

OLD ELI AGAIN VICTORIOUS

They Captured Eight Out of the Eleven Events—Fine Weather and a Representative American Crowd—Fair Women Also Present—The English Boys Cleared in Chivalrous Style—Captain Moran's Good Run—The Events in Detail.

New York, Oct. 6.—Rah-Rah-Rah for Yale and old Eli's athletes. Eight out of eleven events in the contests with the Cambridge men. It was another big day for Yale men. The weather was all that could be desired for the contests, and the crowd was immense. From myriads of throats went up huzzas for Yale, and 10,000 blue emblems floated and fluttered among the shining faces of a thousand fair girls.

None of the unpleasant college feeling and college boisterousness which often mar the intercollegiate football games were noticed here. What shouting there was was good-natured, and was directed at good work done, instead of being inspired by college rivalry. Only one did a vast cry of "Yale" arise and that was when Richards, by a tremendous spurt in the 100-yard dash, overtook and passed Lewin of Cambridge, who, up to that time, had apparently the race in his own hands, or rather at his own toes' ends. It was a bit of work which brought the cheers involuntarily, and Englishmen and Americans joined heartily in the cry.

After that exultant shout Yale lungs and Yale throats seemed spent. Something snapped, for neither Richards' victory in the 300 yards nor any other of old Eli's successes were rewarded with the response aroused by the flash of speed in the "dash."

On the other hand, when the delicate blue of Cambridge gave promise of first breaking the gloom of defeat at the hands of Fitzherbert in the 300, old classmen of ages ago arose, backed up by the younger generation, and his cousins and best girls, and yelled "Fitzherbert," "Cambridge." But Fitzherbert's last link was out twenty yards from the goal, and reeling like a drunken man he could neither withstand sturdy little Richards' titanic effort, nor Lewin's dazzling rush.

Thus the first glint of victory for Cambridge was squelched. Even George Adee and the whole Westchester crowd looked disappointed.

The events in detail were as follows: 100-YARD DASH.

Won by W. M. Richards, Yale '95; R. W. Burnett, Yale '97, second; C. H. Lewin, Trinity Hall, third; E. H. Wilding, Pembroke college, fourth; time 10:15 seconds. Won by a foot; five feet between second and third.

World's record, 9:45 seconds. American intercollegiate record, 10 seconds. English university record, 10 seconds. Richards' best performance, eight inches behind 10 seconds.

Burnett's previous best performance, four feet behind 10:15 seconds. Lewin's best performance, one foot behind 10:25 seconds.

300-YARD RUN. Won by W. M. Richards, Yale '95; C. H. Lewin, Trinity Hall, second; W. Fitzherbert, Trinity Hall, third; D. C. Byers, Yale '92, fourth; time, 3:25 seconds. Won by four feet, a yard between second and third.

World's record, 3:15 seconds. There are no American intercollegiate and English university records at the distance. Richards has no record at the distance, but in a trial at Yale field the other day he ran in the same time as his win, 3:25 seconds.

Lewin is credited with 32 seconds, but the performance is questioned. Fitzherbert's best performance is 1 1/4 yards behind 3:45 seconds.

Byers has no record. QUARTER-MILE RUN. Won by C. H. Lewin, Trinity Hall; W. M. Richards, Yale '95, second; W. Fitzherbert, Trinity Hall, third; F. E. Wade, Yale '96 L. S., did not finish; time, 4:45 seconds. Won by eighteen inches; eight feet between second and third.

World record, 4:37 seconds. American intercollegiate record, 4:37 seconds. English university record, 4:45 seconds. Lewin's previous best performance, 50 4-5 seconds.

Richards' best performance, 50 seconds, although the above is a shade better than that. Fitzherbert's best performance, 49 2-5 seconds.

Wade's best performance, 51 1/2 seconds. HALF MILE RUN. Won by F. S. Moran, Trinity Hall; P. W. Crane, Yale '95, second; time, 2 minutes 2-5 seconds. Crane's time, 2 minutes, 11 3-5 seconds.

World's record, 1 minute 53 2-5 seconds. American intercollegiate record, 1 minute, 57 1-5 seconds. There is no English university record. Moran's best performance is 1 minute, 55 2-5 seconds.

Crane's best performance is 2 minutes 1 second. ONE MILE RUN. Won by W. E. Lutyens, Sidney college; H. J. Davenport, Trinity Hall, third; W. H. Wadhams, Yale '96, quit on last lap; time, 4 minutes, 35 3-5 seconds. Won by 20 yards; fifteen between second and third. Morgan's time was 4 minutes, 28 4-5 seconds.

World's record, 4 minutes, 15 3-5 seconds. American intercollegiate record, 4 minutes, 19 4-5 seconds. English university record, 4 minutes, 19 4-5 seconds. Lutyens' best performance, 4 minutes, 19 4-5 seconds.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

The democratic town committee of Huntington has completed the ticket for the coming election by the addition of the following names: Town clerk—Ephraim Cushman. Tax collector—James H. Beard. Director of public library—Horace Wheeler.

The latter is a change, caused by the fact that the nominee of the caucus, Dr. W. S. Randall, is now a member of the directory, and his time does not expire this year.

THE 205,000 BALLOTS. There will be a slight change in the ballots for the town elections in Connecticut to-day. The type used for the name of the party at the head of the ticket will be much larger than heretofore. No blanks have been sent out by the secretary of the state for the returns of treasurers of political committees of election receipts and expenses. Itemized statements must be filed in the office within ten days after the election. Three hundred and fifty thousand envelopes have been sent out.

Among the Germans. The opening concert of the season of the Arion Singing society will be held next Sunday night. Among those who will appear are Miss Lillie Lichtenstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lichtenstein, in a piano selection. She is rapidly developing into a very accomplished pianist and was one of the star pupils of Professor Parsons. She is herself a successful teacher and has classes of eighteen pupils.

Deborah Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F., will give a ball in Harugari hall October 21. At the next meeting of Columbia Lodge, D. O. E., on Wednesday evening, the members will appear in their new regalia which was secured for the lodge by John B. Froysinger.

MILFORD. Banner Day at Plymouth Church—Other Notes. Yesterday was observed by the young people of Plymouth church in Milford as "Banner Sunday." They are quite elated over their success in gaining the prize banner offered by the Endeavor union of Bridgeport on Tuesday evening, and held a religious meeting to celebrate the event last evening at 7 o'clock. The delegation occupied seats on the platform and many took part in the subject, "How We Won the Banner." Beside the usual chorus choir with organ and piano, an orchestra assisted. At the morning service the pastor preached on "The True Elements of Reformation or In the Name of Our God, will We set up our Banners."

The Taylor library will be closed all of this week for the purpose of making needed repairs. Barlow Conroy, who broke his leg while playing baseball with the M. A. A.'s at Torrington some weeks since, is able to be on the streets again with the assistance of crutches. The Willing Workers are making preparations to give an entertainment some time this week.

The members of the colored Baptist church gave their pastor, the Rev. J. O. Cornish, an old-fashioned donation party at the parlors on Central avenue Thursday evening. Songs, with good wishes, accompanied the good things that were left to replenish the parson's larder. At a late hour a happy throng of colored people could be seen mending their way home with empty baskets on their arms.

Mrs. Adelaide Avery has closed her Broad street residence and has gone to New Haven, where she will spend the winter with her son, Edward P. Avery. Mr. E. Nelson Tibbals of New York and Miss Mary Stewart Gillan of Brooklyn were united in marriage at Woodmont Wednesday afternoon by the Rev. Charles E. Upson of Plymouth church.

Held Up by Highwaymen. Haverhill, Mass., Oct. 6.—Frank Colbath, undertaker, while on his way to Scotland Hill in the suburbs on business, at 2 o'clock this morning, was held up in a lonely place by a highwayman. He got out of his wagon and while pretending to feel in his pocket for money, managed to make a quick move and knocked the man senseless, then drove away.

Saloons Tightly Closed. New York, Oct. 6.—The police rigidly enforced the excise law to-day and the saloons were closed as tight as they have been for a number of Sundays past. In many instances the blinds were up, exposing the deserted bars. Some saloons did business, but it had to be conducted so carefully that it scarcely repaid the proprietors for their trouble. The saloons as a rule become resigned to the situation.

Common Oatmeal

Sold from barrels or often-times in fancy packages (but still common oatmeal) is hard to cook, bitter in taste and overheating to the system. It overtaxes the digestive organs and the body derives no benefit from it—it injures rather than helps.

H-O gets rid of all that is objectionable in oatmeal and preserves all that is valuable. It makes oatmeal a human food, palatable and easy of digestion, without taking away any of the elements needed for the building up of body, bone and brain. All other oat-meals—"steam-dried," "kiln-dried" and "partly cooked"—leave off just where H-O begins.
