NOTICE THIS!

It is estimated that twenty per cent of volunteers rejected from army service are refused because of defective vision. This condition is alarming to those who do not understand eyes and eye defects. To us it simply means neglect—first to the parents; later to the young men themselves. Proper and timely use of glasses would have restored many of these eyes to normal sight.

would be easy if there was not something more serious back of them. The throat and lungs must be looked after. Many remedies stop coughs—dry them up. Our Syrup of White Pine and Tar cures quick enough, but slow enough to make sure that the curing is done thoroughly. That's why we say "Money back if it fails." It doesn't fail. Price 25 cents.

MRS. GREGORY HERE—Mrs. Walter Gregory arrived yesterday morning from her home in Yuma and will spend several days visiting with relatives and friends in this city.

SONS OF THE REVOLUTION.—The annual business meeting of the Arizona Society Sons of the American Revolution will be held at 9 o'clock this morning in the office of the president, Dr. John Wix Thomas, on Adams street.

FOR PRECIOUS METALS.—Professor H. Fischer of the Freiberg university and W. L. Rand of Boston, returned yesterday from a short trip to a bismuth property up the river. Mr. Fischer is reported to be interested in looking up rare metals such as bismuth and radium.

COLORADO TOURISTS.—Hon. Fred Baker and wife of Fort Collins, Colo., who have been spending several weeks here enjoying Arizona's delightful climate, left for San Diego last night, where they will spend sometime before returning home. Mr. Baker is mayor of Fort Collins and a well known capitalist and citizen of that part of Colorado.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Mrs. Ella Hansen arrived yesterday morning from Keokuk, Iowa, in search of her son, S. C. Hansen who is here for his health. Mrs. Hansen has no address by which to find him and is much distressed. She is stopping at 529 South First avenue and will be very thankful for any information which may lead to finding her son.

WANTS RAILROAD CONNECTION.—A. C. Sieboth, superintendent of the Superior Mining Co., operating on Queen creek and also of the Arizona Hancock Mining company in the same section has been in the city for a day or two accompanied by Mrs. Sieboth. It is understood he is here to consult with officials of the Phoenix & Eastern, respecting the feasibility of securing railroad connection between his mines and the P. & E.

SUNDAY MUSIC.—At the Baptist church yesterday Rev. Mr. Brewer preached two strong sermons, the quartette sang and at night Miss Jewell sang the solo "One Sweetly Solemn Thought." At the Christian church in the morning Dr. Bagby preached a most inspiring sermon. Miss Poock gave a violin solo, the large chorus sang an anthem and Mrs. Tiffany sang a solo. At the Presbyterian church it was Home mission Sunday and the Sunday school had a special patriotic programme, all their own, printed in the national colors, and generally gotten up to inspire the young people with the importance of the occasion.

BAPTIST CHURCH SERVICES.—At the Baptist church yesterday Rev. George H. Brewer preached two strong evangelistic sermons. His theme in the morning was "The Proprietorship of Christ." Christ has redeemed his people and they are bought by his blood. By argument and by illustration the truth was pressed home that he who is Christ's will serve Him because he belongs to Him. When the series of meetings was begun it was not decided whether they would continue for one week or for two weeks. As Mr. Brewer came with the church during the latter part of next month it was decided to resume the meetings at that time giving him opportunity to do needed work in other parts of the territory before the meeting of the convention March 16-18.

THE SHRINERS.—Today is the greatest of all days for the shriners in this part of the country. It is the occasion of their annual gathering for the celebration of deeds in the past and incidentally for the offering of new sacrifices on the altars of their sires. It is said the slaughter pens are full of lambs and there is plenty of fuel for the sacrificial fires. Large delegations of the faithful came in yesterday morning from north and south, some of them bringing their own lambs with them, and others are expected to arrive this morning. This afternoon there will be a spectacular parade, headed by the Chinese band. The tortures will not begin till after midnight for such deeds are always done in darkness; that is darkness outside the temple. What happens inside of it only a few people know and they won't tell. Tomorrow will occur the festivities of the Daughters of Isis. They are just as interesting as the Shriner's; in fact more so, and not half so wicked.

FIREMEN'S DAY.—Today is the one big annual event of the Phoenix Fire department; the annual inspection by the mayor and city council followed by a grand ball in the evening at O'Neill hall. Chief Linville requests every member of the department to be on hand promptly at Firemen's hall at 10 o'clock this forenoon, attired in uniform and ready to look his prettiest. The line of parade, with the apparatus and all department paraphernalia, that is provided with wheels, will be from the engine house north to Washington west to First avenue, north to Adams street, east to Second street and west on Washington street, stopping in front of the band stand for inspection. The mayor and city council will occupy the band stand and the mayor is expected to deliver an address. He has agreed to cut it short, however, as it is understood that Councilmen Dennis and Sanders will also make speeches. In the evening will occur the seventh annual department ball which is expected to outshine any previous social event undertaken by the department. All committees have finished their work so far as it can be accomplished in advance, and everything is in readiness for a good time.

THEY SCRAPPED.—Tixy Howard, the gentle Trivy who has more trouble than anybody, and Harvey McCourt, who also has troubles of his own, engaged in a hand to hand combat Saturday night at the Redlight hotel where Miss Howard resides. McCourt was calling on her when some misunderstanding arose and he laid violent hands on her jaw with the result that a tooth was jarred loose. She acknowledged the compliment by jabbing a knife through his bosom. Both bled profusely and they drowned their enmity in each other's gore. The gentle Trivy refused to sign a complaint against her assailant for fear she might be held to account for her knife assault. The valiant Harvey passed up any legal technicalities with which he might involve his bosom, in remembrance of the fact that there is nothing in the law books that encourages a man to mash a woman's face. The officers were hors du combat for want of legal ammunition to back up a campaign and as they did not see the incident they could not testify that the noise had been disturbed. The same rests therefore as one of mere parlor theatricals. Later in the night McCourt was seen promenading in company with a jag and was placed in the bake oven to dry out.

SOME FINE SPECIMENS.—George Hamlin, superintendent of the Relief Gold mine north of Glendale, drove in from the mine yesterday afternoon. He brought with him a large cigar box full of as fine gold specimens as any man ever looked at. They are very similar in appearance, though if anything richer, than the specimens on exhibition at the board of trade room and others he has brought to town from time to time during the past two years. The specimens are all black dorite, shot full of fine gold. No reasonable guess could be made of their value as the ton, though no man could hope to find a palatial mansion as rich as these specimens. The novelty of them lies in the fact that they are not from the same vein from which the other specimens were taken though the character of the rock is the same. They are from the west drift in the mine, the formation of which has thus far been granite, also carrying large values, but recently this stratum has appeared on the foot wall and these samples were taken from rock broken within a day or two. Previous specimens came from another shaft, some hundreds of feet away, having as the black shaft. Mr. Hamlin will forward the specimens to the company's New York office.

Fashion influences the style of engagement and wedding rings quite as much as that of other jewelry. The softest diamond which our mothers were content with is by no means beloved by the maiden of today, who would probably prefer a ring set with her own and her fiance's birthstones.

Dear Sirs—While in Arizona about three months ago I purchased from you a pair of Hanan's patent leather shoes which were very fine, and as I am unable to get any here, wish you would send me a pair if you still have that style (note cut). Enclosed find money order for $6.00. They were patent cut, Blucher style, high shoes, with a rather heavy heel. Men's size, 6½, widest last, I think 4 width. They had patent leather trimmings along the lacing also.
Hoping you send them, I am resp't
