

AT EPWORTH CHURCH.

Rally Day and Roll Call Next Sunday. Next Sabbath will be observed as rally day at Epworth church both for the church and Sunday school.

Confessed to Murder.

Portsmouth, N. H., Sept. 26.—A man who gives his name as Martin Carter and claims to be living in Baltimore, but to have of late made his home in Laurel, Md., is detained at the police station here on his own confession that he is a murderer.

No Trace of Consumption Found.

Boston, Sept. 26.—Dr. Ernst of Harvard university to-day submitted a report to the pardon committee of the governor's counsel of his microscopic examination of the sputa of ex-Alderman Ham of the city of Haverhill, who is serving a term for "hoodlum," who has applied for pardon and release.

Fire.

A fire occurred yesterday morning in the tenement house, 75 Day street, occupied by several families and owned by the American Optical company.

THE BIG CONVENTION.

Many Committees Appointed—Other Work Progressing.

Active committees are now arranging for the ninth annual convention of Christian Workers, which will be held in the Calvary Baptist church November 7-14 inclusive.

A meeting of the ladies' auxiliary committee was held at Center church chapel Tuesday afternoon, and the following ladies were assigned to the various departments:

Mrs. A. A. Kellogg, chairman of entertainment committee, is to provide entertainment for the convention speakers and members who come from afar.

Mrs. F. H. Belden, jr., chairman of reception committee, will receive lady members and will decorate the church.

Mrs. J. W. Weaver, chairman of luncheon committee, will serve lunch in the United church chapel on October 2, at 5:30 p. m., to which all the city ministers and delegates from their churches are to be invited.

The general committee met Wednesday afternoon. Nearly 200 persons are connected with the various sub-committees, and the different reports of these committees were presented.

Clarence E. Thompson, chairman of the finance committee, reported that $2,000 would be needed to pay the expenses of the convention.

About $400 has already been raised. P. N. Welch, E. B. Bowditch, C. E. Thompson, E. H. Trowbridge, L. W. Cleaveland, F. C. Sherman, J. H. Foy and others are among the contributors.

THE GREAT ANNUAL FESTIVAL.

The Coming Fine Fair of the Meriden Agricultural Society.

The ninth annual fair of the Meriden Agricultural society to be held at Meriden, Connecticut, on the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th of October, bids fair to be one of the very best agricultural fairs and out of door entertainment of the kind ever held in the state.

Races, honest horse racing without the pool box is always entertaining. The fair has the largest entry of races they have had for many years.

The excursion rates which include admission to the grounds are complete and very reasonable. The railroads centering at Meriden have made full arrangements to carry passengers to and from Meriden.

Blizzard that enormous horse, the largest in the world, with a record of 2:09 1/4, will trot against time.

A feature of Friday, October 4, will be 100 teams, all to be shown on the track at the same time, 25 from each quarter of the town to compete for a valuable silk banner.

The excursion rates which include admission to the grounds are complete and very reasonable. The railroads centering at Meriden have made full arrangements to carry passengers to and from Meriden.

FAIR HAVEN.

Wilbur S. Leete has resumed his theological studies after his vacation. He is to attend at a seminary two and one-half miles from Alexandria, Va.

While in Fair Haven he visited his sister, Mrs. E. D. Smith of 60 East Pearl street.

Mrs. Nellie Humiston of Springfield is visiting friends here.

The banquet given by the Boys' brigade at the East Pearl street church, was a very successful affair, the members and their friends to the number of 100 sitting down to the tables.

The ties are being distributed for the extension of the Fair Haven and Westville railroad between North Quilnap street in the annex and Monticross, a distance of two miles, and the steel rails are daily expected from Pennsylvania. C. W. Blakeslee & Sons, contractors, will begin the work of laying rails as soon as the material arrives, and it will take them about three weeks.

The committee having in charge the Peoples' course of entertainments which will soon be inaugurated for the third season at the Grand avenue Congregational church, is at work. The Mozart Symphony club of New York has long been urged upon the committee by those who have heard them.

Some very fine and large five year old native oysters caught on John Turner's bed at the head of the Beach, were on exhibition at the store of L. F. Barnes yesterday.

THE CORONER'S FINDING.

In the Case of the Three Men Killed in Meriden.

Coroner Mix returned his findings yesterday afternoon in the Meriden case, where three men lost their lives Monday afternoon by being suffocated in a sewer excavation.

The fatal accident, it will be remembered, was caused by the walls of the trench giving away, and burying the men beneath a great mass of earth.

After a careful investigation the coroner finds that the accident was due to the carelessness and negligence of George Williams, superintendent of sewer construction, and Alfred S. Birdsey, foreman, both employees of the city.

In his finding the coroner states that the superintendent and the foreman both knew that the street was made of sand and that it had been recently excavated for water mains, and was in a very soft and unstable condition.

The finding practically states that the two men mentioned are guilty of criminal negligence.

C. D. KINNEY'S CONTRACT.

For the Masonry at the Jail Addition—To Cut on to Carpenter Work.

The county commissioners have awarded three contracts for work upon the addition to the jail. The masonry contract was awarded to C. D. Kinney for $29,000; that for plumbing to Joseph H. Buckley for $2,795; and the heating contract to Sheahan & Groark for $2,850.

The contract for carpenter work was not awarded as the bids exceeded the figure desired by the commissioners. It was decided to cut out of the specifications for this work some extras in order to reduce the total cost of the building to a figure below $50,000.

The lowest bids aggregated $52,000 and it is intended to cut out about $2,000.

SERVICE MEDALS AWARDED.

Rewards of Service in the National Guard. Service medals were distributed yesterday to members of the Second regiment who merit them. The medals were received by Lieutenant Colonel Callahan, and were given by him to Armorer Walker, who distributed them.

The ten years' service medals are of bronze medallions, and are worn suspended from the neck by a silk ribbon. The fifteen years' service medals are of bronze with a gold crossband. The twenty years' service medals are of gold and bronze. Those who are to receive medals for twenty years' service are Lieutenant Colonel Callahan, Adjutant T. T. Welles, Captain George LaBarnes and Armorer R. M. Walker. The fifteen year medals go to Major Sucher, Captain Beach of the Blues and T. W. Reed of the band. The ten years' service medals go to Captain Charles McCabe of the Grays, Lieutenant A. M. Woods of the Light Guard, Lieutenant A. M. Moeller of the City Guard, Lieutenant A. C. Young of the Blues, Lieutenant Charles Smith of the Grays, Lieutenant Reynolds of an out of town company, W. P. Neville of the hospital corps, D. W. Humphrey of the band, T. H. Hopton of the band, J. W. Lander of the Light Guard and Joseph H. Smith of the Grays.

Another Teller Goes West. Hamilton, Ont., Sept. 26.—W. B. Palmer, paying teller in the Bank of Commerce here, has disappeared leaving a shortage in his accounts amounting to several thousands of dollars.

Death of Mrs. Ridgway. Mrs. Ridgway, mother of Mrs. A. Reaton Robertson, died yesterday morning at 12:30 at the home of her daughter, No. 128 Temple street. She was sixty-eight years of age, and death was caused by consumption. She was the widow of Thomas Ridgway, an eminent geologist of Philadelphia, Penn. Mrs. Robertson was her only child. The deceased had been an invalid for about ten years, though able at times to take a drive. The last time she was out away from home was August 17th last. For the last two weeks she was confined to her bed. Her native place was Northampton, Mass. She was a lady of extremely lovable character, gentle, refined, amiable and charitable.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence on Temple street. Rev. Mr. MacBeth will officiate. The interment will be in Evergreen cemetery.

THE DEATH OF FABER.

Finding of the Coroner in the Sad Case. Coroner Mix concluded his investigation yesterday regarding the death of Mark Faber, who died early Monday morning in two hours after drinking from a bottle labelled cholera medicine. The autopsy performed by Medical Examiner White revealed that the man died of aconite poisoning, the drug being found in his stomach.

The bottle bore the label of A. F. Wood Sons', the druggists at 2 Church street. Coroner Mix has examined several witnesses, one of whom, Morris Goldbach, accompanied Faber to Wood's store Sunday night, when it is supposed, he bought the supposed cholera medicine, but was given aconite instead.

There were two men on duty at the store at the time, but as Goldbach did not enter he did not see which of them sold his friend the drug. The two men in the store were James T. Wood, a member of the firm, and a clerk named William H. Alpers.

Both men deny remembering having sold the medicine, and Coroner Mix has failed to place the responsibility. There will, therefore, be no arrests.

The coroner finds that Faber came to his death by aconite poisoning sold him by mistake at A. F. Wood Sons' drug store.

Rabbi M. Faber of Titusville, Pa., a brother of the deceased, has sent a letter to M. L. Rosenblum, in which he explains that he was unable to come to this city, but asks Mr. Rosenblum to give his brother a proper funeral according to Hebrew rites. The funeral took place last Tuesday.

James P. Wood on being informed of the finding of the coroner by a reporter yesterday morning expressed surprise that the coroner should have designated Wood's drug store as the place where the bottle of aconite was procured, as he did not think that it had been proved. He was asked if the firm had changed the position of the bottles, the one in which the cholera mixture and the one in which the aconite was kept, which are so near together, on one of their shelves.

He replied, "Certainly not. Those bottles are in the same position that they were sixteen years ago when my father opened this store and they have never been changed."

"Has the clerk, Mr. Alpers, been discharged?" "He has not. If we changed the bottles and discharged the clerk it would be an admission that the mistake of giving the man aconite had been committed in our store."

Wednesday, November 13, open.

Saturday, November 16, open.

Saturday, November 23, Princeton at New York.

The Scientific school freshman class assembled in room 42 in North Sheffield hall yesterday afternoon. The class was organized and announcements were made of text books, lessons, and the result of entrance examinations.

A reception to members of the freshman classes, academic and scientific, will be held in Dwight hall this evening at 8 o'clock.

President Dwight and those members of the faculty who are to have charge of the freshman class will be present. The committees from various classes are: '96, A. E. Foote, S. B. Thorne, R. B. Treadway; '98, H. L. McGee, A. P. Thompson; '97, C. M. Fincke, E. E. Garrison, F. T. Murphy; '98, D. D. Burrell, M. J. Dodge, G. Parker.

Mr. H. S. Anderson, who has been assistant physical instructor at the gymnasium for two years, and who recently resigned his position there, will be succeeded by Mr. H. G. Watson, formerly of South Maryland university.

Phil H. Stillman '98, Yale's famous line man in football, will coach the Elizabeth Athletic association football eleven this fall.

The academic freshman class reported in Alumni hall yesterday afternoon to register and receive cards of instruction.

The caps and gowns for the senior class have arrived, and will be distributed from Alumni hall this afternoon and to-morrow, so that they can be worn to chapel Sunday morning.

The regular class work of the gymnasium will begin on Tuesday, October 2.

Dean Smith of the medical school and Dean Wayland of the law school, have decided that the lengthening of the courses in these two departments will not go into effect until September, 1896.

Frank S. Butterworth of the '94 Yale football team is now coaching the University of California football team.

Beginning to-day a special car for the university football team will leave the gymnasium every week day at 2 p. m., during the season.

THE CORONER NOTIFIED.

The Death of an Infant in West Haven—The Case to be Investigated.

Medical Examiner J. F. Barnard of West Haven reported to Coroner Mix yesterday that a ten weeks old child of George W. Adams, motorman on the Winchester avenue road, died of neglect Wednesday morning. Adams, who is a son of Attorney George W. Adams of West Haven, lives at the corner of Washington and Woods streets, West Haven. His child was taken sick September 17. Both its parents are Christian scientists and Mrs. Nathan Hale of George street, West Haven, Christian scientist, was called in. She treated the child, which had not been seen by a physician, until last Saturday, when it became very ill and was still worse the following day. Then Edward L. Perry of Bradley street, this city, was called in to assist Mrs. Hale. Afterwards Mrs. Jeanette T. Coleman of Boston, Mass., was summoned in consultation. Mrs. Hale alleging the she, Mrs. Coleman, had saved hundreds of lives that had been given up by the physicians.

Mrs. Coleman did not go to West Haven, but treated the child from her home in Boston. The little sufferer continued to grow worse until 6 o'clock Wednesday morning when it died.

Dr. Barnard says the child died of inanition and marasmus, and simply wasted away. It had not been seen by a physician, its parents, who are young people, this being their first child, having absolute faith in the powers of the Christian scientists.

The treatment of the scientists consisted, as far as learned, of holding the child at arm's length in various positions for the purpose, they said, of concentrating its mind upon themselves.

Dr. Barnard said yesterday that when the child was six weeks old it was deprived of its natural food and since then lived on condensed milk and water.

Coroner Mix will not express any views upon the circumstances of the case but will endeavor to find out whether there was any criminal neglect or not.

THE MINISTERS' FINDING.

In the Rufus T. Cooper Case—They Find the Accused Innocent of the Charges and No Ground for an Ecclesiastical Investigation.

To the Editor of the JOURNAL AND COURIER: New Haven, Conn., Sept. 26th, 1895. In view of the wide publicity given to the recent accusations made against the Rev. Rufus T. Cooper, and of the public interest excited by his trial in the city court, I deem it appropriate that the action of the committee which was appointed to examine into the case should be published.

On the first day of July, a committee of inquiry was appointed with functions somewhat similar to those of a grand jury, not to try the case, but by informal investigation to ascertain whether there was sufficient probable evidence of the guilt of the accused to justify the bringing of formal charges against him, and the assembling of an ecclesiastical court for his trial.

The committee has done its work with thoroughness, not only by attending the trial throughout the several days of its continuance, but by withholding its report and pursuing its investigations for more than two months thereafter, in order that other evidence, if any existed, might be secured.

As in all instances of public accusation, especially against ministers, there exist wide differences of opinion, it is not to be expected that any committee's report would receive the endorsement of every person in the community who had interested himself in the case.

I am therefore careful to explain that this committee's report is only advisory to the presiding elder, and that he is fully empowered upon the appearance of any other sufficient evidence, to institute formal ecclesiastical investigation. Let it be clearly understood that, although my present convictions are in perfect accord with the report of the committee of inquiry, if any person has grave charges to bring, or evidence upon which they can be based, the presentation of these to the presiding elder will be promptly followed by the convening of an ecclesiastical court for the trial of the case.

Following is the committee's report: The committee of inquiry, appointed to ascertain on behalf of the Methodist Episcopal church whether there should be a formal ecclesiastical investigation of certain accusations made against the Rev. Rufus T. Cooper, present the following to the Rev. Crandall J. North, presiding elder of the New Haven district of the New York East Conference, as their finding in the case:

First—The Rev. Rufus T. Cooper, in accordance with his own demand, was tried in the city court of New Haven upon the charges made against him, and was acquitted.

Second—The committee of inquiry, having, with one or two exceptions, attended throughout the trial in the city court, carefully observing all the proceedings and hearing all the testimony, are unanimously agreed that the court could not in justice have rendered any other verdict than that of acquittal; and, furthermore, that the accused was innocent of the charges.

Third—The prosecution having evidently exhausted all its resources in the trial, and no other evidence having come to our knowledge, we the committee of inquiry, do not find ground for a formal ecclesiastical investigation.

Signed at New Haven, Conn., September 25th, 1895.

LETTER FROM THE GRAYS.

In Well Deserved Compliment to the Second Regiment Band.

The New Haven Grays sent to the Second Regiment band the following letter yesterday:

Gentlemen: At the close of the parade on Thursday, September 19, the company unanimously voted: That we add our thanks to that of the citizens' committee to the members of the band for their services on that day and to assure you that we thoroughly appreciate the quality of the music on that day, as also on our memorial Sunday, and are ever ready to speak a good word for the American Second Regiment band. Yours truly,

J. B. Early, secretary.

MARRIED AT LITCHFIELD.

C. H. Pierpont of the Elliott House—His Brother's Sudden Death.

Litchfield, Sept. 25.—Andrew J. Pierpont, aged seventy-three years, died here suddenly this morning. For some time he had been suffering from pulmonary trouble, and this was the primary cause of his death. He was a well known farmer.

To-day was announced for the marriage of his brother, Charles H. Pierpont, proprietor of the Elliott house of New Haven, and Miss Lottie A. Sedgewick of this place. In consequence of the sudden death in the family, no guests will be present, and the wedding will be in the most quiet manner. The ceremony will occur at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the residence of the bride, Rev. Mr. Roberts of the Torrington Congregational church officiating.

H. H. S. NOTES.

IS IT A SUSTAINER? How much manual labor do you think you do in a day? A post-man averages about 353 foot-tons. An ordinary laborer 350 tons. A very hard day's work would be 400 tons. A clerk or bookkeeper may fall as low as from 15 to 20 tons. In Weston's recent walk to Albany, 150 miles, in 60 hours, we calculate his work was no less than 1005 foot-tons, and his food consisted entirely of H-O Oatmeal. As an ideal sustainer, H-O meets every demand. Don't Purchase a Refrigerator until you have examined THE "AMERICA."
