A WOMAN STOCK GROWER.

How a Good Island Widow Has Made Her Farm Famous. Mrs. S. P. Taber Willets, of Roslyn, Long Island, is a very pleasant, good looking and unassuming little woman, but she is among the most successful stock growers in the country, and laughingly says, "I know more about my cows' relations than I do of my own."

MRS. WILLETTS' HOME.

This is literally true, for as she saunters about her farm with a visitor she shows a personal acquaintance and understanding with each cow, bull, calf, horse and pig on the farm. One is presented to Carmencita, for instance, who is peacefully grazing out in the field. Mrs. Willets lovingly strokes her friend as she tells just wherein Carmencita excels. Then the twin calves are to be seen. All the cows she has raised herself Mrs. Willets speaks of as her chil- dren. She knows every cow on the farm by name, knows all their peculiarities and will present the visitor to a certain cow and then to its half sister or aunt, for instance. The pedigree of every animal on the farm is perfectly familiar to her.

She does not, however, rank among the heroines so often mentioned who began with nothing and acquired a fortune, for she inherited not only the farm and the farmhouse from her father, but an inborn love of cattle. At the time when most little girls are interested in nothing but dolls, she was conversant with all the points of Shorthorn cattle. She knew just why a Guernsey cow was a good investment, and in connection with learning to read she learned to trace a cow's pedigree.

The farm is known as the "Old Brick," as the residence was the first brick house built on Long Island. It is an ideal coun- try home, with broad porches and big, airy rooms, and there is a cellar under an outhouse which is even more historic than the dwelling, for the British officers made a wine cellar out of it while they occupied the district during the Revolution. Mrs. Willets came to the farm when she was six years old and has lived there ever since. She began with one Guernsey cow for family use, and has bought and bred with such judgment and success that she now has eighty head of cattle, chiefly registered Guernseys, and fifty-four blooded horses, with the usual assortment of pigs and chickens. Last, but very far from least, she has three swiftnest vans and makes home very pleasant for them.

Her dairy, constructed on plans prepared by herself, is a model, and her butter finds ready sale at an extra price. She is an excellent judge of stock and not only selects the best, but has brought all those she raised to such a pitch of docility that they manifest their love for her in the most winning ways. In her ordinary farm life she wears a plain but pretty gingham dress and garden hat, and when her soft brown eyes light up with pleasure at meeting her pets she is quite an attractive woman. Her 400-acre farm is all in the best of trim, and a visit to it is a real treat.

NAMED FOR GOVERNOR.

Sketch of the Candidate of the Tennessee Democrats. The Democrats of Tennessee have nominated Judge Peter Turney for gov- ernor, a gentleman seventy-two years of age, yet in the full vigor of intellect and with bodily strength but little impaired. He is spoken of as one of the kind that ripen slowly. A native of the state and a successful lawyer when the war began, he raised the First Tennessee regiment and commanded it through the conflict. He was afterward elected to the supreme court of the state, of which he has been a member twenty years, being chief justice when nominated for governor.

JUDGE PETER TURNEY.

In the convention there were 1,325 delegates, and Judge Turney received 1,475 votes on the first ballot. The present governor, Buchanan, received 9, and the remainder were scattering. There was an unusual amount of oratory, speeches being made by Senators Harris and Bate, Congressmen Patterson and Washington, ex-Governor Taylor and Judge Turney, and it is scarcely necessary to add that the "labor ques- tion" was the leading subject.

Rain is Scarce in Arabia.

Rain is a good deal of a novelty in Arabia, and the sight of the precious "de- scending celestial pearls" there is an im- portant event in one's life. In fact, rain has only fallen twice in twenty-nine years in Aden. Previous to the last, which occurred in 1888, none had fallen in twenty-six years.

Unfortunate Women.

"Poor creatures!" exclaimed Mrs. Grosgrain, looking at the pictures of nude savage women; "no clothing of any kind! I wonder what the poor things have to talk about!"—Exchange.

Oh, That Boy!

Young Hankinson (in the parlor): Johnny, will Miss Irene be down soon? Johnny—Yes. She's most dressed. Notin to put on now but her suspend- ers.—Chicago Tribune.

A Matter of History.

Boerum (doing his best to make a favorable impression, has just finished his best anecdote)—Ha! ha! ha! That's a pretty good story, now. Miss Acres—Yes, I think so too. And they say poor Uncle Phil, who was killed at Gettysburg, never tired of hearing it.—Life.

Facts and Figures.

There are 197 publications and news agents in St. Louis, and, according to the official figures given by Mr. J. H. Barlow, Post- master, all of these sent out, during the month of July, 267,229 pounds of second-class mail matter, which includes all newspapers and periodicals mailed from the office of publication. Of this total, THE ST. LOUIS RE- PUBLIC mailed 329,132 pounds, or about one-third of all, which fact tells its own story as to the wonderful popularity and large circulation of the great Democratic Newspaper of the West and Southwest. The "Twice-a-Week" Republic is at once the best and cheapest newspaper published in America. It will be indispensable during this campaign of education, and will be mailed to any address, from now until November 30, for Thirty Cents, or in clubs of ten or more received at one time, for Twenty-five Cents each. Remember this is for a great semi-weekly paper, sent in your orders at once. Sample copies free. Address: THE REPUBLIC, St. Louis.
