There was also Jarvis Joslyn, who seldom failed to have a good horse in the races and so there is every reason to hope and believe that the project will be a great success. Hubinger brothers, who own the park, are very much interested in the success of the enterprise, and are the leaders in the movement for races in this city.

A BEAUTIFUL MEMORIAL WINDOW TO THE MEMORY OF THE LATE EDWARD HEATON.

St. Thomas' Protestant Episcopal church has been made richer by the gift of a beautiful memorial window, erected by Mr. Edward Heaton, in memory of:

EDWARD HEATON, August 22, 1811—December 30, 1894. This work of art was designed by a native of New Haven, Mr. Edward P. Sperry, who is one of the associate artists of the Tiffany Glass and Decorating company of New York, the makers of the window.

It is a single lancet window, in which St. John, the Divine; the Beloved Disciple, is represented, holding in his hands the Book of the Gospel, upon which is inscribed the words: "And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world," which at his feet is the well-known evangelic emblem, the Eagle.

The composition, arrangement of color, effects of light and shade, are very beautiful; the figure is dignified and devotional. The drapery is particularly interesting and very naturalistic. We are told the glass used in this portion of the work is prepared especially for the end in view, that there is in the glass itself actual folds, which have been taken advantage of by the glazier in the clothing of the figure of the Evangelist.

The material used in the making of this window is Tiffany Paville glass, a variety made to particularly meet the requirements of colored windows, and is the result of a series of experiments, the outcome of a careful study of the chemistry of the subject, instituted by Mr. Louis C. Tiffany.

The custom of erecting memorials to the dead, which is becoming so universal, will undoubtedly have a great effect upon the future of American decorative art, as these memorials almost invariably take the form of either an entire building, or of the embellishment of some portion of an existing one. Windows in churches particularly lend themselves to this form of recording the affection and remembrances of the living to those that have gone before.

MARRIED MEN AND BACHELORS.

A ball game will be played on Friday, July 19, at Savin Rock, between the married men and bachelors of F. M. Brown & Co. A lot of humorous athletic sports, open to all amateurs in the city, have also been arranged. They will consist of three legged races, potato and wheelbarrow races, tugs of war, etc., and to attract sympathizers to the baseball event, they have issued tickets which includes round trip fare, admittance to games and refreshments for twenty-five cents. They wish to secure a fearless umpire for this game who will be paid well and guaranteed police protection.

LAIN AT REST.

Funeral of William Hauff.

The funeral of William Hauff occurred yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home of his brother, John A. Hauff, at 487 Orange street. Rev. I. C. Meserve of the Davenport Congregational church, officiated. The interment was in the family lot in Fair Haven cemetery. The pallbearers were George Bishop, Harry Kullenger, Louis Britcher, George Betcher, John Boyce and John Wilkinson. Mr. Hauff had until recently been staying at Saranac Lake, N. Y. Two weeks ago he returned to New Haven, as it proved, to die, all efforts to restore his health being unavailing. The floral tributes at the funeral were numerous and beautiful. Among others were a handsome pillow of La France roses, with a large bunch of white and cream roses and wreaths.

THE ERICSSON'S HARD LUCK.

Another Explosion on the Torpedo Boat—Five Men Badly Scalded.

New London, July 17.—The worst accident that has yet happened to the torpedo boat Ericsson occurred to-day. She went out on the sound for a run when a steam pipe burst, shockingly scalding five men.

Steamer Cactus happened to come near and brought the men to this port, and to the hospital. Two of the men may be fatally burned.

The Ericsson's career since leaving her maker's hands has been one long series of accidents. She was built in Dubuque, Ia., by the Dubuque Iron works, and at the completion was towed from the Mississippi to its mouth, then up the coast to New London.

Since reaching this place she has had no less than seven trials to determine her speed, and on each of these occasions something has gone wrong. First it was some sort of trouble with the bearings of her propeller shaft. Second—An eccentric strap broke. Third—a circulating pipe gave out and so on.

Each failure necessitated a long delay that repairs might be made and each failure entailed much expense to both government and the boat's builders. So many flukes have occurred to the boat that sailors have come to look askance at her, and one naval officer, high in rank and an expert in scientific and mechanical matters, did not hesitate to say last fall after her failure, that the acceptance of the boat by the government would be little short of a crime. It was expected that the Ericsson would develop at least twenty-four knots an hour at to-day's trial.

Swelger's License.

The county commissioners yesterday afternoon heard the remonstrance against the application of N. Swelger for permission to transfer his license at 375 State street to his father-in-law, Fred Bruner. Constance A. Moeller was the remonstrant. The transfer was granted.

Republican Club Meeting.

About twenty-five applications are on file to be balloted upon and several other important matters of business to come up. The idea of running an excursion has been talked about considerably by some of the members lately, and this matter will be thoroughly discussed at the meeting. Full information as to the various places, also dates and rates, is being obtained. Let every member who can be present at the meeting.

A LIVELY DAY AT LAKE SALTONSTALL.

Yesterday was a lively day at Lake Saltonstall. There were four church picnics at Glen Grove park, and the little steamer "Toted," the big barge, Gov. Saltonstall, up the lake and back in fine style, the barge laden to overflowing with happy children, happy fathers and mothers and other happy folks. The picnic parties were the Sunday schools of three Episcopal churches, the Church of the Ascension, All Saints mission and St. James' parish, and the mothers' circle of the Ladies' Wednesday day was one of the loveliest of mid-summer, with but little of the usual mid-summer sultriness, and the lake never looked more beautiful, especially when the mountain that flanks it on the west side, cast its deep shadow over the lake's quiet and placid bosom. There was a large gathering of the mothers' circle of the city mission, and at a suitable hour services were held in Glen Grove park, and an admirable address was delivered by Rev. Dr. Phillips of the Church of the Redeemer. The homeward trip, when all the various special cars laden with excursionists were in full headway for the city, was a merry one.

Among those who went to the lake in the Episcopal party were C. H. Doupe, Rev. Henry McCrea, Rev. Mr. Cook, and Rev. Dr. Mulford, Mrs. C. A. Smith, Miss Smith, Mrs. Woodford, Mrs. Stevens, Mr. Parish, Mrs. Loveland, Mr. Murley, Miss Bassett, Mrs. Cox, Miss Cox and Mr. Butler.

WENT TO WALLINGFORD.

About four hundred members of the Grace church, Hamden Plains, and Summerfield M. E. church Sunday schools left yesterday morning at eight o'clock for Wallingford. The entire day was spent at the grove with the usual Sunday school picnic features to amuse them. The party returned on a special at 8:30 in the evening.

FAIR HAVEN NEWS.

Water Front Improvement—The Annex Fire Department—Order of Eastern Star—Funeral of Mrs. Robinson—Personal.

T. G. W. Jefferson, who has a cottage at Short Beach, has been elected a member of the sanitary board of the Short Beach Sanitary Improvement association.

Rev. James Gallup of Madison will supply the pulpit of the Second Congregational church next Sunday.

The building of the drawbridge over Quinnipiac river at Grand avenue is likely to improve water front property up the river materially. The work is ordered for next year, to be completed by January 1, 1897. When the bridge is built the Consolidated road will undoubtedly remove the heavy abutments of the old railroad bridge, as the great stones can readily be removed when derrick lighters are employed. At present such vessels cannot be brought up the river beyond Grand avenue.

The Annex Volunteer Fire department has elected Robert Meacham, Sidney Kelsey, Duncan McArthur and James E. Mills delegates to the state firemen's convention to be held in Newark, August 8.

The lady members of Myrtle chapter, Order of Eastern Star, have made a handsome bed quilt to be placed in the room which Adelphi lodge is furnishing at the Masonic home in Wallingford. The block are large stars in colors of red, white, blue, green and yellow. There are worked on the quilt 35 names, comprising those of the club officers and many past masters of the Masonic order. It is a very handsome piece of needle work. The quilt is on exhibition in the window of the store of H. W. Crawford & Co. on Grand avenue.

The funeral of Mrs. Philando Robinson was attended from the late home of the deceased on Prospect street, Annex, Tuesday afternoon, Rev. C. H. Doupe of St. James' church officiating. The interment was in the Montwesse cemetery.

Despite the storm about sixty people went on the excursion of East Rock lodge, A. O. U. W., to Glen Island Tuesday.

W. A. Warner & Bro. have chartered the barge Sanderson, Captain Thomas, to bring another load of cement from Kingston, N. Y.

Rev. D. M. James and family have gone to Mr. James' old home in Kane, Penn., for a six weeks' vacation. They were accompanied by Miss Jennie Malory.

The selling plate is of 103 sovereigns, three-year-olds to carry 117 pounds, four-year-olds and upward to carry 123 pounds, the winner to be sold at auction for 200 sovereigns; course, last five furlongs of the Bunbury mile.

FIRE BELL ON A RAMPAGE.

Machinery in the Clock Tower Out of Order.

The fire alarm bell in the tower of the city hall went on a rampage soon after 8 o'clock yesterday morning, and the people in the center of the city came to all sorts of conclusions in regard to the strange performance. The bell rang fifty-two times in rapid succession, so rapid in fact that the machinery in the fire department headquarters could not run fast enough to follow it, and it was shut off. The bell would have continued ringing in the same manner for an hour or so, had not the entire fire alarm telegraph system been shut off temporarily.

Superintendent W. C. Smith started out to find what the difficulty was, and found that one wire had fallen down across another on Bradley street, near Orange street. Some one in trying to remove the wire brought it in contact rapidly with the other wire, thus forming a circuit and ringing the bell at every contact. After the trouble was discovered it required little work to repair it. At noon the big bell again pealed forth just as it was about to strike the four strokes for 12 o'clock. Another commotion was caused in the fire department, but the bell did not cease until it had struck 100 times.

By that time the firemen had located the trouble. They found that a small spring in the case which has been in place since 1868 had broken. The only time that the bell had been on a rampage before this was in 1877, when it rang 150 times. One of the wires fell in the slush at that time.

Both Were Deported.

Washington, July 17.—It is said at the state department that Vargas and Ruiz, the two alleged American citizens arrested in Cuba as revolutionists, agreed to leave the island if released from arrest, and they were accordingly deported.

POISONOUS GERMS.

like these shown here are found in the expecoration of consumptives. They are minute, living organisms, which have just begun to grow and feed upon the lungs. They multiply with amazing rapidity in the tissues and air passages where they find warmth and moisture. These parasites are the direct cause of the disease. To cure the disease, these germs must be destroyed.
