Articles of Incorporation

OF THE FRENCH CREEK

Mining and Water Storage COMPANY

We, Daniel E. Keating, Horatio H. Wharton and Alfred Borwick, desiring to incorporate ourselves under the provisions of the laws of the Territory of Arizona, and especially an Act of the Legislative Assembly entitled "An Act Concerning Corporations," approved March 5, A. D. 1887, and all acts amendatory thereof, for the purpose of engaging in the lawful enterprises, businesses, pursuits and occupations hereinafter specified, do make, adopt, subscribe and acknowledge according to law these articles of incorporation, and declare and state as follows:

ARTICLE I. The name adopted and assumed by this corporation and by which it shall be known is "THE FRENCH CREEK MINING AND WATER STORAGE COMPANY," and its principal place of transacting business is in the City of Phoenix, in the County of Maricopa and Territory of Arizona, and the time of the coming into effect of this corporation shall be the day of the filing of these articles in the office of the County Recorder of the Counties of Maricopa and Yavapai, in the Territory of Arizona, and the termination thereof shall be twenty-five years thereafter.

ARTICLE II. The enterprises, businesses, pursuits and occupations in which this corporation proposes to engage are those of constructing, maintaining and operating reservoirs, dams, canals, ditches and waterways, of whatever description may be deemed necessary, in Yavapai County, Territory of Arizona, for the purposes of hydraulic mining, placer mining, gold washing, ground sluicing, quartz milling, concentrating, agricultural and stock-raising purposes; the purchase and sale of mining claims, mineral, agricultural or other lands; the leasing, sub-leasing, letting or sub-letting of water, mining claims, agricultural or other lands; constructing buildings, sheds, workshops or other enclosures, selling, renting, or leasing the same; laying out and constructing townships and roads connecting therewith, and such other lawful occupations as the company may see fit or deem advisable to undertake.

ARTICLE III. The place where this corporation proposes to have its principal office and place of business is in the City of Phoenix, in the Territory of Arizona.

ARTICLE IV. The amount of the capital stock of this corporation shall be two hundred thousand ($200,000) shares, of the par value of one dollar each, and the time and the conditions upon which it is to be paid are as follows, viz: From time to time after the same shall be subscribed, as the Board of Directors shall by resolution or order prescribe.

ARTICLE V. The amount of the par value of each share in the capital stock of this corporation shall be one dollar.

ARTICLE VI. The highest amount of indebtedness or liability, direct or contingent, to which this corporation is at any time to subject itself shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars.

ARTICLE VII. The stockholders in this corporation and their private property shall be exempt from the corporate debts of this corporation.

ARTICLE VIII. The affairs of this corporation are to be and they shall be conducted by a Board of Directors consisting of seven persons, to be chosen by the stockholders from among their number at their regular annual meeting to be held on the first Monday of November of each year. The following named persons, who are subscribers to the capital stock of this corporation, shall constitute the Board of Directors until their successors are elected and qualified, which shall be at the first annual meeting of the stockholders of this corporation, viz: Alfred Borwick, August G. Meyer, James E. Keating, Archibald Borwick, Horatio H. Wharton, William C. Thairwell, Cecil B. Ayton.

ARTICLE IX. The Board of Directors of this corporation shall have the right and power to borrow money and to contract to repay the same at such time, rate and interest as they may see fit, and with such rates of interest as to them may be deemed expedient or advisable, and to secure the payment of any such loan may pledge, mortgage or hypothecate the whole or any part of the corporate property, and such Board of Directors shall have the power to establish by-laws and make all rules and regulations deemed expedient for the management of the affairs and the offices of said corporation.

ARTICLE X. No person shall be eligible to the office of Director unless he is a stockholder in this corporation, and upon ceasing to be a stockholder he shall cease to be a Director.

ARTICLE XI. Any act or deed of any of the stockholders at any annual or special meeting called for that purpose, after sufficient notice shall have been given to each Director, and sufficient time shall have elapsed necessary for him to send in his proxies or to be present personally.

ARTICLE XII. Each share of the capital stock of this corporation shall be entitled to one vote at any annual or special meeting of the stockholders, and the highest number of votes shall be decisive, and voting proxies shall be valid and of equal force and effect with the conditions stated in the by-laws.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands this eighth day of January, A. D. 1891.

DANIEL E. KEATING, HORATIO H. WHARTON, ALFRED BORWICK.

Acknowledgment. TERRITORY OF ARIZONA, COUNTY OF MARICOPA.

"According to Homer, Nestor, the old warrior and the wise counsellor of the Greeks, had ruled over three generations of men, and was wise as the immortal gods."

The NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW

has been in the van of American thought for more than three-quarters of a century, ranking always with the best and most influential periodicals in the world. It is the month-piece of the men who know most about the great topics on which Americans require to be informed from month to month, its contributors being the leaders of thought and action in every field. Those who would take counsel of the highest knowledge on the affairs of the time, and learn what is to be said regarding them by the recognized authorities on both sides, must therefore read THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW, the Nestor of the magazines.

"THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW is ahead of any magazine this country has ever seen in the importance of the topics it discusses and the eminence of its contributors." - Albany Argus. "Has become, as it were, the intelligent American citizen's hand book on great questions of the hour." - Buffalo Express.

"THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW touches Americans on almost every point in which they are interested." - Boston Herald.

"A moulder of intelligent opinion by the impartial presentations of both sides of important subjects." - Philadelphia Public Ledger.

The list of recent contributors to the REVIEW forms a roll of representative men and women of the time, including W. E. Gladstone, J. G. Blaine, Cardinal Gibbons, Speaker Reed, Ex-Speaker Carlisle, W. McKinley, Jr., Ouida, Mme. Adam, General Sherman, Admiral Porter, Mme. Bayvsky, T. A. Edison, Bishop H. C. Potter, Elizabeth S. A GREAT OFFER!

The publishers of THE ARENA, the brilliant Boston Review, make the following offer, which for liberality is unparalleled in the history of magazine literature. Every new subscriber to THE ARENA who forwards the regular subscription price ($5.00) will receive, in addition to a year's subscription to THE ARENA, as a premium, a year's subscription to THE COSMOPOLITAN magazine, the price of which is $2.40. Old subscribers to THE COSMOPOLITAN must remit $5.50. THE ARENA employs the ablest thinkers on both sides of the Atlantic who discuss the great social, moral, religious, psychic, economic, and educational problems which are now so profoundly agitating the thinking world, more fully in its pages than those of any other great review published. THE COSMOPOLITAN is probably the most popular strictly first-class family magazine published. It is profusely illustrated and, with THE ARENA, makes the finest combination ever made for a reading home. In fact, these magazines form a PERFECT LIBRARY in themselves that no thoughtful person should be without. A SAMPLE COPY of THE ARENA will be sent postpaid for 20 cents. Address all orders to THE ARENA PUBLISHING COMPANY, BOSTON, MASS.
