DILLON'S DISAPPEARANCE MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR YET

The Old Man Can Make no Satisfactory Explanation of His Long Wandering in the Mountains.

The finding of L. D. Dillon, the old man who was lost on Friday near the Superior mine, did not rob his disappearance of much of its mystery. He nothing, but was not hungry. He had had no sleep, yet he was not sleepy nor was he tired, though his younger companions were almost exhausted with their search of the day before.

Dillon said that he had found some water in a rock on the top of the mountain, and that it had a heavy coating of ice. He said that he had tried to keep himself warm during the night by covering himself with greasewood, and that he had put in part of the night throwing stones to keep his blood in motion.

His relation of events was quite incoherent. He said that when he left the tent with the pen he expected to join his companions in a few minutes and took no note of the passing time until he looked at his watch, when he found it was half past 2 in the afternoon. It is the opinion of the hunters that he could not have been more than a half mile from the tent at any time. Though he is partially deaf, he must have heard the big steam whistle of the Superior mill, which can be heard at ranch houses ten miles away. After his return he could not find the blind trail on which he had wandered, nor could he be impressed upon that he had been lost. Yesterday for the first time he seemed to begin to realize that he had had an unusual experience.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA

Writing under date of Sept. 7, 1904, Mrs. Mattie Shaffer, of Cumberland, Miss., says: "Some time ago I ordered and received your wonderful Cuticura Remedies, which I used on my little afflicted babe with wonderful results. I had tried many other remedies without any benefit whatever, and Cuticura came to the rescue when my doctors and all other remedies had failed. One doctor pronounced it scrofula, the other eczema. The little one was one solid sore, with scales and scabs from head to foot, when I started using Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The result was wonderful, and now my baby's face and body are smooth and clear." (Signed) Mrs. Mattie Shaffer

THE DUTY OF MOTHERS At the First Sign of Disfiguring Humors Is to Use Cuticura.

Every child born into the world with an inherited tendency to torturing, disfiguring humors of the Skin and Scalp, becomes an object of the most tender solicitude, not only because of its suffering, but because of the dreadful fear that the disfiguration is to be lifelong and mar its future happiness and prosperity. Hence it becomes the duty of mothers of such afflicted children to acquaint themselves with the best, the purest, and most effective treatment available, viz.: the Cuticura Treatment, consisting of warm baths with Cuticura Soap, and gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment, the great Skin Cure. Cures made in childhood are speedy, permanent, and economical.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills, are sold throughout the world. Foster Drug & Chem. Corp., Boston, Mass. Proprietors. See "How to Cure Disfiguring Humors."
