

OLD FAIR HAVEN WATER CO.

THE NEW HAVEN CO. EXTINGUISHES LAST MORTGAGE ON ITS PLANT.

A Notable Contest of Years Ago Recalled—The Days of C. S. Maltby, B. Noyes and John Osborne Recalled—Other Financial Notes of Local Interest—Southern New England Telephone Co.—The Meriden Electric Road—New Haven Bank Clearings.

The New Haven Water company has finally wiped out the last mortgage on its plant. On Friday last, the bonds of the old Fair Haven Water company, both principal and interest, were paid at the City bank for the Water company.

Our older residents will well remember the great contest made by the late Mr. Benjamin Noyes and Caleb S. Maltby for the privilege of introducing water to Fair Haven. They built dams in what is now known as Maltby Park, laid pipes to cross the West river, near Mr. Noyes' residence, and through their engineer, Mr. John Osborne of Mount Carmel, had built what is now known as Wintergreen Lake, but the latter was not piped to the city, nor any income derived from any portion of the plant.

The charter of the Fair Haven Water company was finally granted, and the water introduced through West Chapel, George and, we believe, a few other streets. The New Haven Water company after several meetings concluded that the wisest business policy was to purchase the plant of its growing rival, and did so. The present ex-Mayor Sargent was one of the most active members in the transaction.

Among the obligations was $200,000 first mortgage 7 per cent. bonds, held mostly by Mr. Maltby and friends, who was the real backbone of the enterprise. One of the conditions of turning over the Fair Haven company's property to the present company was the endorsement of both principal and interest of this bonded issue. On November 1 of this year it became due and was paid. Wintergreen Lake has continued to furnish us with some very good water, and the transaction was a good business one for the company and citizens.

Southern New England Telephone company offers to its stockholders the right to subscribe to one new share at par for each ten shares held. This will increase the capital stock from $1,500,000 to $1,650,000. This increase has been held in abeyance for some years.

The present bonded debt of the company is $500,000, making a total capitalization of $2,150,000. There are no local investments offering at par, which will pay the investor 6 per cent., and this issue of new stock, paying this rate, and being offered at par, should be readily taken by the present stockholders and friends of the company.

New Haven county 3 1/2 per cent. bonds are offered by Messrs. E. C. Starbuck & Co. of Boston at 109 1/2 interest. They are put down as being a legal investment for the Connecticut and Massachusetts savings banks and if one is satisfied with a small rate, the security is over abundant.

New Haven school district 4 per cent. bonds awarded on Friday to Messrs. N. W. Harris & Co. of Boston at $106.25 and interest. These bonds should have a little wider market, and the investor can afford to pay a considerably higher premium and have a higher income than in purchasing the New Haven county 3 1/2 per cent. bonds at their advertised price.

The American Soda Fountain company will pay a dividend of 2 1/2 per cent. on the stock, for which the transfer books closed last week. On Friday of this week Cincinnati and Hamilton Dayton railroad will pay the usual quarterly dividend of 1 1/4 per cent. on the preferred stock. On Saturday last the transfer books of the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg railroad closed for a quarterly dividend on 1 1/4 per cent., payable November 15.

As the dividend is guaranteed by the New York Central railroad checks will be sent direct to the holder through the banks. The New England Telephone and Telegraph company has declared a quarterly dividend of 1 1/4 per cent., payable November 15.

Western Union Beef company, whose stock jumped up 3 or 4 per cent. Wednesday last week, has declared a semi-annual dividend of 1 1/2 per cent., payable November 25. The Bank of the State of New York has declared a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent.

Several of the savings banks of the state hold the stock of this bank, which is one of the oldest in New York city. Pennsylvania railroad has declared a semi-annual dividend of 2 1/2 per cent., payable the last day of November. With the usual courtesy of that company dividends to women only are paid one day earlier. Sale of the new stock of the American Bell Telephone company to the amount of $58,000 was sold at auction last week by Messrs. E. L. Day & Co. at 106 per share, par value being $100.

This is thought to be a most excellent sale. The sale of the Meriden trolley system to the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad is practically confirmed, and it is announced of the transfer of 9,000 shares of the stock to the latter company. The bonded indebtedness of the trolley road is $500,000. Prices are supposed to be about $180,000 or about 20 per cent. on the stock.

Clearings for the New Haven banks for the last week in October were nearly $2,000,000 in amount, and as is usual in recent years, are largely in excess of the corresponding week of previous years. By days the figures are:

Table with columns for dates (Oct. 28, 29, 30, 31, Nov. 1, 2) and amounts. Total for the month of October is $1,252,635.50.

REV. SPENCER H. BRAY.

His Success in His Evangelistic Work—A Former New Haven Pastor. Rev. Spencer H. Bray, formerly of this city, is meeting with marked success in his evangelistic work. Mr. Bray is well remembered here by hundreds, he having held two or more pastorates in New Haven, and his successful work as an evangelist is widely known. He was afterward for years an assistant in the large field in New York occupied by the late Rev. Dr. William H. Taylor, for many years pastor of the Broadway Tabernacle. Mr. Bray is again in the evangelistic field of labor. His address is No. 141 West Ninety-sixth street, New York city.

One of the most noted revivals of this year in the United States was that conducted by Mr. Bray for six weeks at Huntington, L. I. The Methodist, Baptist and two Presbyterian churches of the town united at these meetings, which were held six nights per week.

Among the many letters of hearty endorsement of Mr. Bray's labors, the following letter from the late Rev. Dr. William M. Taylor, who was for so many years one of the most famous clergymen of America, is of special interest:

I have had for nearly six years the pleasure of working in close fellowship with the Rev. Spencer H. Bray, who has for all these years been the pastor of the Bethany church in connection with the Broadway Tabernacle church of New York. I regard him as a man of singularly Christian spirit. He has a clear head, a devout heart, and is wise in the winning of souls. I have never heard him preach, as we were both so much engaged in our separate spheres, but judging from the interest of his people in him he must be apt to teach. His prayers have been always most edifying to me. Indeed I may say that I regard him as specially gifted in that exercise. He is earnest in working among the young. During one of the years of his Bethany pastorate, there was a special interest in the church, with the result of many additions to its membership. He is wise in counsel, modest in department, kind in disposition, and in every way such a man as any congregation might choose for its pastor with advantage.

WILLIAM M. TAYLOR, D. D.

Same Power as Constables. Shadrach McClair of Orange and Charles I. Curtis of East Haven, this state, who have been appointed by the governor agents of the Law and Order league, are the first appointments made under the new law, and more than four can be made. They have power in any part of the state to serve processes, make arrests upon legal warrants in all matters relating to violations of chastity, gaming, and the sale of intoxicating liquor, as constables have in their respective towns, and receive the same fees.

PERSONAL.

William Ellis of New York city is in town superintending the work of fitting up the new First National bank.

George W. Wadleigh, the general manager for E. E. Rice, is in town making arrangements for the great production of "1892" the latter part of the week at the Hyperion.

Mrs. L. W. Quintard, who has been superintendent of nurses at the general hospital for the past five years, has gone to take her new and more lucrative position in St. Luke's hospital in New York. She will be succeeded here by Miss Sarah Henry, a graduate of the Royal Infirmary of London, England.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Fredericks of 122 Goffe street are the happy parents of a bright, bouncing girl baby, which was born early yesterday morning.

Mr. Otto Kenkus of 133 St. John street was kept busy yesterday receiving the congratulations of his friends. It is a girl and weighed seven pounds.

GOES TO THE WEST INDIES.

Mr. E. W. Sperry sailed on the steamer Caribee from New York for Santa Cruz, West Indies, on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Sperry goes to Santa Cruz for his health and will reside while there on the plantation of his brother-in-law, Mr. Perkins. Mr. Sperry has been in the employ of the Fish Hook company for over twenty-five years, and is an officer in Admiral Foote post here.

ADMIRAL FOOTE POST.

There was a large attendance of the members of Admiral Foote post, G. A. R., at its regular meeting on Saturday night. After the regular routine business had been transacted the Admiral Foote quartet rendered some selections and H. C. McCullom sang a solo. The main feature of the meeting was the reading of the log of the Admiral Foote Fishing club during its recent trip, by E. E. Tisdale, the purser of the club. The club usually makes a trip to Block Island for the purpose of fishing, but this year the array of yachts at the island was so imposing that they spent more time in sightseeing than in fishing. They made the trip in the schooner Dan Sany. The following are the officers of the club: Admiral, A. C. Hendrick; surgeon, L. A. Dickinson; paymaster, Nathan Easterbrook, Jr.; ordnance officer, Colonel Timothy Dacey; signal officer, J. D. Fetter; ensign, A. H. Embler; purser, E. E. Tisdale; captain, T. E. Benedict; mate, Morris Hemingway; chef, W. Hitchings; sailor, G. Dearborn.

At the close of the reading of the log the club presented its admiral with a handsome plush chair.

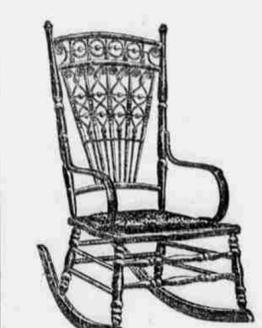

Next Saturday night the annual inspection of the post will be made by Department Inspector G. R. Bevans of Danbury. The department commander and his staff are also expected to be present. All members are requested to be present in uniform.

YALE NOTES.

The annual fall games of the Yale Athletic association, which were to have been held at the Yale field Saturday, were postponed on account of rain to Saturday, November 9.

Dr. Edward Pick, the famous English authority on memory culture, will lecture to the students of the theological seminary this evening at 7 o'clock, most likely in the chapel. Dates for the course, which is to follow the introductory address to-night, will be arranged after the lecture. Judging from the doctor's reputation and the substantial value of his lectures, a large attendance is a foregone conclusion. Beside Yale men, representatives of the press only are admitted.

Superintendent of Schools Kendall has arranged the following dates for a course of lectures to be delivered by Dr. Pick exclusively to the teachers of New Haven and vicinity: At 4:30 p. m. November 8, 13, 25, December 2, possibly at Dr. Munger's church or else at one of the school buildings.

This is Dr. Pick's last season in the United States, after which he expects to return to England and retire from a public life extending over fifty years.

At Epworth M. E. Church.

At the Epworth M. E. church yesterday forenoon the pastor, Rev. Mr. Griffin, held communion service and made a short address appropriate to the occasion. One new member, a lady, was admitted to the church.
