OFF FOR THE LAKES AND MOUNTAINS.

Our former townsman, Harry Rowd Shelley, who has mounted high on the ladder of fame in his profession, as is well known all over the country, especially in musical circles, leaves town today with his wife for the Rangeley Lakes via the White Mountains. They will stay at the Rangeleys during September, returning early in October to Brooklyn, where Mr. Shelley is organist and musical director at the famous Church of the Pilgrims, over which presides the polished orator and eminent divine, Rev. Dr. Richard S. Storrs, whose fiftieth anniversary as pastor of this church is to be celebrated next year. Mr. Shelley's professional work since leaving Center church's organ, this city, years ago, has been divided between Dr. Storrs' church and the famous Plymouth church. He was organist and musical director at the time of the latter's death, returning to his old charge at Dr. Storrs' church later. A most touching incident of Henry Ward Beecher was recalled by Mr. Shelley to friends during his present visit here. On the last Sunday that Beecher preached at Plymouth church, his last Sunday on earth, he lingered until after all the congregation had passed out of the church. Mr. Shelley was still at the organ playing, his wife, a daughter of the late John W. Lake of this city, being with him in the organ loft. When Mr. Shelley ceased playing his wife said to him "that was indeed a touching and beautiful act." "What was it?" Mr. Shelley asked. She then told him that as Mr. Beecher was passing out of the church his eye fell upon two poor little ragged lads, with earnest faces, who had strayed into the sacred building to hear the music, finding the church empty. Beecher, impulsive and big hearted, cordially greeted the poor little trembling lads and stooping kissed each one of them on the cheek and then grasping one under each arm gently and tenderly, passed on, carrying them with him out of the church, whose portals he never more was to enter alive.

Ex-Captain Kling Pleasantly Surprised.

The members of the New Haven City Guard gave a very pleasant surprise to ex-Captain Kling, formerly captain of their company, at his residence on Columbus avenue, Saturday evening. The captain was presented with a beautiful rocking chair by the company. Although surprised Mr. Kling and his wife ably entertained the party.

The Westville Times, the weekly paper published by Westville by Thomas Healy of this city, made its appearance Saturday with a new dress, and was printed with new type. The paper will be published hereafter on Saturdays instead of Tuesdays, as heretofore.

Miss Nellie Holloway of Milford, aged twenty, died at Branchville, Conn., on Thursday. The remains were brought to Milford Friday afternoon, and were laid to rest in the family plot in the Milford cemetery, the Rev. Mr. Morse conducting the services at the grave.

I suffered terribly from a roaring in my head during an attack of catarrh, and because very deaf, used Eli's Cream Balm, and in three weeks could hear as well as ever.—A. E. Newman, Grating, Mich.

DIRECTIONS for using CREAM BALM.—Apply a particle of the Balm well up into the nostrils. After a moment draw strong breath through the nose. Use three times a day, after meals preferred, and before retiring.

Looking for Mrs. Markham's Will.

Mrs. Rebecca A. Markham, who died suddenly at her rooms, No. 5 Prindles street, Friday night, came to this city several years ago and so far as is known had no relatives in the United States. She is thought, however, to have had a nephew in Mexico. Saturday morning Mr. Davis of East Haven, who owns the property where Mrs. Markham lived, applied to the probate court to be appointed administrator of the estate of the deceased. She is thought to have drawn a will some time ago, but it is said to be locked up in Attorney Hamilton's safe and he is Canada for a vacation outing. Word is expected from him on the matter soon. Mrs. Markham was about fifty years of age and is thought to have left property to the amount of $2,000 most of it in cash. Mr. Davis and Attorney Donovan have made a careful search for a will in the lady's apartments, but have found none as yet.

Stealing Rides on the Cars.

For some time past the officials of the Winchester avenue railroad have been greatly annoyed by boys jumping on and off the cars on Carlisle and Putnam streets. Yesterday they made complaint to Captain Woodruff of the Howard avenue precinct and two patrolmen were detailed in citizens' clothes to arrest the offenders. As a result three boys were captured, but two of them were of such tender years that they were immediately released with a reprimand. The third boy, however, Theodore Taymyre, was held on the charge of evading railroad fare. He was subsequently released from custody on bonds. The police and railroad officials are determined to put a stop to the dangerous practice.
