

ONLY MANSLAUGHTER

IN THE VERDICT IN AN ORECHN CASE.

The Prisoner Relates His Little Story of How the Killing Occurred—Sentenced for Burglary.

In the District Court yesterday, Ah Chee, indicted for the murder of Tong Nuey, was convicted of manslaughter.

The case was called in the morning. Two witnesses were placed upon the stand by the defense to contradict the evidence offered by the prosecution as to threats made by Ah Chee to the deceased Chinaman.

The defendant himself then took the witness chair. His story, as to the material points, came out about as follows: "Tong Nuey, he owe me $230, and he pay me $36. That night, after supper, I take my book out and ask him pay me. He say, 'I no want to pay you.' Then we both go to bed. Tong Nuey he curse me then and I curse him back. Tong Nuey say, 'Suppose I no pay you, what can you do with me?' Tong then throw a hatchet at me and that hatchet fall near my bed. He then say, 'Well, I go to get up and kill you!' I get up, put on my shoes, pull out my pistol and shoot right at Nuey's bed. After that I put on my hat and start to run. I much afraid, and come up along the road and get to a wood pile and stay there twenty minutes. The Territory is in the office of World's Fair Commissioner, George F. Coates has resigned the office of Capitol Commissioner. Governor Wolfley yesterday appointed to the vacant place Mr. Walter Talbot of the firm of Talbot & Hubbard.

After defendant's testimony his case was closed. Assistant District Attorney Williams opened the argument for the prosecution. He made quite a hit by warning the jury not to place as much credence in Chee's hatchet story as they do in the George Washington episode. Messrs. Buck, Edwards and Siegelitz addressed the jury in behalf of the accused, and Frank Cox concluded for the Territory.

The case went to the jury at 2:30 p. m. Shortly after the jury requested permission to visit the scene of the killing. The request was granted and the sheriff escorted them out to the vegetable garden. The jury returned in about an hour and, after a brief consultation, announced a verdict of "guilty of manslaughter."

The prisoner received the verdict with evident satisfaction. Court then adjourned to 8:30 this morning. Yesterday morning an order was issued in the Harqua Hala mining case of Gray et al. vs. Horne, requiring defendant to show cause why he should not cease work upon the property in dispute.

Jesus Salazar was sentenced to a year's imprisonment in Yuma for burglary.

INSANE ASYLUM.

Good Work Being Done by the New Commissioners.

The Commissioners of the Territorial Insane Asylum held a special meeting yesterday afternoon. The most important piece of business transacted was the ordering of a contract in which the Phoenix Water Company agrees to pipe to the asylum and to supply that institution with all water necessary, through the building, in the stables, for fire plugs and for sprinkling the grounds at a net rate of $900 per annum. This will enable the Board to make a large saving in insurance, to improve the grounds in a superior manner and to adequately provide for cleanliness upon the premises.

The Secretary was instructed to advertise for bids for the construction of an outfall sewer to the river. As will be noted by these projects the asylum is in vigorous hands and improvement is the order of the day.

County Supervisors.

The Board of Supervisors met in special session yesterday. The following claims against the county were allowed: D. H. Wallace, abstract of lands for use of Assessor, $20; H. H. Logan, money advanced for telegrams to Washington, $73.87; W. T. Smith, money advanced for telegrams to Washington, $10.

The District Attorney and chairman were instructed to examine the books of the County Recorder's office, with a view to transcribing and indexing a number of the same. The sum of $100 was ordered transferred from the salary fund to the contingent fund. Board then adjourned till 10 o'clock this morning.

POLICE PICKINGS.

Fred Plumb, charged with disorderly conduct, failed to appear before Recorder Swartz yesterday morning, thereby forfeiting $10 bail.

Darkey "Boss" got ten days with "Bijah" Linsey for drunk and disorderly.

Two ordinary vagrants were given engagements on the chain gang for ten days apiece. In the afternoon about four o'clock Marshal Blankenship was summoned to take charge of an obstreperous pasano on Washington street, near City Hall. The Mexican showed fight and Billy had to straighten the kinks out of him somewhat roughly on the way to the prison.

As soon as the job was finished the Marshall was called by piercing yells to the alley back of Ellis & Brown's where he found a Chinaman making frantic efforts to get an end to the existence of Joe Gunn, the well-known restaurant keeper. The weapon of offense was a large axe. Blankenship made several masterly moves, got the axe away from the Celestial and started to tow him away. "John" did not take kindly to the escort and several times tried to escape, but a few well administered taps from the helve of the axe proved effective, and no time was lost in taking him down stairs.

FINE FRUIT.

Some Remarkable Specimens Brought to The Republican Office. A. L. Henshaw, owner of one of the finest fruit farms in the valley, yesterday presented THE REPUBLICAN with two remarkable specimens of his product. One was a short apricot twig on which were clustered, within a space of six inches, fourteen large and ripe "Royal" apricots. Were it not so demonstrated, it would seem impossible for so many fine apricots to mature on so small a sprig. The other exhibit was a small peach limb, less than half an inch in diameter at the largest end. To this branch were attached, inside of twenty-four inches of its length, no less than seventeen ripe and delicious peaches. These serve as samples of what the valley's capabilities are in the growing of fruit. To secure these results careful cultivation is needed, and industry may rival the success of Mr. Henshaw in any other part of the valley.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A brisk breeze lifted the dust from the streets in grimy clouds yesterday, and gave warning that the summer rains are near at hand.

Eschman has fixed up his electric lights in a manner novel and most attractive. The incandescent lamps are set like glowing stars at the end of floral brackets projecting from the wall above the shelving.

M. H. Sherman is erecting, on the line of the railroad, in the southwestern corner of Collins' addition, one of the finest grain warehouses of the valley. It is 50x100 feet in size, built of river cobblestones and cement. It will be as enduring as time.

Quite a solid train came in Sunday over the Maricopa and Phoenix. Tantau & Kellner received a car of sugar, Hichens, Lindsey & Gregory and the Blinn company each a car of lumber, Henry Ryder and H. E. Kemp each a car of wagons and a general lot of sundries filled two cars more.

The Board of Supervisors yesterday received a telegram from Washington, signed by Delegate Mark Smith, asking information relative to railroad subsidy vote of Maricopa county. The returns were accordingly hunted up and a comprehensive report telegraphed, giving the vote by precincts and other details.

Owing to a pressure of business and the fact of his necessary absence from the Territory in filling the office of World's Fair Commissioner, George F. Coates has resigned the office of Capitol Commissioner. Governor Wolfley yesterday appointed to the vacant place Mr. Walter Talbot of the firm of Talbot & Hubbard.

PERSONAL.

H. E. Kemp returned from his California trip Sunday.

Newt, Clanton is in the city and reports Buckeye quiet.

George F. Coates leaves this morning on an extended Eastern trip.

Mrs. J. M. Gregory left yesterday on summer's trip to California.

Supervisor Hakes is in from Mesa attending to his official business.

Jas. R. Murphy, County Assessor, is in bed, laid up by a severe sprain.

Mrs. J. McMillan and Mrs. Davis expect to leave this morning for the West.

Frank Nicholson, superintendent of the Yuma copper mines, is again home in Phoenix.

Messrs. Hayden, Hawkins, Huston, Judson, Halbert and Collins were in the city yesterday from Tempe.

Mrs. J. L. Gant and child leave this morning for a trip to San Diego and San Francisco. Mrs. Gant's father will accompany them.

W. C. Nation a cattleman of Alpine, Tex., is in the city. He is here to invest in the country's surplus steers to ship to Kansas City.

A. C. Keen, Deputy United States Internal Revenue, at Tucson, is in Phoenix attending to the duties of his office. His autograph is at the Mill's House.

W. B. Gillingham postmaster and storekeeper at the Phoenix mine, left yesterday for home with a wagon load of supplies and new fixtures for his establishment.

Tom Newcome, who has for over two years been night policeman in Phoenix, resigned his position yesterday and will engage in other business. Tom has done faithful service to the community and leaves with the best wishes of all.

Virgin River Salt. (Yuma Sentinel.) The Salt mountains, located on the banks of the Rio Virgin, an affluent of the Colorado river in Lincoln county, Nev., covers an area of twenty-five miles, extending to within seven miles of the junction of that stream with the Colorado. The salt they contain is pure and white and clearer than glass, and it is said that a piece seven or eight inches thick is sometimes clear enough to see through to read a newspaper.

Over the salt is a layer of sandstone from two to eight feet thick, and when this is torn away the salt appears like a huge snowfield. How deep it is has not yet been ascertained, but a single blast of giant power will blow out tons of it. The Colorado river steamers carry large quantities of it to El Dorado canyon, where it is used in the quartz mills. A prosperous business could be started in Yuma by having Virgin river salt shipped just as it is taken from the deposit, crushing it here and preparing it for shipment. It is true that the salt manufactured at Salton on the California desert is produced in large quantities, and at small cost, but the fact is also well known that the Virgin river salt is the purest active salt found in the universe, whilst the California article contains many impurities.

The cost of mining the salt would be but trifling and the freight charges by steamer very low to Yuma. The crude product could be "worked up" here with small expense and the advantages of Yuma as a general shipping or distributing point for the product, are simply unequalled. The Southern Pacific railroad would carry it to the Pacific and Atlantic oceans and if freight rates became unreasonably high, which is not at all likely, then shipments could be made down the Colorado river to the Gulf of California from whence it could be transported by vessels wherever the demands of trade required.

An enterprise of this character requires but little capital, and it is sure to repay the investor a thousandfold. It is only a question of a short time when this business will be taken hold of, thus adding one more factor to Yuma's progress and future prosperity.

Bound To Have Fish.

HALIFAX, N. S., June 16.—A correspondent at Little Loraine, N. B., writes on the sixth inst., that three American fishing vessels came into the harbor unceremoniously and cut away both nets and buoys of the local fishermen. With seines they are taking out 600 barrels of mackerel.

NATIONAL ELECTIONS.

THE PROPOSED LAW TO GOVERN THEM.

Text of the Bill Prepared by the House Republican Caucus—How It Will Operate.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The National election bill framed by the House Republican caucus committee, has been printed.

The principal features are: That the chief supervisors of elections in the judicial districts are charged with the execution of the law which is to apply to Federal elections in cities of 20,000 or upwards and in entire Congressional districts exclusive of such cities upon the application to the supervisor of 100 voters, or in counties or parishes forming a part of Congressional district upon the application of fifty voters.

The supervisors are required to make in towns of 20,000 people and upward, a thorough house to house canvass before the election, to inform voters upon inquiry, where and in what box to deposit their ballots, and to scrutinize the naturalizations. In canvassing votes the State laws are to govern except that all ballots are to be counted by tens first by the inspector of election and second by the supervisor, the local election officers and supervisors keeping separate tally sheets, which are to be counted.

The returns are to be made by the supervisor who is to tabulate and refer them to the United States Board of Canvassers of the Congressional vote which is to be appointed by the United States Court and consisting of three citizens of the State and persons of good repute not more than two of whom are to be of the same political party. The board is to convene on November 15 each year and declare and certify the result of the election and send one return to the clerk of the House of Representatives, one to the Governor of the State and one to the proper chief supervisor of elections. The clerk of the House is to place upon the roll the names of persons declared elected by the United States canvassers in case there is a difference in the result reached by them and by the State election officers.

FREE COINAGE.

Ten Republican Senators Said to Favor Such a Measure.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Concerning the silver bill Senator Jones of Nevada said today that several Senators desire to speak yet and that notwithstanding an agreement that the debate close at 3 o'clock today no one would be prevented from speaking who expresses a desire to do so. He thinks a final vote will not be reached for two or three days. The Senator said it seemed quite probable now that the bill passed would be one providing for free coinage. He said the effort to secure pledges of a majority of the Senate to vote against free coinage had been a failure. A list of Republican Senators favorable to free coinage as given by one of them includes Wolcott, Teller, Jones, Stewart, Plumb, Ingalls, Mitchell, Powers, Sanders and Cameron.

WORKING ON THE TARIFF.

The Senate Finance Committee Busy Preparing Its Schedule.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Printed copies of the tariff bill as amended by the Republican members of the Senate Finance committee up to Saturday night laid before the committee today included the sugar and tobacco schedules and copies of these were given today to Senator Carlisle representing the minority. It is expected that the sub-committee will be able to report the measure Wednesday or Thursday. Mr. McKinley said the changes made in the House bill by the Senate Finance committee were comparatively few and unimportant.

BLAIR'S AMENDMENTS.

He Wants no Legal Tender, But Gold and Silver Coin.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Senator Blair proposed two amendments to the silver bill today. One was to strike out all after the enacting clause and insert a section directing the Secretary of the Treasury, under the provisions of the act of 1878, to purchase silver bullion at the market price and coin $4,000,000 monthly. The other amendment provides that there shall be no legal tender in the United States except gold and silver coin.

FOOD ADULTERATION.

Why the Farmers Have Good Reason to Make Complaints.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—In the report to accompany the pure food bill reported from the Senate committee on Agriculture and Forestry, Chairman Paddock says: "While eminent chemists are not agreed that lard compounds are deleterious to health, there can be no dissent from the view that such articles should be sold under their rightful names and marketed as compounds, and not as simple products which they simulate. Farmers, who see their products lessened in value every year by millions through sophistication and misbranding, and their tables assailed in turn with fraudulent manufactured food products, have every reason to complain that they are robbed at every turn of the wheel."

Contracts Awarded.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The Secretary of the Navy today directed the award of the contract for the 8150-ton armored cruiser to Cramp & Sons, Philadelphia, at a bid of $2,985,000, and the contract for the 5500-ton cruiser, No. 6, to the Union Iron Works, San Francisco, Department's plans and specifications, at a bid of $1,796,000.

General Holabird Retired.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Brigadier-General Holabird, quartermaster-general of the army, was today placed on the retired list of the army.

Score Another for the West.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The Secretary of the Navy today directed the award of the contract for building the 5,500-ton cruiser No. 6 to the Union Iron Works of San Francisco.

Stanley's Plans.

BRUSSELS, June 16.—Stanley has been tendered and accepted the Governor-Generalship of Congo Free State. He will not enter upon his duties until the beginning of 1891. After his marriage he will go to the United States and remain there till the time arrives for assuming his new duties.
