CONGRESSIONAL LABOR

Cullom Wants to Know, You Know.

Debates on the Imported Liquor Bill.

Enstis, of Louisiana, Takes a Firm Stand for Federalism—Little Done in the House

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—In the Senate today Blackburn was excused from further service on the committee on Territories. Allison presented a remonstrance from citizens of Burlington, Iowa, against the imposition of duties on ores from Mexico.

Cullom offered a resolution calling on the secretary of the treasury for information as to the authority under which merchandise in bond, appraised or unappraised, and goods of domestic origin, are permitted to be forwarded between the Atlantic and Pacific ports of the United States over the Canadian Pacific Railroad. Also to report by what authority merchandise other than the products of contiguous countries are permitted to enter the United States under consular seal and proceed to their destination without the entry or examination at the port of first arrival.

"There was," he said, "evidence of irregularities that the country was losing some of its revenue." The resolution went over until tomorrow.

The Senate then resumed consideration of the imported liquor bill, the question being on the substitute reported yesterday from the judiciary committee. Allison argued against the constitutional right of Congress to delegate powers back to the states. George supported the bill.

Enstis said the effect of the passage of the bill would be that States would be coming to Congress soon and asking permission to collect a coal and oil, dressed beef and other articles and finally build up an impenetrable wall about their borders against products from foreign countries and other States. He was a States Right Democrat of the strictest sect and in favor of the States exercising to an unlimited extent the rights which they had reserved. But the powers which they had lodged in the Federal government, and lodged wisely, he wanted the federal government to exercise exclusively.

After further debate the bill went over until tomorrow.

The vice-president announced the appointment of Blackburn as a member of the committee on appropriations, and Carlisle as a member of the committee on finance, territories and woman suffrage. The conference report on the bill to simplify the law in relation to the collection of revenue was presented and agreed to.

The Senate then went into executive session, after which it adjourned.

In the House.
WASHINGTON, May 27.—The conference on the general pension bill had another meeting today, but accomplished nothing, and adjourned until Monday. McKinley submitted the conference report upon the customs administrative bill and moved to adopt the same. Carried, yeas 277, nays 12. The speaker pro tem counted a quorum. The Democrats as a rule refrained from voting.

The House then went into committee of the whole on the river and harbor appropriation bill. Some minor amendments were offered and rejected. McCrea raised a point of order against those portions of the bill which prescribed a penalty for the maintenance of obstructive bridges across navigable waters. Pending a decision the committee rose and the House adjourned.

Confirmations and Appointments.
WASHINGTON, May 27.—The following nominations were sent to the Senate today:

TRYING TO SMUGGLE IN.
Efforts of Chinamen To Cross the Frontier Via the Canadian Route.
TROY, N. Y., May 27.—Five Chinamen are detained at Mahone for violating the exclusion law in crossing the Canadian frontier into this State. The prisoners admitted that they came from Montreal. Two Americans came with them. One was arrested and it is believed he is one of a gang that has a contract to smuggle into the United States 200 Chinamen. The other American escaped. The Chinamen will be sent back.

BUSINESS INCREASING.
Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Denver and Rio Grande.
DENVER, Colo., May 27.—The fourteenth annual meeting of the stockholders of the Denver and Rio Grande railroad was held at the office of President Moffatt this afternoon, at which eighty per cent. of the stock was represented. The old board of Directors was re-elected.

They will meet at New York, June 5, for the purpose of electing officers. The gross earnings of the company for the last fiscal year were $8,046,603.35, an increase over last year of $768,437.

California Horses in Chicago.
CHICAGO, May 27.—Tom Williams' racing stable arrived from California yesterday and is now quartered at Washington Park.

A Valuable Estate.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—The appraisers of the estate of the late Kate M. McDonough filed their report today. They value the estate at $2,091,681. The deceased owned $1,466,478 of United States 4 per cent bonds, about $10,000 of stock in various corporations, $150,000 in bank. The remainder consists of real estate, the California Theatre property, which is included therein, is valued at $103,162.

High Water at Goshen.
GOSHEN, Cal., May 27.—Owing to the rise in neighboring streams over 1,000 acres of wheat within three miles of Goshen are overflowed and will be a total loss. Travel on the wagon roads is suspended. The water is up to the track on the Visalia railroad.

Wants a Settlement.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—John Mackenzie, who from November, 1882, to December, 1886, did business in this city as a stock broker, but was finally obliged to succumb, today petitioned the superior court to be declared an insolvent debtor. The amount of his liabilities was $277,999, but Mackenzie states that his creditors have received a dividend of thirteen and one-half cents on the dollar, and that the receiver of the estate is still discharging his trusts.

AFTER THE APACHES.

GENERAL MILES PROPOSES TO RUN THEM DOWN.

The President Takes Joint Action for Vigorous Work by the War Department—Pursuit to Begin at Once.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Major-General Miles, in a telegram to the War Department, says that the Commanding General of the Department of Arizona has been directed to make such disposition of his troops as will make his territory untenable for the hostile Indians and give protection to the settlers.

TROOPS ORDERED OUT.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 26.—Major-General Miles this afternoon issued orders for the troops at Fort Lowell, Grant, Bowie and Huachuca, in Arizona, and Bayard, in New Mexico, to keep a sharp lookout for a band of Apaches who have been committing outrages in Arizona, and who on Saturday, ambushed and killed Robert Hardie, a Los Angeles lawyer. Pursuit of the hostiles is ordered.

RETURN OF HARDIE'S BODY.
LOS ANGELES, May 27.—The body of Robert Hardie, who was murdered by the Apaches near Tombstone, arrived tonight. The funeral will be held tomorrow. The Bar association met this afternoon and adopted fitting resolutions. Hardie was married eighteen months ago and leaves a wife and child.

ALL FOR PROHIBITION.
Women Parading the Streets With Banners in a South Dakota Town.
VERMILION, S. D., May 27.—Today was set for hearing in the case against Druggist Salmar for a permit to sell liquor under the prohibitory law. About 300 students of the University, half of them ladies, quit their classes and paraded the streets of the town with banners, shouting for prohibition.

Over one hundred banners with various mottoes against liquor were carried. The excitement was intense. The protest was intended to be an emphatic one as it is alleged that Salmar has been violating the liquor law for a year. His case was continued until Thursday, when some trouble is expected.

STARLING STRANGLED.
He is Taken From a Wagon, Tied to a Tree and Shot.
SELMA, N. C., May 27.—When a man named Starling was returning home from this place, in a wagon, with his wife, on Saturday, a crowd of men seized him and took him into the woods, tied him to a tree and shot him. Starling was a rough character, who had long been a terror to the neighborhood, and was more than suspected of having killed his mother-in-law and brother-in-law, in the hopes of obtaining their property.

Is This a Bluff?
BINGHAMTON, May 27.—In the judgment of some citizens the shortage in the accounts of C. A. Thompson, Cashier of the Oswego National bank, will amount to $75,000. Others state it will not exceed $20,000. He speculated in stocks. Thompson declares that if pushed to the wall, he will expose two of the community's most substantial citizens, alleging them to be implicated in the shortage.

An Arizona Nugget.
PRESCOTT, Ariz., May 27.—A gold nugget weighing thirty-seven ounces and valued at $700, found in the Big Bug district Saturday, was on exhibition in the Bank of Arizona today.

The Fall of Gould.
NEW YORK, May 27.—George Gould has resigned the presidency of the Pacific Mail and of the Houston and Texas Central railroads. The former company elected C. S. Brule president and Samuel Thomas was elected to the directorship.

ANGRY NEWFOUNDLAND.
Makes a Threatening Demand on Queen Victoria.
LONDON, May 27.—Lord Knollyford, colonial secretary, has received an angry address to the queen from the Newfoundland legislature. The address protests in the loudest manner against French aggressions, bounties and smuggling, which it says the English government appears to tolerate, and absolutely declines to consent to arbitration in the lobster dispute. The legislature calls upon the Imperial government to cancel the removal of the lobstereries and stop all fishing privileges until the bounties are abolished, threatening to take its own measures if the government refuses.

SOME GOOD WORK.

THE TERRITORIAL GRAND JURY BEGINS BUSINESS.

Two Reports and Six Indictments Handed in Yesterday—List of the Unfortunates.

Under the direction of District Attorney Frank Cox, the Territorial Grand Jury got down to business very rapidly, coming into court twice during the day and bringing a total of six indictments, and that without yet reaching the case of the Chinese highlanders. The jury investigated and ignored two charges, the first being that of assault with a deadly weapon against Hop Lee, and the second that of grand larceny against Consencion Garalaz.

An indictment was found for a burglary against Jesus Taos, who was charged with having broken into the harness shop of Robert G. Andre on the night of April 25th. Taos, together with all the other parties who were indicted yesterday, is already in the county jail.

William Fox, who had the scarcely concealed forethought to endeavor to raise money upon a check that did not belong to him, had a true bill for forgery returned against him. It is charged in the indictment that on the 6th day of May Fox had in his possession a check for $35 drawn on the Pacific Bank of San Francisco, payable to Bert Spencer. To this check Fox reported the endorsement of Spencer's name, and hence the present trouble.

On May 2 Charles Gano drew a gun and attempted the life of James E. Simms, Jr., for which offense he now stands indicted of assault with intent to commit murder.

John Paul was sanguinary, also, for in the early days of May he tried to carve Wm. S. Collins with an axe, the Grand Jury returning a true bill for assault with a deadly weapon.

Leonardo Garcia was indicted for assault with a deadly weapon in having attempted to use a large and able-bodied knife upon the person of W. L. Mitchener on May 2, and Juan Jarras had a true bill returned against him for a like offense, he having selected Marshal Moreno as his victim, and May 1 as the time for the commission of his crime.

A GOOD MAN GONE.
Death of a Highly Respected Citizen of Phoenix.
At 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning died George Marlow, one of the best known and most highly respected residents of the Salt River valley. The immediate cause of death was pneumonia, and Mr. Marlow's sudden taking off is the sadder for the fact that it is now only five weeks since he was married to an estimable young lady of Phoenix, Miss Ismert.

George Marlow was born in Canada just forty years ago, and has been in Arizona twenty years—during the greater part of which time he has followed the stock raising business with such success that his estate is now valued at $1,000,000. He has resided in Phoenix since 1888.

From 1885 to 1889, he was a partner with J. B. Kelley, in the cattle and sheep commission business, afterwards conducting the business alone. Mr. Marlow had stock ranges; one at Sycamore, Yavapai county, eighty miles northwest of Phoenix, and one near the superstitious mountains fifty miles east. He also left two well cultivated ranches, embracing a quarter section each, distant eleven and thirteen miles respectively west from Phoenix. During the past three months he has shipped out of Salt River valley between 3,000 and 4,000 head of "mountain" fifty miles east. He was public spirited, temperate and a model man in every way.

The funeral will take place today at 9:30 a. m. The procession of friends will form at his father-in-law Peter Ismert's residence on Madison street, and at 10 o'clock services will begin in the Catholic church.

THE TRANSFER OF TROOPS.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—The first troop of the Fourth Cavalry, from Arizona, in command of Captain O. E. Wood, arrived last night and will be stationed at the Presidio. Troop K, Captain Dorst commanding, is expected to arrive today.

CATTLEMEN ALARMED.
The European Market Overstocked and Shippers in a Bad Plight.
NEW YORK, May 27.—Shipments of American cattle to Europe, alive and dead, last week amounted to 15,000 head, a falling-off of 25 per cent. from the week before a loss of $45,000. The condition of the English market has become so bad that shippers find it less disastrous to keep their cattle here and lose $20 a head freight on the

How It Is Being Pushed in Every Direction.

The Unitarians in Annual Session at Boston.

Proceedings of the Baptist Home Missionary Society—The Congregationalists at Boston.

Boston, May 27.—The sixth annual meeting of the American Unitarian Association began today. The nominating committee was instructed last year to formulate and adopt a method for the election of directors. They reported today, recommending as professional works for the year the method used in the election of Harvard overseers, with certain modifications.

In regard to women on the board, the report says that while it is fitting that men shall have the practical management, it is equally fit that women participate therein, and recommends that in every annual election the name of one woman be placed in the list of nominees. This would secure the presence of three women directors on the board at present.

In regard to the number of directors on the side, the New England Committee finds three members from the Middle and southern States and three from the Western States and the Pacific Coast as the proper proportion.

The committee presented a number of nominations of officers. It was accepted and the committee discharged, but the report was not adopted. The association then proceeded to vote on the plan of nomination for the coming year, finally deciding upon sending twenty-four names for directors to all the life members and church and missionary societies entitled to delegates from which they are to be selected on the geographical lines already laid down and returned to the committee.

The report of the directors stated that the record of the year was satisfactory. Men and money are in demand, however. The report speaks especially hopefully of the Workin Japan.

BAPTIST HOME MISSIONS.

Annual Meeting of the Society Being Held at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 27.—At today's meeting of the Baptist Home missionary society, Rev. Dr. Colby, of Ohio, presented an account of missions in Mexico. He lamented that only 14,000 Mexicans were Protestants.

Rev. Dr. Foster, of the Methodist church, brought fraternal greetings. In the course of his remarks he said that war will result if the English language would not be taught in the public schools.

A committee to whom was referred the petition of the National League reported favoring its objects. The League seeks to secure constitutional and legislative safeguards for the protection of the common school system and to prevent all sectarian or denominational appropriations of public funds.

Rev. H. A. Delano, of Illinois, reported temperance resolutions, deploring the results of the recent decision of the Supreme Court and hoping Congress would pass such laws as to render the decision inoperative. Resolutions were also adopted condemning lotteries and declaring that no State should license them.

Congregational Sunday Schools.
BOSTON, May 27.—Reports read at the annual meeting of the Congregational Sunday School and Publication Society today showed encouraging progress. During the year 531 new Sunday schools were organized, and 1,317 schools in forty-seven states and territories have been aided. S. D. Caperin, of Boston was elected president. A number of other officers were also elected.

HE LIKES IT.

BREWSTER CAMERON IS IN LOVE WITH PHOENIX.

A Beautiful City Surrounded by Thrifty Orange Groves—The Capital Permanently Located.

Hon. Brewster Cameron, who visited Phoenix one day last week, has been interviewed by the Tucson Star, and has expressed the warmest admiration for the Capital City.

"I noticed a great improvement in Phoenix," said Mr. Cameron, "since I visited that city last fall, notably in the number of elegant residences recently erected there. Frank Nicholson, who formerly lived in this town, has built a really beautiful dwelling house in Phoenix, and General Clark Churchill has almost completed a magnificent residence there, one which would attract attention in any city of one hundred thousand inhabitants for its architectural beauty."

"But no person can get any appreciable idea of the future of Phoenix from the improvements being made in the city, notwithstanding the fact that they are many and creditable. To properly appreciate the fact, which has long been apparent to me, that Phoenix is destined to be a city of twenty or thirty thousand inhabitants in the near future, it is only necessary to drive into the surrounding country, where innumerable thrifty orchards bear silent testimony to the fact that the entire valley will soon be densely populated."

"I was no less surprised than delighted to see, near the falls of the Arizona canal, some of the thickest orange groves I have ever seen anywhere, and I have visited many orange orchards in California, Florida and Sonora, Mexico. For the pleasure of this seeing, in its infancy, one of the greatest sources of future wealth to their beautiful valley, I am indebted to the kindness of Mr. Lincoln Fowler, whom I have long known to be one of the most public-spirited citizens in Arizona."

Fortunately, the Capital is permanently located in Phoenix, so that that question can never again become an irritating element in the politics of Arizona. It ought now to be the pride of every citizen of our Territory to do everything in his power to advertise the unsurpassed fertility of the valley in which the capital is situated and to aid in building up and beautifying the capital city itself. Development of this valley will be speedily followed by the reclamation and settlement of every valley in Arizona where the citrus fruits will grow, and if Phoenix is made a credit to our people, every citizen of our beloved Territory will enjoy his full share of her fame, for a capital effort of Arizona can only be secured by a union of effort on the part of all our patriotic sons."

INTER-AMERICAN BANK

The Plan Laid Before Congress.

Draft of the Bill to Be Presented.

One Result of the Pan-American Conference—Financial Transactions Prescribed.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The President today transmitted to Congress a letter from the Secretary of State enclosing the report of the International Bank conference on the International Bank scheme. In his message the President says it is not proposed to involve the United States in any financial responsibility but only to give the proposed bank a corporate franchise and to promote public confidence by requiring its condition and transactions to be submitted to the scrutiny similar to that exercised over our domestic banking system. The subject is submitted for the consideration of Congress, in the belief that it will be found possible to promote the end desired by legislation so guided as to avoid all just criticism.

In his letter to the President Secretary Blaine sets forth the advantages to be derived from such a project, and says in part:

The merchants of this country are as dependent upon the bankers of Europe in their financial transactions with their American neighbors as they are upon the ship owners of Great Britain and their transportation facilities, and they will continue to labor under those embarrassments until direct banking systems are established.

The report of the committee of the Pan American Conference presents a simple and easy method of attaining the enactment of the measure recommended will in the judgment of the conference result in the establishment of proper facilities for inter-American banking. A bill has been prepared at the State Department to carry into effect the recommendations of the committee.

The bill designates the United States delegates to the Pan-American Conference commissioners to receive subscriptions to the capital stock. The International American Bank books for that purpose may be opened in Washington, New York and other principal cities in the American republic. As soon as 50,000 shares are subscribed the subscribers shall have the usual powers to organize a corporation which shall have the same privileges now enjoyed by banks in general. The acquisition of real estate, however, is limited to 15 per cent of the capital stock paid in. The corporation may be designated by the secretary of the treasury as a depository for public money and may be employed as a financial agent of the government. The principal officers shall be in Washington or New York with power to open branch offices in the United States, Mexico, South and Central America. The capital stock is fixed at $10,000,000 in $100 shares, which may be increased by a two-thirds vote, but not exceed $20,000,000. Business may be begun as soon as 25 per cent of the subscriptions are paid in cash, but at least $5,000,000 must be paid in within two years.

The board of directors shall consist of twenty-five persons, not less than fifteen to be citizens of the United States. The stockholders are made liable to the amount of their subscriptions, but no more. The corporation shall file semi-annually with the secretary of the treasury a report of its financial condition, and its affairs shall at all times be open to the examination of the treasury department. Provisions are made for the appointment of a receiver and the winding up its affairs in case the capital stock is impaired.

Catholics in Politics.
MILWAUKEE, May 27.—In the convention of German Catholic societies this morning several speeches were made. A. J. Spammer, of St. Louis, said the Bennett law presented a political question which Catholics could not ignore because it directly affected the welfare of their institution.

Importing Contract Labor.
