

THE CONVENTION.

It will meet at the City Hall this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Republican Territorial Central Committee will meet today at 3 o'clock in the Council Chamber at the City Hall. Delegates from all the counties of the Territory are expected to be present. The most important matter that will be given the attention of the committee will be the setting of the time and place for the next Territorial Republican Convention.

The ratio of representation to be given each county will also be considered. The vote for Wilson at the last election, for Delegate to Congress, is hardly a proper basis upon which to rate the Republican strength of the Territory. It is understood that the plans to be adopted will probably be to accept the highest vote cast for any Republican in each county as a standard.

The Central Committee as it was originally constituted, is as follows, by counties:

Apache—R. E. Morrison, James Scott, F. M. Zuck. Cochise—H. Gerwein, W. H. Stillwell, A. L. Gray. Graham—M. W. Stewart, M. J. Egan, E. A. Cutter. Gila—Charles A. Fisk, J. H. Hamill, William Griffith. Maricopa—H. B. Farmer, Jerry Millay, N. A. Morford. Mohave—George W. Beecher, E. Williams, W. C. Blakeley. Pinal—R. E. Sloan, Charles Holburn, Chris. Loss. Pima—J. J. Chatham, J. A. Black, Lewis Wolfley. Yuma—J. W. Dorrington, J. H. Taggart, Chas. Baker.

Yavapai—N. O. Murphy, W. C. Bashford, Orick Jackson. Of these, Prof. H. B. Farmer of Tempe and Dr. J. H. Taggart of Yuma are the only outside committeemen who have as yet reported. Today's train will bring in most of the others.

Board of Supervisors.

Board met at 10 a. m. yesterday, Hakes and Smith present.

Claim of W. M. Breckinridge for survey of Castle Creek road was allowed in the sum of $64.

Report of Chairman and District Attorney relative to transcribing and indexing certain books in the office of the County Recorder was received and filed. Recorder was allowed twelve cents per folio for such work.

J. B. Montgomery, E. Ganz and R. L. Rossen, viewers of proposed sites for a Potter's field, made their report. The property appraised was rated as follows: Southwest quarter of northwest quarter of section 18, township 1 north, range 8 east, $3000; northwest quarter of northwest quarter of section 1, township 1 north, range 2 east, $3000; ten acres in southwest corner of northwest quarter of section 18, township 1 north, range 3 east, $1500; ten acres in northwest corner of northwest quarter of northwest quarter of section 1, township 1 north, range 2 east, $1500.

The Board then adjourned to meet next Wednesday.

An Important Engagement to Keep. [Indianapolis News.]

The train for Cleveland was pulling out and had gained considerable headway when there came a whizz and the sound of splitting wind as a man with a tall silk hat crashed down on his ears dashed through the gate. He carried two big valises, but they were apparently as light as feathers, for they did not interfere with his mad rush after that train. He fairly flew along the platform and the brakeman on the car was so busy looking at a girl in the window of the National hotel that he did not see him. The crowd yelled and whooped. "Get there, old man!" "Pull for it hard!" "You'll make it if you don't fall dead!" and a hundred such aggravating remarks. The man made an heroic effort, but he didn't have the legs, and the brakeman didn't see him—thus he missed the train. He came slowly back to the gate, put down his grips, mopped his face, and remarked: "Well, I'll be blown." He didn't say blown, but let it go at that.

"Had a lively run," suggested a meek and lowly gentleman. "Rather. Just my luck, though, to miss that train. Why, I wouldn't have missed that train for $50."

"Where were you going?" once more asked the gentleman with the ginger-colored whiskers.

"Lafayette. And I have an important engagement there tonight."

"Well, you can keep it."

"Hey?"

"The train you were chasing goes to Cleveland. The Lafayette train don't start for eight minutes yet. There it stands."

The drummer didn't say a word. He gathered his grips and climbed aboard the car, while the faintest bit of a smile hovered about the meek and lowly gentleman's chops.
