THE SALOON LICENSE STANDS AT $1,000

The Petition for a Reduction Rejected Last Night.

The liquor dealers of the city appeared before the city council at a meeting held last evening, presented a petition and through Captain J. L. B. Alexander, a prominent member of the council, explained the effect the recent raise in their license would have on their business. The meeting had been called by Mayor Coggins at the request of several of the liquor men, who desired that any action which the council might take before the ordinance raising the license would go into effect, which is August 1, and this would not be possible if the presentation of the petition was postponed until the regular meeting of the council, which is August 6. All of the members of the council were in attendance, and about twenty-five of the liquor dealers of the city were present.

Preceding the remarks made by Mr. Alexander, R. F. Doll made a short speech to the council. He was positive that the raise in license was against the interests of a large citizen-ship of the town. Mr. Alexander advanced several arguments in behalf of those he represented. The season of the year was a time when the raise would be a particular hardship. Trade was duller than at any other period, and while it was possible that during the winter months it would be possible to pay the high license there were many in the saloon business in Phoenix who could not pay it during the summer. He had understood that the raise in the saloon license was made that street sprinkling might be resumed. The increased revenue he thought was far in excess of the expense of the street sprinkling. He compared the recent raise of the gambling license with the saloon license and pointed out the fact that there was a wide discrepancy in the percentage of the increases.

He argued that the saloon men were men who resided permanently in Phoenix, that they were dealing in a commodity produced from products of this country, while the gambler was in most cases a transient; he produced nothing and dealt in no production and most generally was irresponsible. Under such circumstances to him the raises made by the council were badly out of proportion. In concluding his remarks he explained that the saloon men whom he represented were not before the council in a threatening mood but came as petitioners and asked that only what was considered fair by the council be their action.

Mayor Coggins urged that any other citizen present make any remarks he might desire that the matter under consideration might be fully considered at this time. No one apparently had anything to add to the remarks of Mr. Alexander. The mayor then asked the council what its pleasure was in reference to the petition. On motion the petition was laid on the table on a roll call, all the members voting "aye."

The petition of the liquor men sets forth that it would be impossible for many of them to pay the federal, county and the city license in the increased amount and operate; that it is the desire to contribute more than it has in the past to the expense of operating the city; that the license of $1000 is higher than obtains in any other city in the United States with few exceptions, and those are where a larger population exists; that if the license was less than the amount fixed more saloons could operate and the revenue to the city be greater; that if the license was less than $800 the streets of the town might be sprinkled with the revenue derived. The signers of the petition were: Bank Exchange, Jno. P. Bodet, The Anheuser, Jack Gibson, Alex Rheinlein, M. A. Bats, Hans Herlick, R. F. Doll, R. L. Hayes, Simon Ackel, A. H. McCrary, Coyle Bros., Geo. H. N. Luhrs, London Saloon, G. Kahrs, Carl Brady, Joe Phillisetti, Red Light, Anton Gold, Carpenter & Phillips, Prosper Bordoni, Aug. Iben, Owl Saloon, Hotel Adams, Whiz House and Can Thompson.

Accompanying the petition of the liquor men was a petition from citizens and taxpayers asking that the license be reduced to a sum less than $800. It was signed by A. Steingger, O. Magnani, J. H. La Rue, The Arizona Hardware and Vehicle company, Prosper Bordoni, E. E. Prowell, Henry Rixen, Goldman & Co., Laurence Hennessey, Geo. Mann, S. Oberfelder, Redwood Murphy, trustee, by Jim Murphy, Edward Elsle, The National Bank of Arizona, Home Savings Bank and Trust company, Frank Ainsworth, W. J. Cain, Alex Rheinlein & Co., H. E. Stroud, W. T. Smith, J. T. Dennis, M. Jacobs, S. J. Tribolet and The Boston Store and Louis Melzer.

The effect of the council's action does away with, for the present, any hope the saloon men may have to secure a reconsideration of the license ordinance. It has been amended. The members considered they had worked too long to find a way out of their financial difficulties to undo what they consider a just move. As one of them put it at the close of the meeting: "We can run the town for the next year and pay our bills and create a fund that will be used in paying off some old debts of the city. Any legislation we enact in the future will not be to lower licenses but to raise them."

The section providing for a penalty to govern cases where a violation of the gambling or any license law is made was amended by an ordinance passed by the council. The old law provided for a penalty of $300 for each violation. The law as amended makes the penalty a fine of from $5 to $300 or imprisonment in the city jail of from five to 300 days, or both such fine and imprisonment. A very material change in the ordinance also makes each day the ordinance is violated constitute a new offense.

After disposing of the liquor men's petition the city printing contract for the ensuing year was disposed of by the adoption of a resolution directing the mayor to enter into a contract with the Arizona Republican in accordance with the bid made at a previous meeting.

HE MADE IT WARM FOR JACK O'BRIEN

The Good Showing of Berger, the Californian Amateur.

Philadelphia, July 16.—Sam Berger, the California amateur heavyweight, gave Philadelphia Jack O'Brien the hardest six-round battle of his career tonight. Notwithstanding that O'Brien continually sent his left to the chin and wind, Berger came back and forced the fighting in every round. O'Brien had all the advantage in the opening round and landed at will. His foot work seemed to trouble Berger, but as the fight progressed the Californian improved. In the second round Berger opened up a deep gash over O'Brien's left eye and the Philadelphia had Berger bleeding from the nose. Both were covered with blood as they went

S.S.S. BLOOD HUMORS

Itching, disfiguring eruptions, rashes, boils, etc., as well as pimples, black-heads and rough, scaly skins, show the presence of some irritating humor in the blood. These acids and humors with which the blood is filled are being constantly thrown off through the pores and glands, and the skin is kept in a feverish, diseased and unsightly condition. Nothing applied externally can change the condition of the blood or prevent the outflow of poisons and acids; only constitutional treatment can do this. The countless washes, salves, lotions, etc., that are used cannot reach the humor-laden blood and are, therefore, useless, except for the temporary comfort and cleanliness they afford. The acid poison in the blood, which is the cause of the trouble, must be removed before a cure can be effected. S. S. S. is a real blood purifier, possessing all the requirements to neutralize and remove the humor from the circulation. It completely eradicates every trace of the poison and restores this vital fluid to its natural state of purity. S. S. S. cools the acid-heated blood so that instead of pouring out acid matter on the skin it feeds and nourishes it with health-sustaining properties, and the eruptions and diseases of the skin pass away. It is especially recommended for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their results, as bronchitis, throat and lung diseases (except consumption), accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It cures catarrhs of the bladder, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med.
