MUSICAL NOTES. The New Haven Symphony Orchestra, composed of local musicians and directed by Professor Horatio W. Parker of Yale, which inaugurated its career with two concerts at Alumni hall last winter, announces a series of four subscription concerts for the coming season, to be given under the auspices of the university. As has been often stated before, New Haven is with the exception of Boston, the only city in New England to have its own symphony orchestra. The concerts last winter were very successful from a musical point of view, and it only needs the support from our own city and neighboring towns, which pride in such a local institution should induce, to place the organization on a firm financial basis.

There has been considerable discussion about the most suitable place to hold the concerts. The seating capacity of Alumni hall is not very great and its acoustics are not of the best. It was suggested that a platform could be placed in Battell chapel, as at commencement, and the concerts held there and the advisability of giving them in such a large auditorium as the Hyperion was also considered. Alumni hall has finally been selected, but all this discussion only emphasizes the fact that this city needs a music hall proper, and may the day come soon when the fine building promised for the musical department of the university shall be erected.

The personnel of the orchestra will be the same as last year. Among the announcements of particular importance are the Second Symphony of Beethoven, one of Mendelssohn's overtures and the Raff piano concerto, which will be a novelty for New Haven. At the first concert Mr. Isador Troostwyk will be the soloist and at the second the piano-concerto will be played by a local artist. For the lighter numbers several novelties are expected.

It was at first thought that the orchestra would play at the next Gounod concert, but this idea has had to be abandoned. As the orchestra has always been the "offending member" at the oratorio performances, this is to be regretted. It is to be hoped that the Gounod society will not attempt to give Saint-Saens' "Samson and Delilah," or the "Faust" or "Romeo and Juliet," all of which have been talked of, until they can have a large and perfectly capable orchestra to render the elaborate and difficult orchestral parts as well as the solo parts.

We do not for a moment doubt the ability of the society, but we want them to have efficient support. Among the other plans for the season is Dr. Griggs' course of lectures, already begun, at the divinity school on Church Music, to be illustrated by his own Center church choir and outside singers. This is an interesting field and should make an interesting course.

The Kniseel quartet series is announced for the chamber course. They will be six in number, three quartet nights, one trio, one quintet and one sextet night, when the great Beethoven sextet is promised. Arthur Whiting of Boston will be the pianist and the extra men for the string parts will be chosen from the Boston Symphony.

Last, but not by any means least, Paderewski will play here at a matinee on the 3d of December. We must not forget the first attraction, Melba's concert, here on the 4th of November. Her first appearance here was so successful that a great ovation may be looked for this time. Her tenor this year, D'Aubigny, is an improvement on the attenuated specimen of last year, and Campagnari has already endeared himself to us by his brilliant singing when he has been here with Seidl. From his success last winter and the splendid reports of his work this fall at various festivals he would seem to be the coming baritone.

FOOT GUARD AT WASHINGTON. Received by the President—Visited the Treasury Department—Honored by U. S. Treasurer Morgan—Off for Home to-day. To the Editor of the JOURNAL AND COURIER: Washington, D. C., Oct. 25.—The New Haven Foot Guard after having yesterday spent an exceedingly pleasant day at Asheville, N. C., the home of Bill Nye, and after having by special invitation visited the magnificent southern home of the Vanderbilts, started in the evening for the Capitol city and arrived here this morning. In the afternoon the command, by invitation, escorted by the Washington Light Infantry, the crack military organization of this city, marched in full dress to the executive mansion, where the members were received by President Cleveland. They afterwards visited the treasury building, where they were welcomed by United States Treasurer Morgan of Bridgeport.

The reception at the white house was a pleasant affair. I took place in the east room. Major E. E. Brown, commanding the company, made a little speech, in which he said that the Foot Guards had fought in the Revolution and every war in which the United States had been concerned and were ready to fight again if need be. Mr. Cleveland said he was glad to see the guards and then shook hands with all the members and ladies. The company leaves Washington for home at 10 o'clock this morning. News received by telegram from New Haven by Major Brown that a reception awaits them on their return created lively enthusiasm.

The First Company, Governor's Foot Guard of Hartford, left Atlanta Wednesday night accompanied by the governor, and after a day each in Charleston and Richmond will leave the latter city to-morrow for home. "MORNING LIGHT" WANTED. To the Editor of the JOURNAL AND COURIER: Dear Sir—In the Hartford Courant of equal date is an account of the reception of our excellent governor and the (only) Company Governor's Foot Guard at Charleston. This reception seems to the writer to have been as timely and desirable as it was hearty and patriotic and no person rejoices more than he in these increasing signs of fraternal good-feeling, but he learns from this account that "as the governor's carriage was opposed by the South Carolina Military Academy a salute of seventeen guns was fired."

The South Carolina Military Academy has an able officer of the United States army as its military instructor and I hesitate to believe that he has given his pupils wrong instruction. I also hesitate to believe our genial and courteous governor has usurped the office of vice president of the United States, however well he would grace even a higher office, and I do not like to believe that the contributor of that article was so bo-fuddled that he could not count, yet my early and later information has been that the salute mentioned was not the proper one for a governor. I therefore appeal to you for confirmation or correction, purely for my own education. I am free to say that if my information is correct I unhesitatingly accept the third "horn of the dilemma."

Yours for harmony and education, EX-FEETER. October 25, 1895. RED FIRE AND PARADE. The Fine Reception Awaiting New Haven's Returning Foot Guard to-night. Yesterday reminded our retail fireworks dealers of Fourth of July. The merchants and tenants along the line of march last evening were laying in a stock for the reception ceremonies in honor of the returning Foot Guard. Chapel and Church streets will be a blaze of red fire and Roman candles, while the balconies, windows and roofs will be crowded with spectators.

In addition to the Grays and Naval reserves it is probable that two or three other organizations will take part in the parade, among those a large delegation from Admiral Foote post. It is understood that the officers of the post favor the parade, but the limited time prevents a general order being issued. Many of the veterans, however, will meet at the Foot Guard armory at 7 o'clock, when they will be assigned the post of honor in the line. This will be a pleasing spectacle to the thirty or more Grand Army men who belong to the Foot Guard, and especially to Major Brown, who is an honored member of Admiral Foote post. A telegram from Major Brown to D. S. Thomas says the line of march laid out is perfectly satisfactory, and he believes the command will arrive promptly at 8 o'clock. Mayor Hendrick has arranged to have the streets clear during the parade, in which case the military will be able to present company front over the entire route.

To meet the Foot Guard. The naval reserve, First division, will turn out to act as escort to the Governor's Foot Guard this evening. A meeting was held last evening in the armory and the vote to parade was unanimous. The reserves will turn out in full uniform, reporting at the armory at 7:30 o'clock. Lieut. Reynolds will be in command. At the meeting Messrs. Conscamman Averill and Boatwain Mate Baker were appointed a committee to confer with the Greys to-day relative to position in line. The entire division, eighty strong, is ordered out.

The Durrant Trial. San Francisco, Oct. 25.—General Dickenson addressed the Durrant jury for the defense to-day. He reviewed the testimony and maintained that the roll call at Dr. Cheney's lecture had been shown to be reliable. This was undoubtedly, he said, the pivotal point of the case and if it was correct the prosecution had failed in all points.

FAIR HAVEN. Missionary "Rally Day" will be observed in the Second Congregational church to-morrow. In the morning Rev. Henry Blodgett, D. D., of China, will speak, and Rev. C. C. Creagan, D. D., and Mrs. Hazen will speak in the evening. Rev. N. G. Cheney of the East Pearl street M. E. church will address the W. C. T. U. in the East Pearl street church to-morrow at 7:30 p. m.; subject, "The Saloon Must Go." All interested in temperance are invited to attend. G. W. Smith, the real estate dealer, has moved from Morris Cove to 73 Trumbull street. Mr. Smith has resided at the Cove for twenty-six years. Bradley & Griswold, dealers in groceries and meats on Atwater street, are going out of business and are selling out the stock. The infant child of William Holiday of South Front street died on Thursday from the effects of convulsions.

Mrs. Frederick Roski died a few days ago on her husband's coal barge, which was moored at Gilbert's dock. Her maiden name was Bridget O'Connor, and she formerly lived at 64 Poplar street. In the superior court yesterday the last of the Ferry Path cases, which have been in litigation several years, was settled. It was the case of W. H. H. Hewitt against the Consolidated road, and it is said to have been for a little less than $1,100. There were five of these cases. A large audience was delighted with the concert given in the Grand Avenue Baptist church Thursday evening. Every number was excellently given and elicited hearty applause. It was William Frank Burroughs' first appearance before a New Haven audience in recital and his high talents won hearty recognition. He gave an interpretation of "Hamlet" and several miscellaneous sketches. Miss Ella Mary Belden in her contralto solos greatly pleased her listeners. Miss Edith Davey sang "Zion" with a flute obligato by Miss Carrie Kimberly of Torrington. This selection was excellently given, as were Miss Kimberly's fine flute solos. "Oh Fair, Oh Sweet and Holy" was sung by George Chadwick Stock and was finely rendered. C. F. Williams gave a bass solo in a rich and heavy voice, which was very pleasing. The violin solos of A. G. Schirmer received well merited approval, and the whistling solo of W. Clayton Brown called forth a furor of applause. Willis H. Allen, the accompanist, played excellently. It was an entertainment of great merit. The affair was arranged by H. H. Palmer, leader of the choir of this church, and much credit is due him for his great success.

Caused a Sensation. Lynn, Mass., Oct. 25.—John O'Neill, a moulder from Philadelphia, who came to Lynn at the request of the General Electric company to work in one of the company's Lynn foundries where a strike is now in progress, caused a sensation at a meeting of the striking moulders this forenoon by stating that Foreman Edwards of the General Electric company's steel foundry instructed him (O'Neill) on Wednesday, to shoot down like dogs any of the strikers or any others who would offer him any intimidation while in the employ of the General Electric company. O'Neill further stated that he refused to go to work for the General Electric company when he learned of the strike and will leave the city immediately.

Don't let the Baby Die from want of nourishment. Thousands of them succumb from this cause daily. No fault of the parents either, simply they are unable to find food that can be retained by the poor, weak stomachs, and then that continual decrease in weight, that pinched and forlorn look on the little face with the inevitable end. Try while there is yet life and be rewarded with happy success, as thousands have done before you, that greatest of food products

Bovinine It is a concentration in the least possible bulk of the life-maintaining elements of lean, raw beef, prepared by a special cold process. Cholera infantum and bowel troubles are prevented by its use. Over 2,500 physicians endorse it.

Special Japanese Ambassador to Corea. Yokohama, Oct. 25.—Count Inouye has been appointed special Japanese ambassador to Corea, and has started for Seoul. Thirty-six Japanese Sohei from Corea were arrested upon their arrival at Utsa yesterday.

JUDGE CLANCY. The Hornellsville, N. Y. Times says: "When it comes to a question of health we advise being careful. Do not accept as truth the statement that some man was cured of a dreadful disease because a name is signed to a newspaper advertisement. This is not sufficient when your health is at stake. There are medicines that have our faith, and the foremost of all stands Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy." Judge James H. Clancy of Hornellsville, N. Y., who has had a good experience with this medicine, said: "I have used DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY. And can strongly recommend it for its good effects in my case for liver trouble and blood disorder. It built me right up and I am much improved in health." There is no better known lawyer in New York State than Judge Clancy, and such words as to the merit of so important a thing as one's medicine, from so conservative a man, should be sufficient.

DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S Favorite Remedy is a perfect blood and nerve medicine. It restores the liver to a healthy condition and cures the worst cases of chronic cold or constipation. It is a certain cure for all diseases peculiar to females. It cures scrofula, salt rheum, rheumatism, dyspepsia, all kidney, bladder and urinary diseases, gravel, diabetes and Bright's disease. All druggists, $1.00.

PINEOLA COUGH BALSAM. Is excellent for all throat inflammations and for asthma. Consumptives will invariably derive benefit from its use. It quickly abates the cough, renders expectoration easy, assisting nature in restoring wasted strength. There is a large percentage of those who suppose their cases to be consumption who are only suffering from a chronic cold or deep seated cough, often aggravated by catarrh. For catarrh use Ely's Cream Balm. Both remedies are pleasant to use. Cream Balm 50c per bottle. Pineola Balsam 50c, at druggists. In quantities of $2.50 will deliver on receipt of amount. ELY BROTHERS, 537 Broadway, 25 Warren Street, New York.
