OF LOCAL INTEREST

BAND CONCERT.—The usual good-natured crowd was on hand yesterday afternoon to enjoy the concert by the Pioneer band on the city hall plaza.

A GIRL BABE.—A girl babe was born on Saturday to Mrs. Charles Peterson, who so suddenly and tragically lost her husband last week, through a street car accident.

ORPHEUS SOCIETY REHEARSAL.—The Orpheus society will meet tonight for rehearsal at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Cook on West Washington street.

RETURNED TO PHOENIX.—C. E. Wilcox, the discoverer of the Condor Inhalation consumption cure, who spent last winter in Phoenix, has returned here, his headquarters now being in Los Angeles where he has been ever since last spring.

THEY FAILED TO MEET.—Mrs. Barry and daughter of Portland, Ore., who have been stopping here for some time, left for home two or three days ago intending to stop in Los Angeles for a brief visit. On Saturday Mrs. P. A. Fisher, a daughter of Mrs. Barry, who lives in Paris, France, arrived at the Ford hotel where she expected to meet her mother but was disappointed to find that she was a little too late.

A TEACHER FROM ABROAD.—Miss Edna Yager of Moline, Ill., arrived in the city yesterday morning to take a place in the city schools. She will occupy the room formerly presided over by Miss Burns, who was compelled to resign on account of illness. It has already been explained why it is necessary to send to Illinois and other places for teachers. Though there are plenty of teachers in the territory, not enough have qualified themselves for first-class certificates to fill all the places which the law says must be filled by holders of certificates of the first grade. The last quarterly examination brought out in the whole territory only three such certificates.

CHANGE OF TAX PAYING TIME.—It is probable that one of the members of the legislature from this county will be asked to present a bill changing the time for the payment of taxes to July 1. Such a measure is being agitated. It is argued in favor that it will greatly benefit the towns of Tucson and Phoenix in this way, July 1 or thereabout is the time when those who can get away go to the coast to spend their money and come back temporarily impoverished. It is thought that if the owners of property are compelled to pay their taxes about the time they usually start out on their summer vacation they will feel so poor that they will not go at all and the money will be kept at home.

JUNIORS DOING WELL.—The Phoenix Juniors won another football game yesterday afternoon, the last one they will play this season, as they now intend to devote their energies to the perfection of their baseball team, which will be reorganized this week. Though they won yesterday in the football match, their pride was a little bit ruffled, for the other side scored against their 25. This was the first time that anybody ever had the temerity to make points against the Juniors, and they feel humiliated accordingly. They say it would not have occurred only that one of their players, Kero, got knocked out and the substitute was not familiar with the signals. Kero did his usual good work on the end, and Kelly bolstered up the line. The opposing team was from the Osborn school, the same that played against the Juniors before. It had evidently been doing some good practice work. The Juniors have now organized their athletic club, which is the great merger organization that features both the football and the baseball teams. There are thirty charter members, and the organization has secured quarters in the Irving, or Pratt, block, on West Washington street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues.

DEATH OF E. S. TURNER. Well Known and Popular Young Man Succumbed to Pneumonia.

Edward Sanford Turner, died yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, at his home on South First avenue, corner of Grant street, after an illness of two or three weeks of pneumonia. The only relative here is his mother who has made her recent home with him for many years. He leaves two married sisters in the east, Mrs. O. J. Graves, of Jackson, Mich., and Mrs. F. E. Andrews, of Adrian, Mich.

Mr. Turner was 38 years old and Phoenix has been his home the greater part of the time for the last eight years. He was born in Grant County, Mich., and came here eight years ago to reside for his mother soon afterward. He was first identified in the local business world as an employee of the Kessler Boyle Grocery Co. When that firm went out of business he represented for a time, the Cudahy Packing Co., in this field. Later he entered the employ of the Milton Berryman Grocery Co. and subsequently represented the Barkley, Stetson, Preston Grocery Co., of Los Angeles, as a commercial traveler with headquarters in Tucson. His latest employment was with McKee's Cash stores, having charge of the El Paso branch for some months ago. Soon after coming here the last time he went to Agua Caliente hot springs where he caught a cold that developed into pneumonia and he was brought home as quickly as possible.

Mr. Turner was one of the best known young men in the territory among those engaged in mercantile pursuits, especially in the grocery line, and was a genial whole souled man, held high in the esteem of all who knew him. He was naturally of athletic build and imposing gure and was quite prominently affiliated with the Athletic club that was maintained here some years ago by the young men.

A few years ago he joined the Odd

IT IS WRITTEN. "What I have written, I have written."—Pilate. Have I written on the pages Of the year so soon gone by, Thoughts to live through endless ages Or in deep oblivion die? Have my days been worth the living To my friends in helpful giving, Reaching to the fullest measure, 'Good, that deeper is than pleasure? Have I written on the faces In my daily walk in life, Hope and peace—or are there traces Of a burden, or of strife? Sympathy as much as I needed— Have I seen and have I needed? My loss greater than the other, If I failed to help a brother.

Have the little children brightened At my hearty, welcoming word, Or tender hearts been frightened By some quick remark they heard? Was the stranger in my meeting Gladder made by earnest greeting, Or, blinded selfishly, have I Erred in path of charity?

What is written I have written— And my hand cannot erase Many things—that conscience smitten— I would gladly now efface. Words unworthy, actions hurried, Things I wish were dead and buried, But they live—and I regretting, Long to know of their forgetting.

Only God can make it whiter, All the record I have scanned, And my heavy heart grows lighter 'Neath the shadow of his hand. Clean and new the page He's turning, While my heart in honest yearning, Lifts to Him its eager pleading, For his constant, kindly leading, Dec. 29, 1904. N. R. B.

ARIZONA BAPTISTS Adopt Resolutions of Protest Against Statehood Jointure.

At a called meeting of the board of managers of the Arizona Baptist convention held in Phoenix, Arizona, December 31, 1904, the following preamble and resolution were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, A bill has been introduced in the United States senate, providing for the admission to the union of Arizona and New Mexico as one state;

Resolved, That we respectfully and most earnestly protest against the proposed merging of the two territories, as being unjust, unwise and impolitic, believing as we do, that it would provoke antagonism which would be detrimental to the interests of both territories, to unite two commonwealths so separated by natural, political, racial and religious barriers.

Attest: LEWIS HALSEY, President Board of Managers of the Arizona Baptist Convention, GEO. H. BREWER, Secretary.

AN APPEAL TO HAWKEYES Mr. Spaulding's Talk to People of the Old Home State.

The Dubuque Telegraph-Herald published a special Christmas issue containing many letters from former Dubuque residents, telling us how they were prospering and what they hoped for, etc., etc., as might seem to the writers to be of interest to their former townsmen. Among those asked to contribute was E. A. Spaulding of this city. And he responded promptly, for the opportunity came exactly at a time when he had something to say.

Mr. Spaulding, of course, told about himself and family, as he had been asked to do, and then he devoted some space to the valley and the great Tonto irrigation enterprise, giving an idea of its magnitude and importance. But his big talk was in respect of statehood, and he tried to start something that would bring an influence to bear on the senators from his old home state. The following is an excerpt:

"But the question that is of most importance at the present time is the question of joint statehood with New
