TERRITORIAL REPUBLICAN TICKET

For Delegate to Congress: GEORGE W. CHEYNEY, OF COCHISE. For Joint Councilman, Northern District: J. M. W. MOORE, OF YAVAPAI. For Joint Councilman, Southern District: W. F. NICHOLS, OF COCHISE.

For a full and unbiased account of today's convention read tomorrow's Republican.

NEVER before in the history of Minnesota have snow storms occurred so early in the season as this year.

SAYS the Nogales Sunday Herald: "Politics aside, it will be better for the Territory if Cheyney is elected to Congress in place of Smith."

VISITORS to the convention are cordially invited to visit THE REPUBLICAN office and inspect the most complete newspaper outfit in the Southwest.

THE REPUBLICAN presents this morning an interesting letter on the Pima Indians and the great progress being made on their reservation on the Gila river.

PHOENIX is appreciated to its full worth by visitors from all parts of the Territory, and an opportunity to speak in its praise is never neglected by strangers in our midst.

THE Democratic Territorial Convention will meet at Patton's Opera House this morning at 10 o'clock. About all the delegates are now in the city and a short session is anticipated.

"LITTLE STEVE" is missed among the delegates to the Convention. He always has been a prominent feature of former Democratic conventions and his absence makes a void that is hard to fill.

FOUR men to be continually prating about grand juries and what they will do before them, who, if past grand juries had performed their duties, would be playing checkers with their noses, is good, very good.

HARRIS BALDWIN, the apparent nominee of the Territorial Democratic Convention for the office of Joint Councilman for the Northern District, is a resident of Prescott and a lawyer of extensive practice. His name is as strong a name as the Democracy has upon its list.

SAYS the Mohave County Miner: "The Miner acknowledges the receipt of the annual circular and catalogue of the Arizona Territorial Normal School. It contains matter of interest to everyone interested in that institution. The catalogue is well printed, something unusual in our Territorial printing."

INGERSOLL says of Tolstoi that he has uttered many noble things, but that he "stands with his back to the sunrise and looks mournfully at the shadow. * * * He has fixed his gaze so intently on the miseries and agonies of life that he has been driven to the conclusion that nothing could be better than the effacement of the human race."

BUT a few delegates will be here to attend the Democratic Convention, proxies being sent in fully half the cases. Maricopa, Cochise and Pima turn out strong delegations, but the three northern counties will have but few representatives. The work of the Convention is plainly marked out and no deviation from it is looked for.

D. M. HUNSAKER, of the Wilcox Stockman, is among the delegates to today's Convention. Mr. Hunsaker has the only exclusive stock paper in the Territory, and, for that matter, he keeps it at such a high standard there is no room for another. Personally Dan is a stalwart Democrat, but he does not let politics interfere with his business.

TUCSON Republicans held a rousing meeting Saturday night. Speeches were made by Judge Charles W. Wright, General Thomas F. Wilson, Dr. F. H. Goodwin, S. Ains, Judge Ferguson, Judge Miller and Colonel J. A. Zabriskie. The best of good feeling prevailed, and the meeting augurs well for the success of the Republicans of Pima county.

FRANCIS J. HENRY, who is here as a delegate from Pima county, is a probable candidate of the Democratic party to the office of Joint Councilman from the Southern District. Mr. Henry is a young man of considerable promise, an attorney of acknowledged ability, and, no doubt, would be as good a selection for the nomination as his party could make.

ARIZONA Mormons are not law breakers, Oh, no! As instance read this from the Tucson Citizen: "Deputy Marshal Jack O'Neill brought in Wiley Holliday, from near Fort Thomas, last night. Holliday is wanted for polygamy, having two wives and a family by both of them. He was indicted by the last grand jury and has been wanted ever since. Ball will be given and he will be held for the next term of the United States Court. Holliday was a prominent witness in the Wham robbery trial."

MRS. HELEN CAMPBELL estimates that, not counting domestic servants, there are 3,000,000 women workers in the United States. The wages paid to women range upon an average from $4.05 per week in Atlanta, Georgia, to $6.96 in San Francisco. In considering these statistics the wonder is how, even at the highest rate named, the women can live. It shows that women are very poorly paid. The fact that they are not paid better wages is due to the competition of women who do not need to work, but seek employment only for the sake of increasing their pocket money, and also to the fact that women are not able to insist upon the payment of better wages to themselves. Women do not appear to appreciate the value of their work to their employers, and so they accept wages which men would not work for. This is especially true in the printing business. Many women work for starvation wages, to the detriment of themselves, the male printers and the employers of fair laborers. If they would all insist upon better pay their demands would very probably be complied with.

PETER BRADY, of Pinal county, though not an active aspirant, is a very probable candidate on the Democratic ticket for Joint Councilman from the Southern District. Mr. Brady's friends are pushing him vigorously, and if work will carry, his nomination is sure. One significant fact is that Mr. Brady's own county, Pima, in caucus has agreed to support Mr. Brady for the position. His capabilities for the position are subject to but little question. He is a Democratic politician of large experience; was twice an unsuccessful candidate for the office of Delegate to Congress, and has served in the Territorial Legislature. He is a man of considerable means, a farmer near Florence, and would make a warm fight.

ONE of the most absurd methods of our Democratic friends is to "claim everything in sight," and always insist that the drift of public sentiment is clearly in their direction. It is laughable to notice how a few timid Republicans are influenced in their opinions as to future success as the result of the optimistic predictions of the Democratic writers and speakers. Reed's plurality of 2433 was to have been largely reduced, as a result of his, in their opinion, dictatorial course as Speaker. But to their surprise and disgust he more than doubled his previous majority, a result their unfair abuse of him doubtless had some little influence in producing. The masses appreciate a man of common sense and bravery.

WHILE our morning controversy is about the task of bringing proofs before the next grand jury, it might show up what has become of that $25,000 collected in taxes in this county for which the people have had no accounting. Also upon what basis the delinquent tax list is published in two installments when the law expressly stipulates that it shall not be divided, and several other things that are worth calling attention to.

AMONG the delegates to today's convention is Mr. J. F. Wallace of the St. Johns Herald. To reach here Mr. Wallace had to make a stage trip of fifty miles to the Atlantic and Pacific railroad, thence by rail to Prescott and then stage again 110 miles to Phoenix, nearly 500 miles. This shows that his Democracy is of the right sort and his advocacy of his party in the Herald does credit to him.

GEORGE H. KELLEY, of the Graham County Bulletin is among the delegates to today's Convention. Although a dyed-in-the-wool Democrat Mr. Kelley, like all newspaper men, is a royal good fellow, whom it does one good to meet. His paper is a credit to Graham County and receives the united support of the people of that county as it deserves to do.

FINANCIAL affairs throughout the country have assumed a serious aspect for several days past and all the resources of the government and of the best financiers have been strained to the utmost to prevent a crash. Happily the outlook now is that the matter may be bridged over without direful results.

TUCSON JOTTINGS.

Mexican Independence Day to be Celebrated in Becoming Style. Correspondence of THE REPUBLICAN.

Tucson, September 13, 1890.

The campaign is now open and each candidate is shaking hands with every one he meets. Glad to see him, you know.

The Yaqui dancer amused a number of eastern passengers at the San Xavier hotel during the half hour stay of the passenger train.

The Tucson ball club received a challenge from the captain of the Tombstone club to play a series of games at Benson for a money purse, each club to pay its own expenses. If the Phoenix people had any get up about them they would try and get the ball club over to Phoenix during the fair for when they went to Tombstone there were fifty-three admirers of the game left Tucson to witness the game at Tombstone.

Why not get up a horse race at Phoenix and a match game of baseball? The Tombstone and Tucson boys would likely go if they would hang up a purse large enough for them to play for, and have nothing but home talent in their clubs. They would be the means of bringing a large crowd to Phoenix.

There is some talk of having a fair in Tucson in the near future. Some of our citizens think it would pay. Nothing like trying, you know.

THE REPUBLICAN is the first paper asked for in the hotels and restaurants. A stranger stopping at one of the hotels said when he picked up a paper he liked to see something to read besides "ads" and candidates' cards stuck in the local columns. He remarked that a newspaper should always devote the first page for news for the benefit of the public, as they pay for it.

The military boys were out this week in full uniform and made a nice appearance. They are going to turn out on the sixteenth of this month, that being Mexican Independence day. It will be one of the finest parades ever made here, as three companies from the fire department will join in the ranks. We have a Sixteenth of September if we don't have a Fourth of July. Last Fourth citizens of Tucson went to Tombstone to witness the horse race and fire works.

PROCLAMATION OF REWARD.

To whom it may concern: WHEREAS, It has come to my knowledge that Ed. Baker, eldest son of J. H. Baker, who resides at Lookout, on the Sierra Ancha mountains, about forty miles north of Globe, Gila county, was murdered in a most brutal manner by some person or persons unknown, (though the presence of Indian tracks in the immediate vicinity strongly indicate that the crime was committed by Indians).

Now, therefore, I, Louis Wolfley, Governor of the Territory of Arizona, by virtue of the power within me vested do hereby offer a reward in the sum of five hundred ($500) dollars to be paid out of the treasury of the Territory for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who committed the aforementioned crime.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the Territory to be affixed. Done at Phoenix, the capital, this 26th day of July, A. D., 1890. LEWIS WOLFLEY.

Signed: NATHAN O. MURPHY, Secretary of Territory.
