

NEWS OF CONNECTICUT.

INTERESTING HAPPENING IN VARIOUS PARTS OF THE STATE.

Reception Last Night to Congressman Henry Schoner Floated Again—Death of Mate Gozalo of Steamer Rosedale—Medals for Bravery Awarded by the State Humane Society—A $10,000 Fire in Waterbury—A $5,000 Fire in Hartford—Stolen Horse Recovered—Prize Winners at Bridgeport's Bench Show—Forty Hod Carriers Strike—The East Hartford Bridge Case.

Rockville, Nov. 26.—There was a large attendance at the reception tendered to Congressman E. S. Henry at Memorial hall to-night. Alderman Heath was president of the meeting and seventy prominent republicans acted in the capacity of vice presidents and secretary. Judge Dwight Loomis of Hartford was the speaker of the evening. He congratulated Congressman Henry and the people upon the fact that Mr. Henry was to go to Washington. The congressman replied in a short speech in which he touched upon the tariff a little. He said that the people had elected the representatives upon a tariff issue and that some change in the tariff should be made. He would vote for tariff revision and for higher protection and was of the opinion that congress should act without regard to the president.

THE MORRISON MACHINE COMPANY.

Willimantic, Nov. 26.—The case of E. A. Buck, trustee of the Morrison Machine company, is doing a vast deal in bringing out the true condition of the affairs of this concern. The trial will continue throughout the week.

SCHOONER M. S. CROSBY.

Stonington, Nov. 26.—The schooner Mary S. Crosby, which has been ashore here for several days, was hauled off this afternoon by Captain Scott with the tug John Morgan, and taken inside the breakwater. The cargo was saved, but the vessel is twenty years old and in poor shape, and will probably prove worthless.

MEDALS FOR BRAVERY AWARDED.

Hartford, Nov. 26.—The Humane society to-day awarded three medals for bravery in saving human life. Following were the awardees: A bronze medal to Grace Colvin, aged nine, of Bristol, who saved the life of Mary Roberts, who was buried in a sand heap.

A bronze medal to Henry Zifleski, aged fourteen, of Hartford, who saved Francis Collingridge eleven, from drowning in Park river.

A silver medal to Thomas Winters of Hartford for saving three men from drowning in the Connecticut river.

DEATH OF THE MATE OF STEAMER ROSEDALE.

Bridgeport, Nov. 26.—Louis Gozalo, aged fifty, first mate on the steamer Rosedale, died at his home in this city to-night as the result of injuries sustained at the thirty-first street landing of the steamer in New York at 3:15 this afternoon. Gozalo was standing on the side of the steamer outside the guard. Of a sudden the boat gave a lurch and caught Gozalo between the guard and a wharf girder. He was badly pinched, but suffered no pain until some time after, when he became unconscious, grew gradually worse and died ten minutes after reaching his home in this city.

ONE MAN ARRESTED.

Winsted, Nov. 26.—Andrew Smechura, a Swede, was arrested this morning on suspicion of having been one of the thieves who entered Sherman Bunnell's residence on the New Hartford road last night. He had in his possession several burglar's tools and wore three complete suits of clothes. He was found asleep in a freight car and was arraigned this morning on a charge of vagrancy. He was sent to jail for thirty days and fined $10 and costs for resisting an officer. He will be re-arrested on the charge of burglary as soon as he serves out the present sentence.

FIRE IN MERIDEN.

Meriden, Nov. 26.—Fire at 5:45 to-night did $200 damage in Pottery. Art studio. The explosion of a lamp was the cause.

SUIT BROUGHT.

Hartford, Nov. 26.—Lawyer Hugh O'Flaherty of this city has brought suit against James A. Martin, editor and proprietor of the East Hartford Enterprise, claiming $5,000 damages. Editor Martin's body was attached, but he was afterwards released under a bond of $10,000. The suit is for libel.

HORSE RECOVERED.

New London, Nov. 26.—Sheriff Hawkins has recovered the horse that was stolen from F. Learned of this city Sunday night. He found the animal at Black Hall, Lyme, where it was left by the thieves, who got away when they found the hunt for them too hot. The horse is a very valuable one.

$10,000 FIRE IN WATERBURY.

Waterbury, Nov. 26.—Fire broke out this noon in the upper floor of a wooden factory on Bank street occupied by the American Ring company, and burned the roof off, doing damage to the extent of $10,000. The factory will be open to-morrow morning with a temporary roof thereon. The origin of the fire, which was discovered in a closet used for the storage of twine, is unknown. Several workmen narrowly escaped suffocation from the smoke. The factory was fully insured.

PRIZE WINNERS IN BRIDGEPORT'S BENCH SHOW.

Bridgeport, Nov. 26.—The following prize winners were named this afternoon by the judges at the big bench show in progress here: Bull terriers, Starlight, its fifty-first, first prize, owned F. F. Dole, New Haven; pointers, Wild Lily, Benjamin Lewis, Middleboro, Mass.; open pointed dogs, Spendthrift, Rinada Pointer Kennels, Massachusetts; L. I. challenge greyhounds, Boss Wood, Daisy, Toon and Thomas, Salem, Mass.; open greyhounds, Southern Belle, Toon & Thomas, Salem, Mass.; challenge fox hounds, Songster, Noel Moore, Oakland, N. J.; open fox hounds, Mainstay, Henry Jarrett, Chestnut Hill, Pa.; open fox hounds, Friendly, Hill Money, Oakland, N. J. FORTY HOD CARRIERS STRIKE. Hartford, Nov. 26.—Forty hod carriers employed by Contractor W. F. O'Neill on the new Pope tube mill at Parkville struck this morning. The hod carriers, bricklayers and stone masons are all members of the Central Labor union, but the hod carriers struck because two of the bricklayers formerly worked with non-union hod carriers. Contractor O'Neill refuses to discharge the two bricklayers.

THAT BRIDGE CASE.

Hartford, Nov. 26.—The commission appointed by the last general assembly to arbitrate the claims against the state on account of the unexecuted contract with the Berlin Iron Bridge Co. for the new East Hartford bridge met in the supreme court room to-day. The contract was made under the provisions of an act passed in 1883, which was abrogated by an act in 1885. The commissioners are ex-Judge Dwight Loomis, Comptroller Mead and Treasurer Hodge. Under the law they are prohibited from allowing claims of over $40,000 in the aggregate. Charles E. Gross, attorney for the Berlin Iron Bridge Co. presented claims aggregating $22,571, as follows: Expenses preparing plans and work on the proposed new bridge, $72,071; cost of temporary bridge, $18,000; legal expenses, $2,500. He also claimed that Comptroller Mead should not sit on the case, he having already held that the contract is invalid. The claims will probably go to the superior court for settlement, under a suit to be brought by the Berlin Iron Bridge company.

Two more claims were presented this afternoon, Case, Bryant & Case, of this city, for advice to the old board of bridge commissioners, and ex-Judge Henry Stoddard of New Haven, for services in writing an opinion as to the powers of the commission. The aggregate amount of the claims will reach nearly $100,000.

SALOON ROBBERY.

Hartford, Nov. 26.—At New Britain to-day Charles Gunning, seventeen, and Joseph O'Brien, an old offender, were held for trial in the superior court on the charge of breaking into a saloon in McCabe's block last night. Gunning implicated O'Brien in his confession.

$5,000 FIRE IN PLAINVILLE.

Hartford, Nov. 26.—Fire broke out in the garret of the Plainville Knitting company mill at Plainville this morning. The fire threatened to spread, and help was summoned from the New Britain fire department. Before the engine arrived the automatic sprinklers had quenched the flames. The loss to machinery principally, is $5,000, insured.

AT THE AGE OF NINETY-FIVE.

Edwin Bolles, one of Hartford's former business men, is dead.

Hartford, Nov. 26.—Edwin Bolles, who was ninety-five years of age in October, died, Monday, at the residence of Mrs. Sylvester Bissell, on Farmington avenue. He had been in feeble health for several months and had left the house only two or three times in two years. The deceased was born in this city and spent seventy years in business life here. He was a member of the Church of the Redeemer, and was one of the oldest Universalists in the state. He was the father of Rev. E. Courtland Bolles of New York, pastor of a Universalist church in that city, and a graduate of Trinity college.

In his early days Mr. Bolles was a clerk in the Hartford postoffice, beginning his services at the time of Andrew Jackson. His memory was not distinct, and there was some difficulty for months past in talking with him because of his impaired hearing. His eyesight was also seriously affected by age. The funeral of Mr. Bolles will take place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

CONNECTICUT AWARDS.

J. H. Vaill, secretary of the Connecticut commission at Atlanta, announces that a preliminary report of the jury of awards of the Cotton States and International exposition has been made public, in which appear the following awards to exhibitors from Connecticut: Winchester Repeating Arms company, New Haven, arms and ammunition, gold medal; Bridgeport Wood Finishing company, New Milford, wood filler, varnishes, etc., silver medal; Bridgeport Elastic Web company, Bridgeport, elastic going for shoes, silver medal; Glasgow Twilled Thread Lace company, Glasgow, twilled thread for making lace, silver medal; Isaac E. Salisbury Still Silent.

London, Nov. 26.—Prime Minister Salisbury has not yet replied to the memorandum of Mr. Olney, the American secretary, on the Venezuelan affair. The foreign office declines to state whether the reply will be transmitted through Ambassador Bayard of Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador at Washington.

Short in Accounts.

Calais, Me., Nov. 26.—Sometime between midnight and 4 o'clock this morning William K. Ker, postmaster of Calais, left his residence, and all efforts to trace him or discover his whereabouts have been unavailing. The general opinion is that he has committed suicide. He is $2,000 short in his accounts, and his bondsmen have taken charge of the office. Ker was appointed by President Cleveland and took possession January 1.

Captain Eakins Dismissed.

New York, Nov. 26.—The police commissioners by a vote of 3 to 1 dismissed Captain Joseph B. Eakins from the department. The charges on which the captain was dismissed were neglect of duty in permitting the existence of disorderly houses in his precinct and were brought by the Parkhurst society. Colonel Grant was the commissioner voting against the dismissal of Eakins.

Keeper of His Brother.

Boston, Nov. 26.—Stanley B. Smith, of Detroit was to-day appointed special United States deputy marshal to act as keeper of his brother, Rev. Frank Hyatt Smith, until orders are received from Washington. Rev. Mr. Smith, pending trial on a charge of sending scurrilous and defamatory postal cards through the mails, was adjudged insane and was to have been taken to government asylum at Washington.

Cabinet Holds a Meeting.

Washington, Nov. 26.—President Cleveland and the members of his cabinet with the exception of Secretary Morton who is in Nebraska, assembled at the white house to-day for their regular semi-weekly meeting. Secretary Olney remained with the president after the others had left, presumably with reference to that part of the message relating to foreign affairs. There is reason to believe that Alaskan boundaries, the Cuban revolution, the position of American missionaries in Turkey and other engrossing topics will lead off in the presidential message for 1895. It is understood the document will be longer than usual.

Everybody Talking About It.

Everybody is talking about the great free offer of Dr. Green's, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, and who discovered that wonderful medicine, Dr. Green's Nervina blood and nerve remedy. He makes a specialty of treating patients through letter correspondence, and all who accept his offer are astonished at the marvelous success of this method. His office is at 25 West Fourteenth street, New York city, where he receives and carefully examines every letter sent to him by persons describing their cases and telling him their symptoms. After thoroughly studying each case he answers the letter, explaining the cause of each symptom and telling a sure way to get well and strong. He makes the patients understand exactly what alls them and tells them all about their complaint, and all this is entirely free of charge. They save the expense of a trip to the city, have no fee to pay, and have the benefit of the best medical advice and consultation. Here is an opportunity for you to get well, reader, you can either accept or reject it. Which will you do?

Are You Ever Annoyed.

by a buzzing or roaring sound in your head? Have you difficulty in hearing distinctly? Are you troubled with a continual dropping of mucus, irritating the throat and causing you to cough? Is your breath unpleasantly affected and accompanied with bad taste? Is your hearing less acute? If so, you have catarrh and should at once procure a bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, the best known remedy. The Balm will give instant relief.

Still Lower Prices Were Made for Tobacco and Leather.

New York, Nov. 26.—The Industrials monopolized speculative attention at the stock exchange to-day and still lower prices were made for Tobacco and Leather. A powerful bear clique was active in both these specialties, and while it succeeded in bringing about quite a decline in Leather, Tobacco made but a small net loss. In a general way the Industrials are affected by rumors of congressional interference, while Tobacco and Leather are also influenced by special causes, such as lower prices for their products, litigation and fierce competition. This, combined with bear manipulations has demoralized small holders and considerable long stock has been warketed within the past ten days. Tobacco fell from 81 1/4 to 78 1/4 and subsequently rallied to 80 1/4. Leather dropped from 64 1/2 to 62 1/2. The other Industrials declined 1/2 to 1 per cent, and later recovered most of the loss. Chicago Gas fell 1/4 to 61 1/2 and later returned to 62 1/2.

The railway issues continue firm and as a rule the active issue made slight net gains on the day. London was a moderate buyer of St. Paul, and in the gold engagements for to-morrow's European steamers $1,200,000 were smaller than expected. Advances from London were to the effect that the settlement there was progressing favorably. Home railroads reporting traffic returns for the third week of November made favorable showings, except in the cases of the Southwestern systems, which are feeling the effect of the falling off in the yield of cotton. The Grangers and Manhattan were in the best demand and the latter rose to 10 1/4 on covering of shorts. In the inactive list Peoria and Eastern fell 2 to 7 and Hocking Valley 3/4 to 19 1/4.

Speculation closed irregular. Net changes show advances of 1/4 to 1 per cent in the railway list, Sugar and Chicago Gas and declines of 3/4 to 2 1/2 per cent in Tobacco, General Electric and Leather. The total sales were $25,200 shares, including 52,500 shares of Tobacco, 36,400 Sugar, and 27,900 Leather. St. Paul, which was the most active railway stock, figured for only 9,400 shares.

Mining stocks, which have been neglected for a long time past, loomed into prominence. The transactions were 43,800 Phoenix of Arizona at 4 @ 10c; 10,700 Enterprise at 50 @ 95 @ 60c; and 200 Alton at 40c. The excitement in Copper Creek and Leadville has created an inquiry for mining shares here and a movement is on foot to start an independent exchange for dealings in this class of stocks in this city.

Bonds were irregular, but in the main lower. Sales were $1,320,000. Following are the closing prices reported by Prince & Whately, bankers and brokers, 46 Broadway, New York.
